

The Clayton Commercial

The Hendricks County Farmers' Paper—To Them a 'New Deal', a Square Deal

Vol. IX—No. 9

Clayton, Indiana, Thursday, August 1, 1935

$1.50 Per Year, in Advance

Death of Brother of Mrs. India McClure

Mrs. India McClure was called to Indianapolis last week because of the illness and death of her brother, Wm. Winsted, who died Thursday morning at the Methodist Hospital of heart trouble. He had been ill since Sunday and was taken to the hospital Tuesday evening. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Brad Winsted, and was born on a farm southeast of Clayton on Road 40, in 1870, being 65 years of age. He grew to manhood in this community and made many friends. He united with the Belleville Methodist church when young and recently moved his membership to the Broadway Methodist church in Indianapolis. He was married to Miss Nora Craven, who died ten years ago, leaving an adopted son, October 29, 1934. Mr. Winsted was married to Frances McClintock. He was in the hardware and implement business in Clayton with George Short as a partner and later was connected with the Oliver Winsted Implement Co. He went to Indianapolis in 1902 and was a salesman for the Deering Harvester Co. and also the Avery company. At the time of his death he was Indiana sales manager of the Dexter Mfg. Co. He leaves a wife, an adopted son, Robert of Valparaiso; two brothers, Oliver of Philadelphia and Delbert of Plainfield; five sisters, Mrs. India McClure of Clayton, Mrs. Ida Seacore of Danville, Mrs. Maud Warner of Kokomo, and Mrs. Alta Douglass of Cartersburg and a number of other relatives. Funeral services were conducted for him Saturday afternoon at the home at 2838 Central ave. burial at Crown Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Beers of Greencastle spent a few hours with friends in Clayton Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Myrtle Bosley of Chicago, who is visiting relatives here and at Indianapolis is with her sister, Mrs. A. G. Baker and family this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. H. McCullough went to Scottsburg Thursday to be with his mother who is seriously ill. They returned Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ethor Neat and their daughter of Crown Center spent Saturday evening with their daughter, Mrs. Leon Rogers and husband.

Mrs. Anderson of Indianapolis spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mrs. Wall Cooper and family. Freeman Cooper and family were also guests Sunday. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Cooper were neighbors several years ago, and were delighted because of the opportunity to be together again.

Mr. and Mrs. Basil Franklin visited their brother, Herman, at the Methodist Hospital Sunday. He is doing well and hopes to return home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Underwood of Bridgeport visited their uncle, General Underwood and family, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jones and their daughter, Margaret, of Amo, called to see Roy Edmonson and family Sunday evening.

Mrs. Nellie Clawson Sergrist and her husband of Indianapolis were guests of her mother, Mrs. Martha Clawson, last Sunday. Mrs. Lowell Franklin and daughter were afternoon visitors.

Mrs. Alva Pratt, who has been with her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Brown for some time, spent Sunday with Roy Allen and family.

Mrs. Duncan is with her daughter, Mrs. G. W. Stone and family. Mrs. Stone's sister, Mrs. Ethel Bothwell of — also spent last week as her guest, returning home Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Michaels spent Sunday with Clarence Havens and family.

Walter Chambers and family were with his mother, Mrs. Angie Chambers Sunday at dinner. Mr. and Mrs. John Derr and son, Billy, spent Sunday evening with them.

Mrs. Audra Kinney and daughters of Chicago returned home Sunday after a week's vacation spent with Wall Cooper and family.

Chicken Thieves Again at Work

Chickens were stolen from three farms in the Clark's Creek neighborhood Saturday, July 27. Ray Price lost 75 buff rocks. Paul Husey, 70 white rocks and H. D. Archer, 70 white leg-horns. It is no pleasure to raise chickens, only to have them stolen in this manner, and the thieves, if caught, should suffer the supreme penalty of the law.

Church News

Rev. Heemstra at the Presbyterian church will have a vacation through August. Sunday school at 9:30 Sunday morning as usual.

The aid society of the Presbyterian church will hold their regular monthly day meeting at the church Tuesday, August 6. Cafeteria dinner at noon.

The Half Century Class of the Presbyterian Sunday school met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Ella Mitchell for Bible study.

The young people's class with their teacher, Willard Edmonson, Mrs. Edmonson and several friends enjoyed a delightful outing at Turkey Run Sunday.

Rev. Slaughter of the Baptist church will have a vacation through August.

Mrs. Wm. Fisher, who is with her sister, Miss Litton, attended an all-day meeting Friday of the Cherry Grove aid society of which she is a member.

The young people's class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, taught by R. D. Stone, went to his farm near Hazelwood Sunday following Sunday school and enjoyed a happy day. A real dinner and generally good time was the order of the day. A number of the group played in the band at the Hazelwood homecoming in the afternoon.

METHODIST CHURCH

F. J. Beisel, Minister
Services for Sunday, August 4th:
Church school at 9:30 a. m. A. G. Baker, superintendent.
Worship service at 10:30 a. m. Worship theme: "Worthwhile Righteousness."

Red Letter Day

Nine ladies who were members of the Little Bethel Sunday school, south of Ben Davis, in their younger days, with their families and a few friends met Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Allen, one and a half miles north of Clayton, on the Danville road, and spent a happy day together. Old pictures and reminiscence caused much laughter and fun. The wonderful cafeteria dinner served at 12 noon and the cordial hospitality extended to the guests by Mr. and Mrs. Allen and sons certainly made the day a memorable one. Those present were C. B. Long and family of Indianapolis, Dick Nelson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Brite Gilbert, Mrs. Carrie Poland and son, Harry, Miss Lena Huffman and her father Lon Huffman, and Mrs. Wm. Wilson and son, Fred Marshall and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Lora Rhoades all of Ben Davis; and Mrs. John Craven and Mr. and Mrs. John Hollingsworth, Clayton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson went Tuesday afternoon to visit their son, Rev. Maurice Thompson and wife at Summitville.

The S. O. S. Club members were entertained Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Mirth Shields of Danville, an out of town member. Guests with the club were Mrs. Robert Sage and Mrs. Urban Sage of Clayton and Mrs. Norris Porter of Danville.

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Nimal of Parkersburg, W. Va., visited Mrs. Blanche Thompson and family the week-end. Betty Nimal, who has visited here several weeks, returned home with them. Visiting in Ohio came home with them and they stopped enroute here and visited Ft. Benjamin Harrison training camp.

Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stanley went to Pittsboro Sunday afternoon to see his mother, who is seriously ill.

Mrs. Ella Stewart and daughter, Wiona and Milly called to see Mrs. Eugene Hill Tuesday morning.

There will be no Liberty Township Farm Bureau meeting this month.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Givan and son, Earl, motored to Batesville last week and spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. Givan's sister, Mrs. Ed Shultz, who is ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Sewall Leitzman are adding a kitchen and bathroom to their property occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Cushman.

Mrs. Gibson, who has been with her daughter and granddaughter, Mrs. Ford and Elizabeth Thomas for some time, has returned to the home of her son, Earl Gibson, at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Otis Rogers returned home from the Coleman hospital Sunday morning after a ten days stay. She is in a quite serious condition, her system not being ready for a needed operation.

Elmer Muir of Bridgeton and his daughter, Mrs. Joe Hartford of Chicago visited Mr. Muir's cousin, Walter Coble and wife, Thursday.

Rhea Reunion Held at Mooresville Sunday

The 22nd annual reunion of the Rhea families was held at the Mooresville city park on last Sunday. The usual bountiful dinner was spread on long tables at the noon hour, with plenty of fried chicken and all the other good things in season. A business session and program was given in the afternoon.

The officers for this year were Mr. and Mrs. Web Rhea of Bargersville, president and secretary-treasurer. The incoming officers are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Covert of Whiteland as president and secretary-treasurer.

About 75 were in attendance and plenty of ice cream was served to all during the social hour.

Relatives from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Rhea and daughter, Rosemary of Grand Rapids, Mich.

Those attending from Plainfield were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Shepherd and daughter, Margaret. Place of meeting will be changed next year and will be held in the Danville city park instead of at Mooresville.

Birthday Celebrated

Helen Rogers entertained a group of friends Wednesday evening as a celebration of her birth anniversary. Buncos and other games were used as entertainment and refreshments of ice cream and cake were served. Guests were Eloise Harper, Louise Overton, Marian Rogers, Betty York, Betty Mitchell, Hazel Allen, Mary Alice Benson, Gertrude Bray, Virginia Lee Worrell, Howard Mitchell, Howard Wright, Jack Rhoades, Jack Barker, Donald Givan, Enos Allen, Billy Allen, Harry Wingler and John Rogers.

A large group of children from here took advantage of the free swimming hours Thursday and showed hearty appreciation of Mr. Calbert's kindness. Mrs. Opal Allen, Mrs. Marie Benson, and others, accompanied the children. Ralph Lopossa and family of Indianapolis visited his mother and family Monday.

Mrs. D. A. Anedron was hostess last Sunday at a family dinner given in honor of a cousin, Mrs. Homer Cecil of Richmond, Va., who is visiting relatives in Indiana. It was also a celebration of Mrs. T. H. Mitchell's birth anniversary. Relatives prepared a large angel food cake with decorations and candles for her. Guests present were: Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Mitchell, C. C. Mitchell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Givan, Merrill Givan and family, Herman Worrell and family of Indianapolis, Mrs. Phila Givan, Mrs. Elva Cecil of Richmond, Va., Earl Givan and family of Cartage, Miss, were supper guests with the group.

NEW ROAD PROGRAM

The $6,000,000 road work in the state will soon be under way. The one of most interest here is the making of road No. 40 a three-lane road to the state line.

Center Friends Church

will celebrate its

75th Anniversary

Sunday, Aug. 4

All Day Meeting
Basket Dinner at Noon
Followed by Prayer in Afternoon

Come

and spend the day with US

Henson-Kirk Reunion

At the 18th annual reunion of the Henson-Kirk relatives at the Clayton schoolhouse Sunday, both families were well represented and 114 enjoyed the bountiful dinner and a large number attended in the afternoon. A table was set apart for eight of the oldest guests present, of which Margaret Albertson of Clayton, mother of John Albertson, was the oldest, being 88 years of age, the eight averaging 80 years. Three of the original Henson family were present: Mrs. Margaret Albertson of Clayton, 88, Mangrum Henson of Monrovia, 79, and Alonzo Henson of Wiley county, Colorado 77. Mrs. John Daley of Mooresville was the only member of the original Kirk family present. Mrs. Daley is 75 and was accompanied by her husband who is 81. However the Kirks were represented by delegations from southern Hendricks, Morgan and other counties.

Among the many reminiscent talks which were so much enjoyed were those of Carl Minton of Martinsville and Alonzo Henson of Colorado, which were very impressive. John Albertson of Clayton, who has been president of the organization since the first meeting with his family, extended a cordial welcome to all and their genial thoughtfulness added much to the pleasant day.

Ruth Albertson Gives Party

Miss Ruth Albertson entertained the members of the 4-H Club Thursday night with a delightful lawn party. Miss Ruth is president of the 4-H Club and took this way of showing her appreciation of the hearty cooperation which has been given her by the members. All were present except four. The home was pretty in its array of Japanese lanterns and the games and dainty refreshments were thoroughly enjoyed.

Lowell Sawyers and family of Plainfield were visiting Fred Hadley and family, Sunday.

Rev. and Mrs. Harris were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lyons and son, Sunday.

Mrs. Ida Appleby and daughter have been with her mother at Coatesville the past week.

Mrs. Helen Kirk of Plainfield spent Saturday with her mother, Mrs. Alma Kincaid.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Reid and son, Donald Robert, spent the week-end at Gas City with Mrs. Reid's mother, Mrs. Comer.

Mrs. Gene Hill, Mrs. Mary J. Preyther and son, Mrs. Stanley Hadley and Fred Lambert attended the North Salem centennial Thursday.

