Comes now Pearl Rutledge, the duly appointed, qualified and acting administratrix of the estate of Ernest Rutledge, deceased, and files and presents to the court her petition for instructions with respect to compromising action for the alleged wrongful death of the decedent herein, showing to the court that on December 24, 1946, at about 3.30 P. M., the decedent herein was riding as a passenger in a Willys automobile, then owned and driven by one Harold Templin, which Willys automobile was involved in a collision at a point approximately two miles east of Danville, Indiana, on State Highway 36, at or near the intersection of said highway commonly known as Bartlett's Chapel road; that as a result of said collision the decedent herein sustained personal injuries from which the decedent died the following day on December 25th, 1946; that the decedent left surviving him his widow, Pearl Rutledge, and a minor daughter, Marjorie Rutledge, age seventeen, who were then dependent upon him for maintenance and support and who are both still living; that the decedent did not leave any other person who was directly dependent upon him for maintenance and support; that said administratrix has commenced action against Everett Beasley, the driver of the other automobile involved in said collision, on account of the alleged wrongful death of the decedent herein caused by said Beasley, in the Marion County, Indiana, which action is designated as Cause No. 63676 and which is now pending; that said administratrix asserts that the death of said decedent was proximately caused by the negligence of said Everett Beasley and that the damages to which she is entitled as administratrix, on account of said alleged wrongful death, amount to $10,000.00; that Everett Beasley asserts that he was not negligent in any way on the occasion of said accident and that any damages which the administratrix may be entitled to recover are less than $5,00.00; that the administratrix has received an offer from said defendant to compromise the various claims and assertions that have arisen out of said accident, under the terms of which said defendant will pay to said administratrix $6,500.00, plus the court cost on dismissal of said Cause No. 63676 in Marion Circuit Court, in final compromise and settlement of all claims against said defendant on account of the alleged wrongful death of the decedent herein; that it is believed that said offer of compromise is the best and highest offer which can be obtained and that the acceptance thereof is in the best interest of the dependents for whose benefit said action has been commenced; and that said Everett Beasley has submitted to said administratrix a draft of a release agreement, copy of which is filed as Exhibit A, to said petition, which petition is in the following words and figures, to-wit:
