MANY CLOSE CONTESTS IN PRIMARY ELECTION

Heavy Vote Cast by Republicans on Account of Competition for Offices.—Democratic Vote Light.

A J. WILSON WON BY ONE VOTE

List of County and Township Nominees of Both Parties.

The primary election Tuesday created as much interest in some sections of the county as a national election, due to the fact that there were so many contests for nominations on the Republican county ticket. Scrambles for township nominations also caused a thorough rounding up of voters in many sections. The Democratic vote was light, owing to the fact that the only opposition on the county ticket was between Ralph W. Moss and Jacob E. Craven for the nomination of Congressman. The vote for Moss was 694. Cravens polled 218.

The race between several candidates on the Republican ticket was so close that it was not until every precinct had reported that the winners were known. A. J. Wilson and Wm. H. Walls pulled off their usual neck-and neck race for the treasurership nomination. Wilson won by one vote. Two years ago he won by three votes. The surprise of the day was the total piled up by Ernest E. Owens, who defeated C. W. Gaston for the nomination of prosecutor by 348 votes. Owens was expected to make an interesting race for the nomination, but the result was unexpected.

The race between several candidates on the Republican ticket was so close that it was not until every precinct had reported that the winners were known. A. J. Wilson and Wm. H. Walls pulled off their usual neck-and neck race for the treasurership nomination. Wilson won by one vote. Two years ago he won by three votes. The surprise of the day was the total piled up by Ernest E. Owens, who defeated C. W. Gaston for the nomination of prosecutor by 348 votes. Owens was expected to make an interesting race for the nomination, but the result was unexpected.