Mr. Novella Newman of Cleveland, Miss, a house guest of Mrs. Manza McCormick, spent Tuesday with friends in Coatesville.

George Randall of Chicago came last Wednesday to visit Aisel Carnine and family.

P. O. Mitchell of Mammoth Cave, camp in Kentucky spent the week-end here with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Harlan spent Sunday with Mrs. Mary Elmore of Stilesville.

Lucille Masten of Indianapolis was a guest of Mrs. Marshall Douglass the week-end.

Mrs. Nellie Smith of Indianapolis spent Saturday night with Mrs. Cora Weesner and was a guest of her uncle, Fred Howard Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Kenworthy moved from Indianapolis to the Good property in the north part of town last week.

Evelyn Chambers, who has been ill for several weeks, was calling on her friends in Clayton Sunday evening. Her condition is much improved.

Ellsworth Milligan, who is in failing health, came Saturday to stay with his nephew, Leonard Franklin and family.

Elizabeth Thomas and children spent Sunday with Mrs. Thomas's brother, Leroy Ford and family of Indianapolis at their camp near Brownsburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Irl Mason of Indianapolis spent the week-end here with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Mason.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin Tuesday, July 30th, an eight pound boy.

Virginia Pack arrived home Saturday after five weeks with relatives in Ohio and Kentucky.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sample and Mrs. Osborn of Germantown, Ohio, were guests of George Pack and family Sunday. Virginia Pack, who had been

No Mausoleum Wanted In Mooresville Cemetery

Because town trustees said that the building of a mausoleum on one lot in a cemetery ruins the sale of adjoining lots and because the expense of permanent upkeep is so great that it scarcely can be provided for, an order was issued by the Mooresville town board for construction to be ceased on the mausoleum now being built in Mooresville cemetery for the late Don Carlos Morgan, founder of Camby. Although the floor of the structure had been laid, it was pointed out that the board never had considered the project in regular session. * * The Plainfield I. O. O. F. lodge, owners of Maple Hill cemetery at Plainfield, had refused to let a mausoleum be built there for the body of Mr. Morgan, and in a visit to Crown Hill cemetery, Indianapolis, Harry E. Wilson learned that Crown Hill requires a sum of no less than $100,000 to be placed in a trust fund for the care and repair of a mausoleum.

Mr. Wilson, E. N. Milhon, another board member, and Albert Buckner, told of a trip to Danville, Ind., Tuesday afternoon during which they examined a mausoleum in the cemetery there. Mr. Buckner pointed out that mausoleums built by companies which specialize in that type of work prove to be faulty, no matter how much precaution is taken. A seepage always occurs, he said, presenting an offensive odor, and an undesirable condition on adjoining lots.

On the suggestion of Mr. Wilson, it was decided to continue the discussion until the next meeting of the board.

Miss Craven Takes New Position

Miss Adaline Craven of Cartersburg has been appointed head of the medical record department at the University of Chicago clinics and assumed her new duties Tuesday. Miss Craven was head of the medical record department at the Indiana University hospitals for ten years, resigning there in November, 1934. She is a member of the Indiana and American Hospital Associations, is vice president of the Indiana Association of Medical Record Librarians and has held the office of treasurer of the Association of Record Librarians of North America for the last three years. She is the only librarian in Indiana who has been approved to teach medical record work.

Fidella Kirkham, Near Clayton, Died Monday

Fidella Kirkham, a well-known farmer of the Clayton community died at the hospital in Indianapolis Monday evening. He was taken there from his home north of Clayton, off the Danville road, several days ago. He was the fourth child of James and Jane Rudd Kirkham and was born at Wilbur in Morgan county, March 5, 1863. He received a good common school education and was married to Margaret Brewer when a young man. They were the parents of eight children, one having died in infancy, and a son, Claude died in 1915. The mother died several years ago and at the time of his death he had been married to Mrs. Jennie Stephenson less than nine months. He is survived by the wife; two sons, Fred of Pountanet and Dayton of Rockville; four daughters, Mrs. Belle Thomas and Mrs. Hattie Thomas of Rockville, Mrs. Roxie Thomas of Brazil, and Mrs. Blanche Pininger of Mecca; two sisters, Mrs. Alice Reeves and Mrs. Savannah Flower of Tamar City, Iowa; four brothers, Perry, Ot and Ed, of Clayton community and Alf of Terre Haute; and many other relatives.

Funeral services were conducted for him Wednesday afternoon at the farm home by Rev. Haramy, pastor of the Friends church at Danville. Burial in the South cemetery, Danville.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Osborn and son, Kenneth, and Mr. and Mrs. Perry Rushton were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Thompson, Sunday.

Mrs. Herman Worrell and son Billy of Indianapolis came to Clayton Tuesday and spent the remainder of the week with her father, D. A. Anderson.

Mrs. Anderson returned Friday night from a two weeks' trip through the East and found her home all freshened with new paint and varnish and a new Philgas stove installed.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernie Kirkham of Mooresville, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert McKamey, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Finley Franklin spent Friday in Indianapolis.

4-H Club Work Making Progress

All rural homes will receive this week a copy of the Hendricks County 4-H Club Fair catalogue. This book gives the general rules, premium list and program of the first Junior Achievement Contest ever held in Hendricks county. We look forward to this fair as only a beginning. Hendricks county is a good agricultural county and her crop of boys and girls are our first consideration. We want them to have equal opportunities with boys and girls of other counties. They learn to do, by doing.

The show is open to the public on August 9. The fair catalogue was made possible by the cooperation of the business men of the county and the county Farm Bureau is cooperating in every way. Gordon Sowers, Clayton vocational agriculture teacher has been busy making home visits and reports splendid interest and is well pleased with possibilities of the work.

Harlan W. Parr, Danville vocational agriculture teacher, has been spending much time in working up the catalogue, and mailing copies out this week. Mr. Parr is a hard working young man and Danville should feel proud to have such a fine young man at the head of this work in their schools.

Surely the 4-H Club work is bound to go forward in Hendricks county, with these capable leaders.

The 4-H Club met at the schoolhouse Friday for their regular weekly meeting. Members answered to roll call with the dish they liked to prepare best and two demonstrations were given. Beverly Overman demonstrated the setting of a table and Virginia Edmonson and Ruth Albertson the use of bias binding. Guyethel Woods and Martha Eunice McHaffie as hostesses served sandwiches and kool-ade.

Martha Washington 4-H Club Exhibit

The Martha Washington 4-H Club of Washington township had their local exhibit on 35th at the Avon school. Mrs. Marie Denny and Mrs. Bertha Crittenden, who were the judges, made the following awards:

- Clothing I—Idora Woods 1st; Joyce Huron 2nd.
- Clothing II—Clarice Watt 1st; Betty Hopkins 2nd.
- Clothing III—Virginia Parsons 1st; Mary Barnes 2nd.
- Clothing V—Martha DeLong 1st; Glenda Emry 2nd.
- Baking II—Gingerbread: Betty Hopkins 1st; Marion Ray 2nd.
- Baking II—Drop cookies: Mary Barnes 1st; Betty Hopkins 2nd.
- Baking III—Yeast bread: Martha DeLong 1st.
- Baking III—Butter layer cake: Martha DeLong 1st.
- Food Preparation I—Mary Parsons 1st; Marion Ray 2nd.
- Food Preparation II—Martha DeLong 1st; Virginia Parsons 2nd.
- Canning I—Martha DeLong 1st; Virginia Parsons, second.
- Health I—Betty Hopkins.

4-H Club Girls' Dress Review at Danville

The 4-H Club girls' demonstration and dress review is to be held at the court house in Danville, tomorrow, Friday, August 2, beginning at 8:30 a. m.

Approximately twenty demonstrations teams from all parts of the county are expected to take part in this contest and about ten girls in the dress review. The rules of the dress review permit only one girl to enter from each club.

Mrs. Roscoe Leak of Lizton and Mrs. Margaret Stillwell of Danville are in charge of the contest. Judging of the contestants is to be done by Miss Mae Masten of Purdue University.

Harry Wingler spent the week-end with Cecil Deem and family at Cartersburg.

Mr. and Mrs. Morton Lockhart and Mr. and Mrs. Dave Reitzel spent Sunday at Terre Haute the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Reitzel and daughter, Helen.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Littell and son, Raymond, and Iris Canary, enjoyed an outing at Schafer Lake the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Rushton attended a tin wedding given for Harold Frank and wife Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hubbard went to the North Salem centennial Sunday.

BRISBANE THIS WEEK

A Tough Old Bird
Five Billions More?
News of Hogs
Submarines Wanted

Amos R. E. Pinchot, who has lefture and thinks, atters profound trust, writing to one of the "professors."

"Capitalism is a tough old bird that will live a good deal longer than any of us will."

Capitalism means government by organized dollars and industry, instead of by organized soldiers, will last longer than the present generation, longer than this century. Capitalism is the new financial feudalism that replaced military feudalism. There is no reason why it should not last as long as military feudalism lasted, many centuries.

Senator Borah, one of the senate's able men, predicts that congress will sit until November 1, and that five thousand one hundred and twenty millions more will be appropriated for immediate spending. That would make about an even ten billions in extra appropriation for this year.

Two thousand one hundred and twenty millions of the money would pay the soldiers' bonus in "greenbacks," and three thousand millions would be used to take up mortgages on farms. The house would have to appropriate for this year.

"Hogs sell up to $10.00, best price since September, 1920." That comes from Kansas City—ten dollars and ten cents for a hog weighing in "greenbacks," that may not mean much to you; it means much to the farmers that raise hogs. It also has meaning for housekeepers that buy sausage.

For some mysterious reason, when pork prices go up 10 per cent sausage prices go up 100 per cent.

Rear Admiral Yates Stirling, Jr., commanding Brooklyn yard, says America needs long-range submarines to protect our interests in the Pacific. Since 1918, when peace returned, Japan, according to Admiral Stirling, has built 64 submarines, including 27 long range, each carrying six torpedoes, powerful guns, and able to cross the Pacific and return without refueling. Japan has also a special fleet of eight submarines for placing destructive ocean mines, four of them able to operate at depths of 400 fathoms in the path of enemy shipping.

Edward P. Shaver, of the "Anglo-American Scout" matter, fell in love with a girl sixteen, admits that to make his way clear he had to marry the mother of his two children into the water, kept pushing her away from the boat until she sank and drowned. This young gentleman is 6 feet 4 inches tall, but the electric chair can doubtless be arranged to fit him.

You will hope that no tender-hearted parole board will say, "He ought to have another chance." One chance to drown the mother of your two children seems enough.

Rona reports Fascist excitement because "Japan assumes the role of Abyssinian champion."

Mussolini's press says Japan sets herself up as leader of Asiatic and African peoples. Call it the civilization and culture of the white race.

A Fascist newspaper calls Japan "the enemy of Europe and America, dreaming of world conquest." That seems to be a keg of powder with only a spark lacking.

Scientists experimenting with guinea pigs take one over a hundred guinea pigs, never all the guinea pigs at once.

College professors, union labor leaders convinced of their ability to invent a better government, gentlemen who believe in no government at all, and other experimenters, should select a definite number of American guinea pigs for experiment, not practice on the 130,000,000 all at once.

Mrs. Margaret McDermott, spinster lady of Chicago, left $25,000 to an old split dog. Many wrote to the executors saying they simply "adore animals," especially split dogs, and would like to take care of the dog in return for the income on $25,000.

That interests men that leave large fortunes to daughters or sons. For many numbers from now on are always ready to spend money left to daughters, and scheming ladies, foreign or native, are ready to help a young gentleman spend his inherited money, as recently illustrated in a certain Ryan case.

Moscow dispatches say the Soviet's north polar flight from Moscow to San Francisco may start any day. If three Russian airmen make that 6,000-mile flight, nonstop, from Moscow to San Francisco successfully, San Francisco will be interested, and Washington, D. C., ought to be interested.

