Brownsburg, Indiana, July 17, 1914.

Charles E. Edwards,
Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court,
Danville, Indiana;

Dear Sir:

We are in receipt of your favor of this date, requiring us to bring our notice of appointment as Notary Public from the Governor into your office before we can be qualified to act as such official.

We were duly commissioned by the Governor on July 14, 1914 and bonded by the American Surety Company of New York. We went before G. A. Johnson, of this place, a Notary Public, and was duly sworn in. We sent the bond and a fee of One Dollar--which Mr. Johnson said was that prescribed by law-- and in good faith regarded the matter as ended, believing that your duties in the matter went no farther than the receiving your fee and filing said bond. We believe that we are correct in the premises and that we are now a Notary Public in truth and in fact. If you are certain, however, that we err in this matter and can cite us to the fact, we will take pleasure in following the intent of the law.

We are enclosing herewith 10 cents in stamps to cover fee of the fee you claim due.

Thanking you in advance for a prompt reply, enclosing stamp therefor, we remain very truly yours,

John R. Sheehan
