

ORDINANCE NO. 1978-3

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING ORDINANCE NO. 1974-3

WHEREAS, the Board of Commissioners of Hendricks County, Indiana, having met in emergency session on March 23, 1978, and having inspected certain county roads and having heard testimony from the County Highway Superintendent and the County Engineer, now finds that an emergency exists to protect the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of Hendricks County and the general public using the Hendricks County Road System and now, therefore, it is ordained as follows:

1. That section 2, line 3 and section 3, line 4 of Hendricks County Ordinance 1974-3 be amended by deleting the figure 30,000 and inserting therein the figure 20,000 in lieu thereof.

2. And that said ordinance be further amended by adding thereto paragraph 2 of section 3 as follows: That the Superintendent of the Hendricks County Highway Department shall be and is hereby authorized in his discretion to declare certain roads or portions of roads in the Hendricks County Road System to be extremely hazardous to the health and safety of the users of said roads and to declare said roads to be closed to local traffic only and to erect warning flashers, signs and barricades as are necessary to limit said traffic.

Inasmuch as an emergency exists, this Ordinance shall be in full force and effect immediately upon its adoption.

Adopted this 23rd day of March, 1978.