The government might even interest itself in building some long-distance planes.

© King Features Syndicate, Inc. WNU Service.

News Review of Current Events the World Over

President's Way of Ending Virgin Islands Row Arouses
Criticism—Senator Black Probes for Truth
About Utilities Cigar Box.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD
© Western Newspaper Union

THAT row over the administration of the Virgin Islands was so unpleasant that President Roosevelt was impelled to settle it himself. So he removed from office the two chief officers, Governor Paul M. Pearson and Judge T. Webster Wilson, had other jobs found for them, and nominated as Pearson's successor Lawrence W. Cramer, who was serving as lieutenant governor of St. Croix Island. Confirmation of this appointment was not immediate, but was pending the Senate's investigation of the islands affairs was slow in making up its mind about Cramer, and from St. Thomas came the news that the Senate had been attacked by a delegation from St. Croix, were protesting vigorously against the President's selection of a new governor.

The emancipator, opposition paper, said editorially:

"The islanders would about as soon have Pearson as Cramer. A change of policy can be expected. Poor and unknown as the humble people of the Virgin Islands may be, they are entitled to the same respect and courtesy from the President of the American Republic."

The disposal of Pearson and Wilson also aroused criticism in Washington. The former had been attacked steadily by Pat Harrison of Mississippi and other Democratic senators, but Secretary of the Interior Lakes had defended him warmly, so he was given a job under Jakes, being made assistant director of housing in the PWA at $8,000 a year, a place not previously filled.

In order to provide a job for Judge Wilson, a former congressman from Mississippi and a protégé of Senator Cummings, a woman was forced of the federal parole board. Attorney General Cummings requested and obtained the resignation of Dr. Amy A. Stannard, a psychiatrist who has been in the government service for a number of years, and who had been a member of the parole board since 1930. Wilson was sworn in as her successor. Since Wilson's qualifications were not as good as those of Stannard, who appeared to be chiefly political, opposition in Washington noted sadly that the parole board was getting back into political hands.

WHAT was the cause of the row? It was a newspaper article that said Senator Black had been named to the senate floor committee, wanted to know. Before the committee was called into session, questioning was done by John W. Carpenter of Florida, president of the Senate Power and Light company, and admitted freely that he and other utility men had hotel conferences, dinners and one session ended down Chesapeake bay with congressmen during the fight over the Wheeler-Rayburn bill. Senator Black himself had centered his efforts on Texas congressmen. But of the mysterious Black he could or would tell nothing. Black's conduct and probe, and finally asked:

"Do you still say that in the morning of the day before the vote on the utilities bill (death sentence) you didn't give a congressman a box wrapped up in a newspaper?"

Carpenter replied quietly: "I don't think I did, unless it was a few cigars."

Senate and house conferees met to consider the utility control bill, but there were small signs that they could get together, and one session ended abruptly in a real row. Two administration lobbyists, Benjamin Cohen and Dudley A. De Vane, were brought into the executive session by Senators Wheeler and Barkley and though Representative George Huddleston protested, their continued presence was insisted upon. Whereupon the two Alabama congressmen and his fellows from the house walked out and broke up the meeting. Cohen is generally given credit for writing the measure.

After leaving the committee room, Huddleston said flatly that the house conferees would not recede from the position that the "death sentence" must be eliminated.

OPPOSITION of the AAA amendments to the farm bill was strengthened by the Wallace decision to let the basic act go to the Supreme court, so the administration bill was passed by the senate with only 15 yeas.

Both Republican and conservative Democratic foes of the AAA are content that the Supreme court will hold the basic act unconstitutional, and an early test is assured by a senate amendment permitting suits to recover processing taxes that have not been paid on to producers of consumers. One of the major purposes of the amendments was to close the courts, but the senate rejected this scheme by a vote of 41 to 39.

As a result, the Houseack Mills case, in which the De-ton Circuit Courts of Appeals held the AAA unconstitutional, will not be thrown out and the highest tribunal will have a chance to pass upon it.

Amid so much adverse criticism, the action of the Midwest farm leaders gathered in Chicago must have been soothing to Mr. Wallace. Resolutions were passed praising the secretary and congressional leaders for their efforts in behalf of "agricultural equality."

The farm leaders urged senate approval for the commodity exchange bill, passed by the house, and asked for a new agency to be created to investigate the islands affairs was slow in making up its mind about Cramer, and from St. Thomas came the news that the Senate had been attacked by a delegation from St. Croix, were protesting vigorously against the President's selection of a new governor.

The emancipator, opposition paper, said editorially:

"The islanders would about as soon have Pearson as Cramer. A change of policy can be expected. Poor and unknown as the humble people of the Virgin Islands may be, they are entitled to the same respect and courtesy from the President of the American Republic."

The disposal of Pearson and Wilson also aroused criticism in Washington. The former had been attacked steadily by Pat Harrison of Mississippi and other Democratic senators, but Secretary of the Interior Lakes had defended him warmly, so he was given a job under Jakes, being made assistant director of housing in the PWA at $8,000 a year, a place not previously filled.

In order to provide a job for Judge Wilson, a former congressman from Mississippi and a protégé of Senator Cummings, a woman was forced of the federal parole board. Attorney General Cummings requested and obtained the resignation of Dr. Amy A. Stannard, a psychiatrist who has been in the government service for a number of years, and who had been a member of the parole board since 1930. Wilson was sworn in as her successor. Since Wilson's qualifications were not as good as those of Stannard, who appeared to be chiefly political, opposition in Washington noted sadly that the parole board was getting back into political hands.

WHAT was the cause of the row? It was a newspaper article that said Senator Black had been named to the senate floor committee, wanted to know. Before the committee was called into session, questioning was done by John W. Carpenter of Florida, president of the Senate Power and Light company, and admitted freely that he and other utility men had hotel conferences, dinners and one session ended down Chesapeake bay with congressmen during the fight over the Wheeler-Rayburn bill. Senator Black himself had centered his efforts on Texas congressmen. But of the mysterious Black he could or would tell nothing. Black's conduct and probe, and finally asked:

"Do you still say that in the morning of the day before the vote on the utilities bill (death sentence) you didn't give a congressman a box wrapped up in a newspaper?"

Carpenter replied quietly: "I don't think I did, unless it was a few cigars."

Senate and house conferees met to consider the utility control bill, but there were small signs that they could get together, and one session ended abruptly in a real row. Two administration lobbyists, Benjamin Cohen and Dudley A. De Vane, were brought into the executive session by Senators Wheeler and Barkley and though Representative George Huddleston protested, their continued presence was insisted upon. Whereupon the two Alabama congressmen and his fellows from the house walked out and broke up the meeting. Cohen is generally given credit for writing the measure.

After leaving the committee room, Huddleston said flatly that the house conferees would not recede from the position that the "death sentence" must be eliminated.

OPPOSITION of the AAA amendments to the farm bill was strengthened by the Wallace decision to let the basic act go to the Supreme court, so the administration bill was passed by the senate with only 15 yeas.

HOMEMADE ICE CREAM PLEASES

Expert Gives Some Advice and Good Recipes.

By EDITH M. BARBER

TURNING the ice cream freezer is one job that the children never mind if they are sure of a definite reward which comes when the dasher is removed from the can and not too wet scraped.

There are two kinds of ice cream makers, French and Philadelphia, both very good. The comparative cost depends on whether eggs or cream can be bought at the lowest price. For French ice cream a soft custard is made and chilled before the cream is added. For Philadelphia ice cream the sugar, salt and flavoring are merely mixed with the cream. Don't try to improve your ice cream by using heavy cream as it is likely to get buttery when it is turned.

Vanilla is always a favorite as it can be varied by the use of different sauces, chocolate, butterscotch or fruit to which nuts may be added if you like. If chocolate cream is your choice, heat your chocolate with the milk and beat until smooth and then chill before beginning to freeze. Ground sugared almonds or Brazil nuts make a delicious candy as well as rolled nut brittle or macaroons. If you like a caramel flavor you may caramelize half the sugar, then melt the rest and add to the can and stir until dissolved again.

In making ice cream the freezer should not be turned too fast. Slower turning gives smoother ice cream.

Philadelphia Ice Cream

1 quart thin cream
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
Mix well and freeze. To freeze: Crush ice. A burlap bag and a heavy wooden mallet makes this an easy job. When packing for freezing use eight parts of ice to one part of salt, as this comparatively small amount of salt makes a cream or ice cream. The salt is not used when the cream is frozen turn of the water and repack, using four parts of ice to one of salt.

French Ice Cream

1 tablespoon flour
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg or 2 egg yolks
1/2 cup milk
3 cups thin cream
1/2 tablespoon vanilla
Mix flour, sugar and salt, add the egg yolks and milk and stir gradually. Cook over low water 20 minutes, stirring constantly at first until the thickens. Add the cream and flavoring and freeze, according to general direction.

Mint Marshmallow Sauce

Melt one-quarter pound marshmallows with one-quarter cup boiling water. Add one-quarter cup of green coloring. Serve hot or cold over ice cream.

2 cups milk
3 squares chocolate
3/4 cup water
6 egg yolks
1 cup sugar
3/4 teaspoon salt
1 pint cream
1 teaspoon vanilla
Cook milk, Cook chocolate with cold water. Add one cup of milk slowly, stirring constantly. Cook until smooth. Add the remainder of the scented milk slowly to the slightly beaten egg yolks. Combine these mixtures. Add the sugar and salt and cook in a double boiler over hot water until a custard has formed. Add the cream and vanilla. Freeze, using a mixture of eight parts of ice to one part of salt.

Raspberry Ice

3/4 cups raspberries
1 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon lemon juice
Mash the berries through a coarse sieve and add to the sugar. Cook the sugar and water together, allowing it to boil for three minutes. Cool. Add to the raspberry juice and the lemon juice and freeze. Since raspberries are of such varying sweetness it is best to taste the mixture before freezing to make sure sufficient sugar has been added. It should be sweeter than you wish the finished ice to be, since it loses sweetness during freezing.

Bisque Ice Cream

1 cup water
3/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup cream
1 cup macaroon crumbs
Mix milk with water, add vanilla and salt. Whip cream until stiff. Fold into mixture. Turn into refrigerator freezing tray and freeze from three to four hours. Fill two pint trays. Preparation time, five minutes.

Color Tests

Color has three "attributes" or "dimensions": hue, value and chroma. Hue is that quality which distinguishes one color from another. Value is that quality which distinguishes light tints of a color from dark shades. Chroma refers to the intensity of color—that quality distinguishing bright, fine colors from subdued, or grayed colors.

Peach Bedroom

Peach is an especially pleasing paint color for the walls of a bedroom. An ideal mixture of the warm colors for the ceiling and white for the woodwork comprise a combination that makes a very flattering background.

The Household

By LYDIA LE BARON WALKER

THE person who travels, however short the distance, and by what conveyance: train, ship, auto or airplane, finds difficulty in keeping frocks from getting mussed and creased. It may be inconvenient to get the articles pressed, or to iron them yourself, yet there is a hesitancy about appearing in dresses that are not free from rumpled. Assuming that proper care has been taken in the packing, which care is essential, let us see what can be done to restore the frocks without work or inconvenience to anybody.

Fresh air pressing is a process that is not understood enough and advantage of it is lost through lack of knowledge. It is entirely minus air, yet the results are excellent. The frock is put on a hanger as usual with the arms of the hanger extending beneath the shoulders. If there are shoulder strap tapes on the under shoulder seams, clip them about the arms of the garment hanger. This will prevent the frock from slipping off the hanger. Safety pins can be used, if tapers.

Where to Hang Garments

If you are where it is possible to hang the garment on a clothesline out of doors, do so, or on the branch of a tree. These places are best of all, but if you must keep your garments in your own room, suspend the hanger, with its frock secured to it, near an open window where the fresh air can blow on it. The wind is an agent as well as the out-of-door element. The density of the atmosphere is another factor. For this reason twilight, when the air is slightly damp, is the best time for fresh air pressing, unless the day is early morning. Cloudy days because of the dampness are good for this pressing.

