Be it Remembered on this 21st day of January 1920 the Farmers Loan Company by their Attorneys Clark & Nicholas and filed the following complaint for a cause of action The Plaintiff in the above Entitled cause for a cause of action against the defendant. alleges and says that this Plaintiff is a corporation duly organized and incorporated under the Laws of the State of Indiana and as such leased the said Defendant on the first day of December 1919 a certain Room being the west Room on the Ground floor of the Brick Business Block situated on a part of Lot 7 Block 28 in the original Town of Danville Indiana to have and to hold the same until the first day of January 1920 the defendant still withholds and Retains Possession of said Real Estate and property from this Plaintiff and Refuses to deliver possession to it. That the said Defendant has Locked the doores to said Property and is neglecting to Look after the same But is away from his home attending School in the city of Fort Wayne Indiana. and that said property is damaging by Reason of such negligence.
Said Plaintiff further averes that it is planning to Remodel and Improve said Entire Block by making substantial Repairs to the same and Installing a heating plant throughout the said Building and in the Room now held by this Defendant. That owing to the fact that the said defendant Refuses to deliver Possession to the Plaintiff that it is delayed in the Improvement of said Building to its damange. That by Reason of the unlawful and Wrongful act and the Refusing to Possession to the Plaintiff by the Defendant. it has been Greatly damaged in the sum of $200.00 dollars. wherefore the Plaintiff Prays Judgement for Possession of said property and damages in sum of two hundred dollars (200.00) for the Wrongful detention thereof and for other and proper Relief in the premises

On the filing of said complaint I issued summons to the above named deft. and delivered the same to John R. Bryan Special Constable returnable at 10 A.M. on the 16th day of August 1923. On said date said summons was returned endorsed as follows: "Come to hand Aug 11, 1923, And served same by leaving a copy thereof at the last And usual place of residence of the defendent, a person of proper age & discreation, residing upon said premises.

Signed John R. Bryan"

Aug. 16, 1923 at 10 A.M. Come now the Plaintiff by counsel and shoes to the Court the summons issued herein together with the return of John R. Bryan all endorsed as follows, towit (H.I.) from which the court finds that the defendent was duly served with summons herein for more than 5 days before the 16th day of Aug. 1923, That being the day fixed by order of Plaintiff endorsed on the complaint herein.

And said defendant failing to appear And answer said complaint is now three times loudly called and come not, but herin wholy makes default. And the cause is sumitted to the court for trial, finding and judgement without the intervention of a jury. And the Court, having been sufficently advised in the premisis finds generally for the plantifs that the allegations of their complaint are true: that the defendant unlawfuly detained the possession of said real estate from the plaintiffs: And that plaintiffs are entitled to the sum of $88.00 damages for the unlawful detention thereof It is therefore ordered adjudged and decreed by the court that the Plaintiffs have possession of the premisis mentioned and described in their complaint, and recover of the defendant the sum of $88.00 damages together with their cost in the suit taxed at.