The wind will blow the creases out, so a breeze hastens the work. Prevention should be taken to bring the frock to the house, or take them away from the open window before the dampness takes away the crisp quality of the new, or laundered frock. The fragrance of the fresh air permeates the garments like perfume.

It may be interesting to hear that while I have been writing this story, I have succeeded in restoring two frocks which were rumpled after being in the sun case during a motor trip. The frocks are entirely free from the creases and wrinkles, and lie in the closet, and all the work there was to restoring them was to put the hangers with the garments on them out on a clothesline.

Help Health to Win

If you would rid yourself of suffering and come into the inheritance of health, guard against allowing a fatigue, valuable a virtue as it is, to suggest that other worthy factors be left to themselves. It is generally in small irritating troubles that initiative is lacking for the relief of pain. For example, if you start aching, how many persons have the initiative to go promptly to a dentist, even though they know that ultimately they will have to pay for the relief. They do not go to a dentist, but they do go to a doctor, and the doctor, after a long wait, tells them to go to a dentist. The initiative required is small compared to the relief that can be gained by proper treatment.

In the matter of comfort persons constantly let it pass them by just for the lack of initiative. They would rather endure with patience the discomfort of tired feet rather than take the trouble to get a footstool to put beneath them. Instead of taking the trouble to open a window or to shut it, as it may be, they will sit there hot or in a draught. Such persons miss the relief which they could have so easily gained. Initiative may be important in more ways than the present physical comfort.

I know of one family of which it is said "They learned to make themselves comfortable." They have easy chairs and footstools, cushions and comfort, and they see that they make their beds comfortable whenever they can have the chance to relax. A doctor seldom has to be summoned. They have the initiative to see that those who enter their home have all the physical comfort possible. How happiness is promoted when the proper initiative is taken and when endurance is but the final virtue.

Letter Box Lore

What of your mail box? Whether it resides close to your doorway or high and dry on a post beside the road, it represents you in the eyes of the world. If it's dingy and dull or rusted, give it a new coat of paint to protect it from the weather and make it attractive. If there is rust on the metal, be sure that it is removed with sandpaper before a new coat of color is applied.

Housewife's Idea Box

Keeping Butter Fresh

Sometimes you may have to keep butter for a long time. A good way to keep it from turning rancid is to place the butter in a small dish. Wrap out a rag that has been soaked in very cold water. Cover the dish with this cloth. You will be surprised to find how long the butter will keep.

THE HOUSEWIFE

Copyright by Public Ledger, Inc. WNU Service.

SOE BAKING PROBLEMS

CLABBER GIRL BAKING POWDER Try a Can TODAY

ECZEMA... Quick, Pleasant Successful Elimination

Let's be frank—there's only one way for you to get rid of itchy skin. The waste material that causes acidity, gas, headaches, bloated feelings and does other discomforts. Your intestines must function and the way to make them move quickly is by using EcZema... It's a pleasant, successful elimination so the necessary to get rid of the griping or harsh irritants is to chew a Miltelwa Water thoroughly, in accordance with directions on the bottle or tin, then swallow.

Miltelwa Waters, pure milk of magnesia in tablet form, each equivalent to a tablespoon of liquid milk of magnesia, correct acidity, soothe the stomach, soothe the bowels, and enable you to have the griping or harsh irritants is to chew a Miltelwa Water thoroughly, in accordance with directions on the bottle or tin, then swallow.

ASTHMA WAS STRANGLING HIM

Feels like a new man now!

"I had a severe attack of asthma and bronchial cough. I tried Nacor, improved steadily and now feeling fine."—Joseph Thompson, Indianapolis, Ind.

Stop those weakening spells of asthma and bronchial cough. Get better relief than Nacor (in capsule form) from your doctor. Get better relief than Nacor (in capsule form) from your doctor. Get better relief than Nacor (in capsule form) from your doctor.

CLASSIFIED ADS

FOR SALE

600 acre Florida ranch, new house and other buildings, good farming and outfit land, great opportunity for some one. Will take small property as part payment. Write: J. W. Brown, Box 25, Hillsboro, Ill.

Mushroom Lights—Limited number of Century of Progress mushroom garden lights still left. Send film and instructions. Write: H. C. Hemm, 3224 W. 42nd Pl., Chicago.

PHOTO FANS! Bargain! Three 8 by 10 inch enlargers, one 6 by 8, one 4 by 5, one 3 by 4. Send film and instructions. Write: H. C. Hemm, 3224 W. 42nd Pl., Chicago.

Suffering From Stomach Trouble, ulcers, indigestion? Send for a box of Nacor. It's a new medicine. Write: H. C. Hemm, 3224 W. 42nd Pl., Chicago.

Reduce Fat! No diet, exercise or dangerous drugs. No harm to your system. Write: H. C. Hemm, 3224 W. 42nd Pl., Chicago.

DWYN KILLS INSECTS IN HOUSE AND GARDEN

as fragrant as flowers in May

BALDWIN LABORATORIES CAN SUPPLY YOU WRITE FOR CATALOGUE

The Lucky Lawrences

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

Copyright by Kathleen Norris WNU Service

SYNOPSIS

The luck that brought the Boston Lawrences to California at the time of the gold rush has descended on the present generation. From a 4,000-acre ranch, their holdings have grown to a small farm, and the old family home in Clipperville, Phil, now twenty-five, has gone into the iron works, Gail to the public library and Edith to the book department of a store. Sam is in school, and seventeen-year-old Ariel is becoming a problem. Phil is fascinated by "that terrible" Lily Cass, whose husband has deserted her. Young Van Murchison, son of a wealthy family, returns from Yale, and Gail has visions, through marriage with him, of the turning of the Lawrence Luck. Dick Stanning, Phil's friend, has the run of the house. Ariel is making out of the house at night for joy rides. Phil protests to his sister, Edith, that they invite Lily Cass to the house. Gail goes to the house for a week-end with the Clippes, his uncle and aunt. She is received coldly. At a roadside cafe she sees Ariel, at midnight. Next day Ariel admits she has been at the place, and displays no remorse. Gail again complains to her mother, but to her father's surprise, to Los Gatos for a week-end visit.

CHAPTER V—Continued

"I may be engaged to be married this time tomorrow night," she thought, when she was in bed, reading. "There's a moment when one isn't, and then suddenly one is. That's all there is to it. Girls do get engaged; almost every girl gets engaged."

She thought of the Fosters and the Delahantys. Three, busy, homely unmarried sisters in each family. Two in the post office, two teaching school, one in the library, and one a stenographer. Gail's heart failed her.

It was not fair that some girls should travel, go places, do fascinating things, and then come back to the moment when one isn't, and then suddenly one is. That's all there is to it. Girls do get engaged; almost every girl gets engaged.

CHAPTER VI

The next day she rose unrefreshed and drowsy, and dragged heavily through her preparations to go to Los Gatos, as if the prospect were anything but inviting.

She would have felt dull with ecstasy a year ago; she felt dull and doubtful at this time.

Ariel, all helpful sympathy, came out to the house when Van parked there, honking wildly, at ten o'clock.

"Here," he said, leaping out, "I'll take that!" He shoved Gail's suitcase in the rumble. The three stood looking and gossiping in the soft foggy morning.

"I wish I were going with you!" Ariel said frankly.

"Well, why don't you come?" Van exclaimed, suddenly fired.

"Oh, no, I couldn't. I've got a date with the school for a week-end. Ariel protested, and I couldn't argue. I'm not dressed!"

For an instant the matter hung fire, and Gail did not know whether or not in that instant Ariel sent her a glance of wild hope. Immediately the younger girl settled the matter, and was running back into the house shouting, "Have a good time!"

Despite her sister's protests, Gail felt like a murderer as Van's car shot away across the long bare road, away from dusty, dull Clipperville into the beauty and shade and coolness of Far Niente. The thought of that quick, hopeful glance of Ariel's—that glance that might not ever even have been sent or been thought of—haunted her. Not that Ariel could have done, no. Obviously that would have been a mistake.

But Gail kept wishing that she, Gail, had urged it, had impulsively, ridiculously, pressed it. It would have made no difference in the outcome. The little Ariel knew that she mustn't expect to go places just because Gail did. She wouldn't have come. She would have known that they might not see her again.

And yet the memory of the little flying pink figure and the shouted "Have a good time!" in Ariel's odd deep voice would not let her be at peace. She was gnawed by hunger for Ariel, incessant and deep.

Van's mother proved to be a thin, dark, smart woman, with all the physical transparent glow of orange and black. She greeted her son with a fretful "Van, I suppose you know your father's furious at you and making it simply wretched for me?" and gave to Gail only an abstracted frown.

"I think you were in school with my mother, Edith. Peter is in San Francisco," Gail said, trying to seem at ease.

"I was in school with nobody's mother," said the mother. "Peter is in San Francisco," Gail said, trying to seem at ease.

The Lucky Lawrences

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

Copyright by Kathleen Norris WNU Service

SYNOPSIS

The luck that brought the Boston Lawrences to California at the time of the gold rush has descended on the present generation. From a 4,000-acre ranch, their holdings have grown to a small farm, and the old family home in Clipperville, Phil, now twenty-five, has gone into the iron works, Gail to the public library and Edith to the book department of a store. Sam is in school, and seventeen-year-old Ariel is becoming a problem. Phil is fascinated by "that terrible" Lily Cass, whose husband has deserted her. Young Van Murchison, son of a wealthy family, returns from Yale, and Gail has visions, through marriage with him, of the turning of the Lawrence Luck. Dick Stanning, Phil's friend, has the run of the house. Ariel is making out of the house at night for joy rides. Phil protests to his sister, Edith, that they invite Lily Cass to the house. Gail goes to the house for a week-end with the Clippes, his uncle and aunt. She is received coldly. At a roadside cafe she sees Ariel, at midnight. Next day Ariel admits she has been at the place, and displays no remorse. Gail again complains to her mother, but to her father's surprise, to Los Gatos for a week-end visit.

CHAPTER V—Continued

"I may be engaged to be married this time tomorrow night," she thought, when she was in bed, reading. "There's a moment when one isn't, and then suddenly one is. That's all there is to it. Girls do get engaged; almost every girl gets engaged."

She thought of the Fosters and the Delahantys. Three, busy, homely unmarried sisters in each family. Two in the post office, two teaching school, one in the library, and one a stenographer. Gail's heart failed her.

It was not fair that some girls should travel, go places, do fascinating things, and then come back to the moment when one isn't, and then suddenly one is. That's all there is to it. Girls do get engaged; almost every girl gets engaged.

CHAPTER VI

The next day she rose unrefreshed and drowsy, and dragged heavily through her preparations to go to Los Gatos, as if the prospect were anything but inviting.

She would have felt dull with ecstasy a year ago; she felt dull and doubtful at this time.

Ariel, all helpful sympathy, came out to the house when Van parked there, honking wildly, at ten o'clock.

"Here," he said, leaping out, "I'll take that!" He shoved Gail's suitcase in the rumble. The three stood looking and gossiping in the soft foggy morning.

"I wish I were going with you!" Ariel said frankly.

"Well, why don't you come?" Van exclaimed, suddenly fired.

"Oh, no, I couldn't. I've got a date with the school for a week-end. Ariel protested, and I couldn't argue. I'm not dressed!"

For an instant the matter hung fire, and Gail did not know whether or not in that instant Ariel sent her a glance of wild hope. Immediately the younger girl settled the matter, and was running back into the house shouting, "Have a good time!"

Despite her sister's protests, Gail felt like a murderer as Van's car shot away across the long bare road, away from dusty, dull Clipperville into the beauty and shade and coolness of Far Niente. The thought of that quick, hopeful glance of Ariel's—that glance that might not ever even have been sent or been thought of—haunted her. Not that Ariel could have done, no. Obviously that would have been a mistake.

But Gail kept wishing that she, Gail, had urged it, had impulsively, ridiculously, pressed it. It would have made no difference in the outcome. The little Ariel knew that she mustn't expect to go places just because Gail did. She wouldn't have come. She would have known that they might not see her again.

And yet the memory of the little flying pink figure and the shouted "Have a good time!" in Ariel's odd deep voice would not let her be at peace. She was gnawed by hunger for Ariel, incessant and deep.

Van's mother proved to be a thin, dark, smart woman, with all the physical transparent glow of orange and black. She greeted her son with a fretful "Van, I suppose you know your father's furious at you and making it simply wretched for me?" and gave to Gail only an abstracted frown.

"I think you were in school with my mother, Edith. Peter is in San Francisco," Gail said, trying to seem at ease.

"I was in school with nobody's mother," said the mother. "Peter is in San Francisco," Gail said, trying to seem at ease.

The Lucky Lawrences

By KATHLEEN NORRIS

Copyright by Kathleen Norris WNU Service

SYNOPSIS

The luck that brought the Boston Lawrences to California at the time of the gold rush has descended on the present generation. From a 4,000-acre ranch, their holdings have grown to a small farm, and the old family home in Clipperville, Phil, now twenty-five, has gone into the iron works, Gail to the public library and Edith to the book department of a store. Sam is in school, and seventeen-year-old Ariel is becoming a problem. Phil is fascinated by "that terrible" Lily Cass, whose husband has deserted her. Young Van Murchison, son of a wealthy family, returns from Yale, and Gail has visions, through marriage with him, of the turning of the Lawrence Luck. Dick Stanning, Phil's friend, has the run of the house. Ariel is making out of the house at night for joy rides. Phil protests to his sister, Edith, that they invite Lily Cass to the house. Gail goes to the house for a week-end with the Clippes, his uncle and aunt. She is received coldly. At a roadside cafe she sees Ariel, at midnight. Next day Ariel admits she has been at the place, and displays no remorse. Gail again complains to her mother, but to her father's surprise, to Los Gatos for a week-end visit.

CHAPTER V—Continued

"I may be engaged to be married this time tomorrow night," she thought, when she was in bed, reading. "There's a moment when one isn't, and then suddenly one is. That's all there is to it. Girls do get engaged; almost every girl gets engaged."

She thought of the Fosters and the Delahantys. Three, busy, homely unmarried sisters in each family. Two in the post office, two teaching school, one in the library, and one a stenographer. Gail's heart failed her.

It was not fair that some girls should travel, go places, do fascinating things, and then come back to the moment when one isn't, and then suddenly one is. That's all there is to it. Girls do get engaged; almost every girl gets engaged.

CHAPTER VI

The next day she rose unrefreshed and drowsy, and dragged heavily through her preparations to go to Los Gatos, as if the prospect were anything but inviting.

She would have felt dull with ecstasy a year ago; she felt dull and doubtful at this time.

Ariel, all helpful sympathy, came out to the house when Van parked there, honking wildly, at ten o'clock.

"Here," he said, leaping out, "I'll take that!" He shoved Gail's suitcase in the rumble. The three stood looking and gossiping in the soft foggy morning.

"I wish I were going with you!" Ariel said frankly.

"Well, why don't you come?" Van exclaimed, suddenly fired.

"Oh, no, I couldn't. I've got a date with the school for a week-end. Ariel protested, and I couldn't argue. I'm not dressed!"

Clayton Commercial

A WEEKLY NEWSPAPER PUBLISHED EACH THURSDAY AT CLAYTON, INDIANA. SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER AT THE POST OFFICE AT CLAYTON, INDIANA. C. E. & B. P. MAYHALL, Owners and Publishers

PLAINFIELD ITEMS

Don't forget Russ Fields general sale, September 10.

William Jamison spent his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Anna Jamison.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Thomas spent last week with his mother at Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mott of Iowa City visited her father, John Stanley, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jordan and son, Wendell, spent the week-end at Bedford.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Welker and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Walton spent last week-end in Chicago.

Mrs. Myron Heringlake spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. Henry Fingerly at Indianapolis.

Miss Mabel Ellis spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her aunt, Mrs. Jewar, at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Frank Calbert was admitted to the Methodist Hospital Monday for a major operation.

Mrs. Omar Bowler of Belleville was the Monday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Milson and family attended the Hawthood school reunion Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pike spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Dot Copeland at North Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. George Duma of Spencer spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Minnie Palmer, and friends.

C. M. Havens and daughter, Mrs. Stewart Fletcher and Frank Ellis and daughter, Mabel, spent Sunday with Will Dennis and family at Sheridan.

Miss Virginia and Mary Ann Mercer, who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mercer, returned to their home Monday in Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Girard spent Friday evening at Battle Ground. Their son, Paul, who had been there the past week, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McDowell of Indianapolis were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jackson and Ann Jackson returned home with them for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hootman of Peoria, Ill., spent their vacation with her mother, Mrs. W. L. Reasburg, who accompanied them to Mammoth Cave, Ky., last week.

Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Moon entertained a group of friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stanley of Bloomfield and Mr. and Mrs. George Bibbs of Bowling Green, Ky.

Everett Stanley received a "kick in the back" last Saturday when he was "jacking up" a machine and the jack handle flew off, striking him on the head. No great damage was done but the blow was quite painful.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rivers and three interesting little sons of Indianapolis are visiting friends here today.

Willard Fields, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fields, is seriously ill. He was taken to the Methodist Hospital Wednesday afternoon for observation and treatment.

The Friendship Sunday School Class of the Christian church, taught by Mrs. May Johnson, enjoyed a picnic supper at Riverside park Monday night.

"Sandy" Arnold, who works for the Kroger company, is spending his vacation at home. He is helping Jess Christman in the cafe "while he is resting."

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Middleton of Indianapolis were the Thursday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Heringlake and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heringlake.

Mrs. Merle White of Indianapolis was the week-end guest of Mrs. Anna White and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cooper.

Miss Jesse Rae Sims spent Monday and Tuesday with her aunts, Misses Jessie and Mary Sims in Indianapolis.

Miss Norma White of Indianapolis was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gentry and Miss Lola Ferguson.

Mrs. C. A. VanGorder of Marion, Ind., is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Butler, and family.

The Ladies Aid and Missionary Society of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. York on Thursday, August 8.—Committee.

Mrs. W. P. Ferguson and Audie Betty and Leona Ferguson of Niles, Betty, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. G. T. White and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace McCallum and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McCallum of Indianapolis were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Newlin.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Lydia Gore were Mord Carter, his daughter, Lucile, and husband, George. Also of Mrs. Hill, afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Lester N. Cope of Charleston, West Va., Mrs. Mord Carter, who attended the academy reunion as one of the teachers, and Dr. and Mrs. Amos Carter, of Plainfield.

State vs. Maurice Johnson. Defendant committed to jail for violation of conditions of parole, until further order.

State vs. W. M. Harless. Defendant pleads guilty to grand larceny. Taken under advisement.

Alta B. Parrish vs. Indianapolis Motor Ins. Inc., et al. Defendant, South Indian Motor Ins. Inc. files motion for new trial.

State ex rel Luther Simons vs. Clayton Bank & Trust Co. Receiver authorized to accept contract of Roy West, Nellie West and Henry West and compromise indebtedness of Cecil Martin.

Matter of liquidation of People's Bank & Trust Co. Receiver authorized to pay certain claim in full and compromise indebtedness of Arthur Sawyer.

Probate. Estates of Sarah J. Sellers and of Amanda A. Sellers. Bertha Higgins appointed admx. in each case with $250 bond.

Estate of Hannah Hadley. Admr. de facto now authorized to erect monument not to exceed $250.

Estate of Luther Hadley. Admr. authorized to sell sixteen hogs on market at private sale for cash and without notice.

Docket. Glen Masten vs. Odessa M. Swearingen et al. Foreclosure mechanic's lien.

Mary S. Hainingsworth, et al vs. Edward Myers. Notice.

Fred C. Wyand vs. Marie Wyand. Divorce.

Clara Brown, admr. estate of Sam Brown vs. Janis P. Francis. Damages.

Carradine Wooster vs. Myrtle E. Wooster. Divorce.

Harney F. Semones, peer. of Hunter Bank, Brownsburg, vs. Pat Fahy, note; same vs. Pat Fahy and Martin Fahy, note; same vs. Patrick Fahy, note.

Lyric Theatre. One solid hour of vaudeville that runs largely to comedy and the new Fox film entitled "Silk Hat Kid," which has Lew Ayers and Mae Clarke as its featured players will be presented on the new stage and screen program at the Lyric theatre in Indianapolis starting Friday.

Four of the six acts on the Lyric stage bill are to be comedy acts of variety.

Miss Hazel Cronk entertained with a picnic supper Sunday evening for Rev. and Mrs. G. J. Daniel and family. Other guests were Rosemary Broadhead, Sarah Edith Stanley, Mildred Maxwell, Marie Chandler, Margaret Pike, Warner McClain and Charles Pike.

Uncle Henry Hayden, who fell some months ago and was getting so he could get around on crutches fell again last Thursday night. Although he was not seriously hurt he was jolted up considerably and is not able to leave his chair.

Let us explain this system and it will save you plenty.

1 new Estate Heatrola and one used Davenport. Bargains for somebody.

MONAHAN Furniture Store

Our regular line consists of anything for the home, delivered anywhere. For merchandise not carried in stock visit our manufacturers display in Indianapolis.

Ice Boxes $1.00 and up

Grass Porch Rugs 85c and up

9x12 Ozite Rug Pads $4.95

Felt Base Floor Covering, 3 yds for $1.00

Swing Rocker and Chair all for $5.95

9x12 Congoleum Rugs $5.75

PLAINFIELD Beauty Shop

Permanent Waves $2.50 to $5.00

SCALP TREATMENTS Phone 41

OLIVE WINSTED THOMPSON

Don't forget Russ Fields general sale, September 10.

William Jamison spent his vacation with his mother, Mrs. Anna Jamison.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Thomas spent last week with his mother at Greenfield.

Mr. and Mrs. William Mott of Iowa City visited her father, John Stanley, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Jordan and son, Wendell, spent the week-end at Bedford.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Welker and Mr. and Mrs. Otis Walton spent last week-end in Chicago.

Mrs. Myron Heringlake spent Friday with her mother, Mrs. Henry Fingerly at Indianapolis.

Miss Mabel Ellis spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her aunt, Mrs. Jewar, at Indianapolis.

Mrs. Frank Calbert was admitted to the Methodist Hospital Monday for a major operation.

Mrs. Omar Bowler of Belleville was the Monday dinner guest of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Walton.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Milson and family attended the Hawthood school reunion Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pike spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Dot Copeland at North Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. George Duma of Spencer spent Sunday with her mother, Mrs. Minnie Palmer, and friends.

C. M. Havens and daughter, Mrs. Stewart Fletcher and Frank Ellis and daughter, Mabel, spent Sunday with Will Dennis and family at Sheridan.

Miss Virginia and Mary Ann Mercer, who have been visiting their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Mercer, returned to their home Monday in Indianapolis.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Girard spent Friday evening at Battle Ground. Their son, Paul, who had been there the past week, returned with them.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. McDowell of Indianapolis were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Jackson and Ann Jackson returned home with them for a week's visit.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hootman of Peoria, Ill., spent their vacation with her mother, Mrs. W. L. Reasburg, who accompanied them to Mammoth Cave, Ky., last week.

Last Friday night Mr. and Mrs. LaRue Moon entertained a group of friends in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stanley of Bloomfield and Mr. and Mrs. George Bibbs of Bowling Green, Ky.

Everett Stanley received a "kick in the back" last Saturday when he was "jacking up" a machine and the jack handle flew off, striking him on the head. No great damage was done but the blow was quite painful.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Johnson were Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rivers and three interesting little sons of Indianapolis are visiting friends here today.

Willard Fields, 12-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Fields, is seriously ill. He was taken to the Methodist Hospital Wednesday afternoon for observation and treatment.

The Friendship Sunday School Class of the Christian church, taught by Mrs. May Johnson, enjoyed a picnic supper at Riverside park Monday night.

"Sandy" Arnold, who works for the Kroger company, is spending his vacation at home. He is helping Jess Christman in the cafe "while he is resting."

Mr. and Mrs. Austin Middleton of Indianapolis were the Thursday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Heringlake and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Heringlake.

Mrs. Merle White of Indianapolis was the week-end guest of Mrs. Anna White and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cooper.

Miss Jesse Rae Sims spent Monday and Tuesday with her aunts, Misses Jessie and Mary Sims in Indianapolis.

Miss Norma White of Indianapolis was the Sunday guest of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Gentry and Miss Lola Ferguson.

Mrs. C. A. VanGorder of Marion, Ind., is spending this week with her daughter, Mrs. Robert Butler, and family.

The Ladies Aid and Missionary Society of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. E. E. York on Thursday, August 8.—Committee.

Mrs. W. P. Ferguson and Audie Betty and Leona Ferguson of Niles, Betty, spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. G. T. White and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace McCallum and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon McCallum of Indianapolis were the Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Newlin.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Lydia Gore were Mord Carter, his daughter, Lucile, and husband, George. Also of Mrs. Hill, afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Lester N. Cope of Charleston, West Va., Mrs. Mord Carter, who attended the academy reunion as one of the teachers, and Dr. and Mrs. Amos Carter, of Plainfield.

State vs. Maurice Johnson. Defendant committed to jail for violation of conditions of parole, until further order.

State vs. W. M. Harless. Defendant pleads guilty to grand larceny. Taken under advisement.

Alta B. Parrish vs. Indianapolis Motor Ins. Inc., et al. Defendant, South Indian Motor Ins. Inc. files motion for new trial.

State ex rel Luther Simons vs. Clayton Bank & Trust Co. Receiver authorized to accept contract of Roy West, Nellie West and Henry West and compromise indebtedness of Cecil Martin.

Matter of liquidation of People's Bank & Trust Co. Receiver authorized to pay certain claim in full and compromise indebtedness of Arthur Sawyer.

Probate. Estates of Sarah J. Sellers and of Amanda A. Sellers. Bertha Higgins appointed admx. in each case with $250 bond.

Estate of Hannah Hadley. Admr. de facto now authorized to erect monument not to exceed $250.

Estate of Luther Hadley. Admr. authorized to sell sixteen hogs on market at private sale for cash and without notice.

Docket. Glen Masten vs. Odessa M. Swearingen et al. Foreclosure mechanic's lien.

Mary S. Hainingsworth, et al vs. Edward Myers. Notice.

Fred C. Wyand vs. Marie Wyand. Divorce.

Clara Brown, admr. estate of Sam Brown vs. Janis P. Francis. Damages.

Carradine Wooster vs. Myrtle E. Wooster. Divorce.

Harney F. Semones, peer. of Hunter Bank, Brownsburg, vs. Pat Fahy, note; same vs. Pat Fahy and Martin Fahy, note; same vs. Patrick Fahy, note.

Lyric Theatre. One solid hour of vaudeville that runs largely to comedy and the new Fox film entitled "Silk Hat Kid," which has Lew Ayers and Mae Clarke as its featured players will be presented on the new stage and screen program at the Lyric theatre in Indianapolis starting Friday.

Four of the six acts on the Lyric stage bill are to be comedy acts of variety.

Miss Hazel Cronk entertained with a picnic supper Sunday evening for Rev. and Mrs. G. J. Daniel and family. Other guests were Rosemary Broadhead, Sarah Edith Stanley, Mildred Maxwell, Marie Chandler, Margaret Pike, Warner McClain and Charles Pike.

Uncle Henry Hayden, who fell some months ago and was getting so he could get around on crutches fell again last Thursday night. Although he was not seriously hurt he was jolted up considerably and is not able to leave his chair.

Let us explain this system and it will save you plenty.

1 new Estate Heatrola and one used Davenport. Bargains for somebody.

MONAHAN Furniture Store

Our regular line consists of anything for the home, delivered anywhere. For merchandise not carried in stock visit our manufacturers display in Indianapolis.

Ice Boxes $1.00 and up

Grass Porch Rugs 85c and up

9x12 Ozite Rug Pads $4.95

Felt Base Floor Covering, 3 yds for $1.00

Swing Rocker and Chair all for $5.95

9x12 Congoleum Rugs $5.75

Others too numerous to mention

MONAHAN Furniture Store

Classified Ads

FOR SALE—Hens and fliers at all times. Dressed or undressed. Fresh eggs. Phone 73. Hauler Almond, Plainfield, North Mill Street.

FOR SALE—Leather for harness. We buy hides for cash.—Gray's Tannery, 1 mile north of Mooresville.

WE DELIVER Northern Oats and agricultural lime; also Kitefman Bros. fencing, etc. Delivered to farmers at catalog price.—Frank Kellum & Sons, Camby, Ind.

FRYING CHICKENS FOR SALE.—Mrs. W. V. Stone, Plainfield phone 242-12.

EXPERIENCED FARM HAND and wife; to run farm; both milk; no children; Protestant; references; furnished house.—Box 272, R. R. 3, Indianapolis.

FOR RENT—5 room modern house furnished. Call at this office.

FOR SALE—Fresh Jersey cow; 1 Jersey heifer. Cleve Thomas, 1 mile north and 2 miles west of Plainfield.

FOR SALE—Yellow corn; one mare, 8 years, good worker, gentle. Lee Plummer, near Joppa. Mooresville phone 10.

WANTED—To rent 200 chick electric brooder with privilege of buying.—C. H. Carter.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Paul Martin of Clayton, July 30, a boy, weighing 8 1/2 pounds.

Mrs. Roberta Harrison spent last week in Clayville, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Meek and children will leave Friday for a two weeks' vacation. They will visit Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Kubech at Michigan City and Mrs. Charles Tews of Chicago the first week and will then visit Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Meek at Cataract, Ind., the second week.

Sunday dinner guests of Mrs. Lydia Gore were Mord Carter, his daughter, Lucile, and husband, George. Also of Mrs. Hill, afternoon visitors were Mr. and Mrs. Lester N. Cope of Charleston, West Va., Mrs. Mord Carter, who attended the academy reunion as one of the teachers, and Dr. and Mrs. Amos Carter, of Plainfield.

State vs. Maurice Johnson. Defendant committed to jail for violation of conditions of parole, until further order.

State vs. W. M. Harless. Defendant pleads guilty to grand larceny. Taken under advisement.

Alta B. Parrish vs. Indianapolis Motor Ins. Inc., et al. Defendant, South Indian Motor Ins. Inc. files motion for new trial.

State ex rel Luther Simons vs. Clayton Bank & Trust Co. Receiver authorized to accept contract of Roy West, Nellie West and Henry West and compromise indebtedness of Cecil Martin.

Matter of liquidation of People's Bank & Trust Co. Receiver authorized to pay certain claim in full and compromise indebtedness of Arthur Sawyer.

Probate. Estates of Sarah J. Sellers and of Amanda A. Sellers. Bertha Higgins appointed admx. in each case with $250 bond.

Estate of Hannah Hadley. Admr. de facto now authorized to erect monument not to exceed $250.

Estate of Luther Hadley. Admr. authorized to sell sixteen hogs on market at private sale for cash and without notice.

Docket. Glen Masten vs. Odessa M. Swearingen et al. Foreclosure mechanic's lien.

Mary S. Hainingsworth, et al vs. Edward Myers. Notice.

Fred C. Wyand vs. Marie Wyand. Divorce.

Clara Brown, admr. estate of Sam Brown vs. Janis P. Francis. Damages.

Carradine Wooster vs. Myrtle E. Wooster. Divorce.

Harney F. Semones, peer. of Hunter Bank, Brownsburg, vs. Pat Fahy, note; same vs. Pat Fahy and Martin Fahy, note; same vs. Patrick Fahy, note.

Lyric Theatre. One solid hour of vaudeville that runs largely to comedy and the new Fox film entitled "Silk Hat Kid," which has Lew Ayers and Mae Clarke as its featured players will be presented on the new stage and screen program at the Lyric theatre in Indianapolis starting Friday.

Four of the six acts on the Lyric stage bill are to be comedy acts of variety.

Miss Hazel Cronk entertained with a picnic supper Sunday evening for Rev. and Mrs. G. J. Daniel and family. Other guests were Rosemary Broadhead, Sarah Edith Stanley, Mildred Maxwell, Marie Chandler, Margaret Pike, Warner McClain and Charles Pike.

Uncle Henry Hayden, who fell some months ago and was getting so he could get around on crutches fell again last Thursday night. Although he was not seriously hurt he was jolted up considerably and is not able to leave his chair.

Let us explain this system and it will save you plenty.

1 new Estate Heatrola and one used Davenport. Bargains for somebody.

MONAHAN Furniture Store

Our regular line consists of anything for the home, delivered anywhere. For merchandise not carried in stock visit our manufacturers display in Indianapolis.

Ice Boxes $1.00 and up

Grass Porch Rugs 85c and up

9x12 Ozite Rug Pads $4.95

Felt Base Floor Covering, 3 yds for $1.00

Swing Rocker and Chair all for $5.95

9x12 Congoleum Rugs $5.75

Others too numerous to mention

MONAHAN Furniture Store

Our regular line consists of anything for the home, delivered anywhere. For merchandise not carried in stock visit our manufacturers display in Indianapolis.

Ice Boxes $1.00 and up

Grass Porch Rugs 85c and up

9x12 Ozite Rug Pads $4.95

Felt Base Floor Covering, 3 yds for $1.00

Swing Rocker and Chair all for $5.95

9x12 Congoleum Rugs $5.75

Others too numerous to mention

MONAHAN Furniture Store

Our regular line consists of anything for the home, delivered anywhere. For merchandise not carried in stock visit our manufacturers display in Indianapolis.

Ice Boxes $1.00 and up

Grass Porch Rugs 85c and up

9x12 Ozite Rug Pads $4.95

Felt Base Floor Covering, 3 yds for $1.00

Swing Rocker and Chair all for $5.95

9x12 Congoleum Rugs $5.75

Others too numerous to mention

MONAHAN Furniture Store

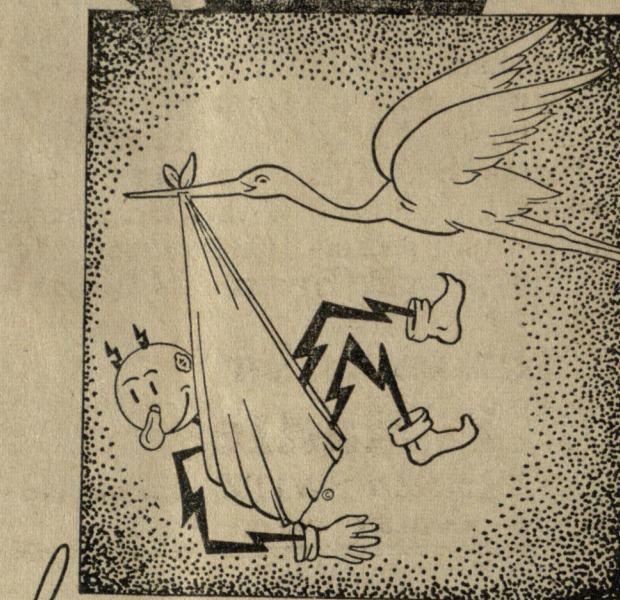

Our regular line consists of anything for the home, delivered anywhere. For merchandise not carried in stock visit our manufacturers display in Indianapolis.

Ice Boxes $1.00 and up

Grass Porch Rugs 85c and up

9x12 Ozite Rug Pads $4.95

SPEAKING OF Blessed EVENTS...

here's REDDY KILOWATT! your electrical servant

Reddy doesn't need room or board... but he's ready to serve you, electrically... day or night, at your command, and at wages of only a few cents a day. Put him to work. He'll more than pay his way.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY OF INDIANA

ious types. The headlines will be the Radio Rubes, a semi-rural singing foursome that has been prominent on the NBC network out of New York. The Radio Rubes will feature the vocal ministry of Rube Davis. Dialect comedy

Linen Suit a Midsummer Favorite

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The present vogue for linen is nothing short of sensational. Whether you go dining, dancing, swimming, flying, motoring, golfing or shopping, or play tennis, there's a linen for every occasion. From rustic cottages and peasant weaves and colorful Tahitian prints to alluring novelties in stripes and plaids and in sheer lovely effects for high-style evening wear.

Midsummer days are proving that linen suits, especially in white and natural tones, are of first interest among best dressed women for about town wear. A linen suit and a wardrobe of blouses and the problem of being smartly appareled during the daytime hours is solved not only for the immediate moment but for well on into the fall, since the very newest linens are in white shades, in Dubuconnet red, in beetroot, purple and orange tones.

Just now, while the weather is warm, it's the white and natural linens that are lending their immaculate and well-groomed appearance to the summer scene. The trio of stunning suits pictured represent the very cream of the linen in lines as now featuring on the style program.

The young woman seated shows that the linen fashion in that with her suit of moogashel linen, in natural color, she is wearing a dark blouse, the same being brown with white polka dots. You are doing the right thing this season if to wear your white and natural linens you choose dark accessories. The coat is single breasted, with buttons all the way up to the collarless neckline. A novel idea is introduced in the placement of deep large pockets above the belt line. Raglan sleeves add a final touch of smartness to this linen classic.

The other two suits are also of moogashel linen. It is rather inter-

SMART BEACHWEAR

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

This beach ensemble is out of the ordinary. It is fashioned of purple rayon lace over a linen foundation. Which again proves that lace goes everywhere this season. The ensemble consists of a pair of shorts and a blouse with a wrap-around skirt. The large hat is of purple straw.

POULTRY

EMPLOYS FANS TO CHILL WARM EGGS

Ohio Poultryman Finds Plan Is Worth While.

Supplied by the Ohio State University Agricultural Extension Service.

Fans are used by an Ohio poultryman, to cool eggs quickly in order to maintain quality.

The system, to be effective, the poultryman declares, must operate in a very humid room, otherwise the rapid circulation of air over the eggs quickly increases evaporation from the egg and enlarges the air cell.

Here follows a description of the method:

Over a cooling rack surrounded by damp burlap a down draft of cool humid air is forced. Water for the burlap is supplied by a pan over the rack. In this pan the upper end of the burlap is immersed. The water then follows down the burlap, which acts as a wick.

To prevent growth of molds on the burlap, it is dipped twice a solution of two ounces of copper sulfate in one gallon of water. The burlap is then wrung gently and dipped in a solution of eight ounces of washing soda in one gallon of water.

That the method is effective is proved by a report from the Wooster Egg Auction, where the poultryman mentioned sells his eggs. Before the system was installed, his eggs graded 32 per cent U. S. Extras and 68 per cent U. S. Standards. Afterwards his eggs graded 88 per cent U. S. Specials, the highest grade and 32 per cent U. S. Extras. None graded U. S. Standard.

est to know in this connection that King George sends the eggs grown on his royal estate at Sandringham, England (supposed to be the finest flock in the world) to Moogashel, Ireland, there to be woven, because the workmanship is so fine—quite a royal pedigree for these linens.

The two-piece centered in the group has a tight-fitting blouse coat with no belt to disturb the natural line. It is of white linen with navy buttons and tie. The double binding to the coat which gives a vestee effect is new and smart. The sports flap pockets are chic too.

Handstitching around the notched collar and the pockets gives a distinctive touch to the white linen suit to the right. The stitching and the belt are in matched coloring. The coat is four-holed, and a polka dot shirt is worn under it.

A very fashionable thing to do is wear a bright colored linen coat or jacket with your white linen. The three colored linens for these coats are the rage with beetroot or Dubuconnet red close seconds.

Then, too, novelty linens with nubby surface or woven pattern are in good style for suits and for coats. These heavier suits are mostly in oyster white. Very "fifty" ones are shadow-checked in gray and some stunning weaves are in herringbone patterning flecked with brown.

There are lovely embroidered linens shown for dressier wear and sheer striped linens are made up into fascinating evening gowns, as formally as if they were stately silks. With the new fall trend suits designers are creating clever blouses of these linens in colorings related to the costume entire.

© Western Newspaper Union.

SHOE COMFORT IS MOST IMPORTANT

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

To be footloose and free during the season of pleasant week ends and after-dinner breathing spaces, one must have foot comfort.

Cool shoes with flexible construction are a likely way of getting this comfort, with preference given lightweight numbers, and those that are ventilated by perforations, lattice and cut-outs.

Novelties in shoes are always at their peak in the summer season, and they are usually far more moderately priced than the novelties thought up for evening shoes to complement formal winter costumes.

Sandals of printed linen or crash, slippers covered with gay flowered chiffon, oxfords of splendid supporting strength, perforated into lacy prettiness, plain cotton or linen shoes of any color you can name, plaid linen in natural tones, checked gingham in kitchen apron designs, lightweight suede in any pastel hue or any flag hue and crocheted string shoes are just a few of the kinds you can choose from in the shops.

Oriental Influence Seen in Evening Clothes Styles

By CHERIE NICHOLAS

The Hindu influence, inspired by the Maharajah of India, has initiated a definite swing away from fitted, bias lines to softly draped designs in evening clothes. Allied influences, such as Persian, Arabian, and a new version of Grecian folds, contribute to the same effect. These fluttering, age-old drapery details are difficult to make and hence are not easily copied, a point being stressed now in high style circles.

Alas, the Parisian couturiere, has turned out a thrilling array of Oriental formal gowns. Most of them are topped with seductive saris, those long, scarf-like affairs which start out by wrapping around the body and then proceed to cover the head in the manner of a monk's hood.

Insect Cannibals Lower Crop Loss

Earworm Has Habit of Eating Its Fellows; Halts Greater Damage.

Supplied by the United States Department of Agriculture—W.S. Service.

The corn earworm's unfriendly habit of eating its fellows saves a great deal of corn that would be destroyed by these insect pests if they lived more amicably together. Out of several earworm larvae—sometimes as many as 20—entering the same ear of corn, only one may live to become an adult moth, according to recent studies by entomologists of the United States Department of Agriculture. The sole survivor of the 20 does not make away with all the others. Perhaps it kills only one or two. Its victims, however, may have accounted for one or two more, and so on. Corn earworm cannibalism is progressive.

Corn with long, tight-fitting husks is more conducive to cannibalism among earworms than corn with short, loose-fitting husks. The hungry larvae that hatch from eggs laid on corn silk outside the husk must work their way inside to the new silk and the kernels. When their only passageway is restricted—as it is when the husk covers the whole ear and extends well beyond the tip—the larvae frequently run upon another. No larva feeding by itself goes out of its way to pick a fight. But when it meets a fellow feeder it immediately lunges for a soft vulnerable spot of that fellow-feeder, sinks in its powerful little jaws, and voraciously devours its victim down to the hard seed capsule. In these quarters, where there is no room for a counter attack, the larva that strikes first is almost certain to win.

In open spaces, the entomologists say, all these tiny larvae lack to complete the picture of furious combat is the ability to grow, snarl, or hiss.

First Eggs Index Size That Pullet Will Yield

The United States Department of Agriculture is authority for the statement that if a pullet's first ten eggs are weighed, the average weight of her future eggs can be determined.

The average of the first ten eggs will be almost exactly seven-eighths of the average of the eggs for the year.

This information offers possibilities for poultry flock owners. Those who have neither the time nor the facilities to trap through the year for a few weeks during the fall, when the pullets are coming into production.

The research men of the department assure us that this rule is almost invariable, provided the following is true. First, that the pullets are receiving a well balanced and plentiful ration, and second, that they have had an adequate ration since laid their first egg.

People who are troubled with a lot of peewee eggs from their flocks can well afford to consider trapping for six weeks or two months—Wallace's farmer.

Quality of Egg Shell

That the texture and strength of egg shell are affected by feed is a well known fact, states a writer in Wallace's Farmer. The ration a hen must contain enough mineral matter to supply the body needs as well as to furnish the lime needed for the manufacture of the shell. A bird needs a diet in which the lime bears a certain definite relationship to the phosphorus. This relationship need not be exact, but in general the lime should constitute from 2 to 4 per cent of the ration, and phosphorus from one-half to 1.2 per cent. One should aim to feed a little more than twice as much lime as phosphorus.

Prevent Early Molting

A wet "fattening" mash is recommended by H. L. Wilcke, Iowa State college, for maintaining the body weight of laying hens, particularly the young pullets which are just coming into production. If the pullets have not become accustomed to eating the proper amount of scratch grain, they will lose weight and go into a partial or complete molt. A mash consisting of equal parts of ground corn and ground oats with skim milk or buttermilk, fed at the rate of two pounds for each 100 birds, preferably at noon, should keep the young birds in good laying condition.

Along the Windrows

Ten tons of soil an acre pass through earthworms each year.

Honey is used to manufacture one brand of golf ball now on the market.

Nearly 21,270,000 acres of land in England is devoted to grazing this year.

There are still 30,000 horses in New York city, requiring 900 stables to house them.

Seven farms have automobiles for every one that has electricity, in the Mississippi valley.

Official statistics shows corn is the North America's biggest crop, the normal yearly yield being about 50,000,000 bushels.

Two-thirds of the meat animals that are slaughtered in this country are slaughtered under government inspection.

Corn imported into the United States in 1934 amounted to 2,959,255 bushels.

More than 22,000,000 acres in Russia have been sown to grain this year.

Prospects for an apple crop in north-east Kansas are above the five year average, but a survey by the state horticultural society indicated.

When apple trees receive proper fertilizer and cultural care they will produce every year under favorable weather conditions.

RIDE INTERURBANS

Round Trip 1¹/₂C Per Mile

CHEAPER THAN DRIVING

Indiana Railroad System

MILK

"The Heart of Most Good Meals"

Because milk improves the flavor of other foods... it makes other foods "go further." Milk increases the energy and fuel value of vegetables. Milk supplies to cereals the minerals in which they are lacking, and is itself improved by being combined with them.

EVERY CHILD SHOULD DRINK A QUART OF MILK A DAY PROVIDED IT IS

JESSUP'S

Pure Pasteurized MILK

109—Just Phone—155
Plainfield, Indiana

AUCTIONEERS

ED JOHNSON—JOHN SWITZ

488-14—Mooreville Phone—55
Reverse Charges

Will take care of all details of your sale and give assistance in preparing advertising, printing, etc.

Best Results Guaranteed

Also representative of Sears, Roebuck & Co. Applied Roofing

Printing

Are You in Need of

Tags
Cards
Blanks
Folders
Dodgers
Receipts
Envelopes
Statements
Bill Heads
Invitations
Packet Heads
Letter Heads

Call at this office

Good Work Is Our Specialty

Scientist Captures Free Electricity

New York—A scientist's dream—harnessing sunlight as a source of electricity—has come true.

"Free electricity," drawn from sunlight, lit an ordinary electric bulb.

Dr. Colin G. Fink, professor of electro-chemistry at Columbia university, showed how his latest development, the "sun converter cell" had tripled the amount of electricity he could gather from the sun's rays.

Doctor Fink placed his cell on a window sill. Attached to a terminal of the apparatus was an ordinary bulb and a galvanometer—for measuring the strength of the current.

He pulled up a shade, allowing the light to strike the cell. The sensitive galvanometer immediately noticed a flow of electricity. A moment or two passed. Then the filament wire in the bulb began to glow.

Doctor Fink said he can now collect only 1 per cent of the solar radiation, but hopes to do better.

OWEN PARK

Free Admission

Open the Year 'round

Fishing, Boating, Bathing, Camping

Furnished Cottages

For reservations or information telephone Owen Park, Cloverdale, Indiana, or address

E. B. Shortridge

Catact, Indiana

Our Pet Peeve

By M. G. KETNER

German Artistic Census Is Begun by 50 Experts

Berlin—Germany has undertaken an artistic census that will keep fifty specialists busy for five years. The project was considered before but was dropped because of the lack of funds.

The plan was recently revived and fifty experts, most of them connected or formerly connected with university faculties, are now cataloging everything in the country belonging either to the state or to private persons, which may be considered to have artistic value either intrinsically or for historical reasons.

Britain Builds Hangars Below Ground at Malta

London—The British government decided to build subterranean airplane hangars at Malta by excavating in the rock which rises 400 feet above sea level. The imperial defense committee reported that hostile planes could demolish the present British airbases at Malta in less than half an hour. Similar steps are to be taken at Gibraltar.

THE FEATHERHEADS

By Osborne

FINNEY OF THE FORCE

By Ted O'Loughlin

S'MATTER POP— And He'll Catch Something Else When Maw Hears This

By C. M. PAYNE

"REG'LAR FELLERS"

MESCAL IKE

By S. L. HUNTLEY

There's No Telling About Muley

Our Pet Peeve

By M. G. KETNER

Check

4's Quak

Pleasure for All

Not Eggsactly

ON HIS BEAT

Couldn't Hide It

When the Game Is Over

COOLING

FOR HOUSE WEAR IN THE MORNING

PATTERN 2241

Wrigley's Spearmint Gum

THE PERFECT GUM

Wrigley's Spearmint Gum

THE PERFECT GUM

Wrigley's Spearmint Gum

THE PERFECT GUM

Wrigley's Spearmint Gum

THE PERFECT GUM

Wrigley's Spearmint Gum

THE PERFECT GUM

Wrigley's Spearmint Gum

THE PERFECT GUM

Program County 4-H Club Exhibit.

The Danville Band Will Furnish the Music

Wednesday, August 7th

All Girls' Exhibits except food preparation and baking must be in.

Thursday, August 8th

Food preparation and Baking exhibits entered by 9 a. m.

Judging of all Girls' Exhibits

Friday, August 9th

Everything Open to Public

8 a. m.—All exhibits in place

8:00-9:30—Judging of poultry

9:30-11:30—Judging of agricultural products

12:00-1:30—Boys' livestock judging contest

2:00 p. m.—Judging of sheep

2:30—Judging of hogs

3:00—Judging of dairy cattle

3:30—Judging of colts

4:30-5:30—Program in charge of Hendricks County Farm Bureau

Public Sale of

Real Estate

We will sell at public auction to the highest bidder, on the desirable property at 233 North Center Street Plainfield, Indiana. Good liberal terms will be offered and made known on day of sale.

Saturday, Aug. 10, '35

This property consists of a good ten room brick house in good condition and located on one of the best locations of Plainfield. It is only 2 blocks from the business section. Has a new roof, 3 car garage, bath, electric lights, shade, and a very large commodious front porch.

G. G. CUMBERWORTH

Agent

Pressley Christy-Laura E. Christy, Owners

TOM VINNEDGE, Auctioneer

CLAYTON

Elizabeth and Louanna Thompson were in Lafayette Friday.

Among those attending the Central Academy reunion at Plainfield Sunday were Mrs. A. L. Mitchell and guest, Miss Edith Raines of California, Edgar Reitzel, Alva Edmonson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Edmonson and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Johnson of Indianapolis.

Improvement Association will meet with Mrs. R. E. Hubbard Monday night August 5th.

Mr. and Mrs. Lora Rhoades of Ben Davis spent Sunday evening with Ed Cannon and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Noel, Marian Carter, Billy Allen and Enos Allen were at the North Salem centennial Thursday.

Miss Pearl Lane was the guest of her sister, Mrs. Murphy, of North Salem, from Thursday until Saturday and attended the centennial. Mr. and Mrs. Murphy were characters in the pageant.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Cox called Sunday to see Mrs. Ollie Smith and Mrs. Alice McClain of Plainfield.

The class of 1925 of the Clayton high school held their annual reunion at the school house Sunday. Many of the class members were unable to attend. Dessie McDade Phillips of Indianapolis was an out of town guest.

Mr. and Mrs. Farrell Shelton of Stilesville and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Pruitt were week-end visitors of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Stanley.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Burns spent Sunday afternoon with Dr. and Mrs. Arnold of Irvington. Dr. Arnold has been quite ill for two weeks.

Mrs. Blanche Jackson spent Tuesday afternoon in Indianapolis.

Mrs. Ollie Smith of Plainfield was the guest of Mrs. Elmer Cox from Wednesday until Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Buis were in Indianapolis over the week-end, guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Masten.

Mr. and Mrs. White of Indianapolis spent a few days last week with their daughter, Mrs. Mark Scott and husband.

Mrs. A. L. Mitchell and her house guest, Miss Edith Raines of Rellands, Calif., and Mrs. P. O. Mitchell and daughters spent Thursday at Turkey Run.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mantooth of West Newton and Vahl Walton of Indianapolis spent Sunday with home-folks.

Mrs. Anna Riggins of Caribburg spent Thursday night and Friday with Mrs. Sadie Hollingsworth.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McCormick moved to 2533 West Washington street, Indianapolis, Monday and have sold their home here to Misses Elizabeth and Corabel Candy who are remodeling the house and with their mother, Mrs. Mary L. Candy, will move to it when completed.

Ben Gorham took up his work at the Riley Hospital after a week's vacation. Arthur Pettit and wife of Indianapolis visited Mr. Pettit's brother, Sam Pettit and family, Sunday.

Oscar Muis and family of Valley Mills spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Coble.

Wm. Pritchett of Danville spent the week-end with his cousin, Mrs. Eugene Hill, and husband.

Mr. Bartley of Jacksonville is ill at his home.

Mrs. Mae Jones and husband of Mooresville and Mrs. Jones' sister, Mary Pridemore, are visiting in North Carolina.

Mr. and Mrs. Delmas Welty of Hall, Mr. and Mrs. John Lopossa and Rev. Slaughter were guests of Ralph Williams and family at dinner, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Wright and son, Desmond, of Hindsboro, Ill. were the guests of John Wright and family last Sunday. Miss Charlotte Wright returned with them after a week's visit with friends and relatives in Illinois.

Miss Charlotte Havens is at the young people's training camp at Bethany Park this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beadle and daughter, Mary, attended a family dinner Sunday at the home of Allen Johnson and family at Stilesville.

Mr. and Mrs. James Thompson were guests of Charles Miller of Bainbridge Sunday.

Berlie McGlothlin and family and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Urey and daughter, June, spent Sunday at Brown's camp, near Bainbridge.

Mrs. Ben Scott attended the Leadership Training School at Chicago last week. She went Monday and returned home Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Finley Franklin had as guests Saturday, Mrs. Barran, Mrs. Ida King, and Mrs. Dora Miller, all of Indianapolis.

Gerald Good of Plainfield spent last Wednesday with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Good.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kincaid had as guests Sunday Mrs. Geneva Cook and family.

Mr. and Mrs. James B. Poe had as guests Sunday three daughters, Mrs. Maud Warren, of Indianapolis, Bertha Stevenson, Mrs. Ada Little and Mrs. Greene, who has been with her son, Charles, and family for two weeks returned Sunday to her home in North Vernon. Jane Green went home with her grandmother for a visit.

Mrs. John Cohu of Bellefontaine and her family for two weeks returned Sunday to her home in North Vernon. John Allen Cohu spent the week-end with her.

Mrs. John Cohu of Bellefontaine and her family for two weeks returned Sunday to her home in North Vernon. John Allen Cohu spent the week-end with her.

Mrs. Joe Jones and Mrs. Ivan Stevenson of Plainfield spent Monday night with Mrs. George Hamblen.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Calvert and two daughters, Misses Mary and Catherine,

Wilhite

Beauty Shop

Permanent $1 $2
Waves $3

25c extra for Shampoo

Gent's Hair Cut 25c
Ladies' Hair Cut 25c

Open nights till 8:00

Clayton, Indiana

OLD TRAILS THEATRE

WEST MORRIS STREET & NATIONAL ROAD—MICKLEYVILLE

Friday and Saturday, Aug. 2 and 3—Double Features

"Home On The Range"

Jackie Coogan, Randolph Scott and Evelyn Brent

CAPTAIN HURRICANE

James Barton, Helen Mack, and Gene Lockhart

Popeye Cartoon

Comedy

Sunday and Monday, August 4 and 5—Double Feature

"DINKY"

Jackie Cooper, Mary Astor and Henry Armetta

"PRINCESS O'HARA"

Jean Parker, Chester Morris, Leon Errol and Henry Armetta

TECHNICOLOR CARTOON

PARAMOUNT NEWS

Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Aug. 6, 7 and 8

THE LIVES OF A BENGAL LANCER

Gary Cooper, Franchot Tone, Richard Cromwell, Sir Guy Standing
Adults 15c, Children 10c

of Oklahoma City, who had been visiting the lady's parents, Rev. and Mrs. F. J. Beisel, left Monday morning for Lafayette for a short visit and from there they will go home. Mr. Calvert holds a state job and reports everything running smoothly in his state and crops exceptionally good.

Old Trails Theatre Mickleyville on Highway No. 40

August 2 and 3—Double Feature—Zane Grey's "Home on the Range" with Jackie Coogan, Randolph Scott and Evelyn Brent. "Captain Hurricane" with James Barton, Helen Mack and Gene Lockhart. Popeye Cartoon and comedy.

August 4 and 5—Double Feature—"Dinky" with Jackie Cooper, Mary Astor and Henry Armetta. "Princess O'Hara" with Jean Parker, Chester Morris and Henry Armetta. Technicolor Cartoon and Paramount News.

August 6, 7, and 8—Gary Cooper, Franchot Tone, Richard Cromwell and Sir Guy Standing in "The Lives of a Bengal Lancer." A two million dollar production; four years producing; 20,000 persons in cast; one of the finest productions ever produced. Paramount News. Adults 15c, children 10c.

Circle Theatre

W. C. Fields laugh promoter of the age, reaches the top of his form as a comedian and pantomimist in his latest laugh riot, "The Man on the Flying Trapeze," starting a week's engagement at the Circle Theatre today.

With his particular gift for belly laugh comedy given full play, Fields carries the picture from one uproarious situation into another, pausing occasionally in his monkey-shines to allow the audience to catch its breath, and a moment later sending it off into gales of hilarity over the kind of buffoonery for which he has so definite a flair.

An amusing and quite plausible story carries Mr. Fields from one uproarious incident to another. This time he is as a downtrodden, submissive husband persistently nagged by his wife and mother-in-law, consistently supported in his scrapes by his daughter, Mary Brian. At the office he is a memory expert clerk for a woolen manufacturer. The action centers principally about Fields' efforts to attend a wrestling match. Unfortunately, his pretty young brother-in-law steals his ticket while the comedian, in one of his famous retiring scenes, has gone to the cellar to investigate the presence of burglars in the house. His troubles begin at once, from the moment he is jailed instead of the housebreakers to the time he gets to the fight after the boss gives him the afternoon off to attend his mother-in-law's funeral.

In a series of hilarious events, which establish Fields as the outstanding laugh purveyor of modern times, the worm begins to turn and in a funny but a strangely pathetic scene Fields walks out on his "in-laws" with his daughter. From that time on his luck begins to change. Kathleen Howard, Grady Sutton, Vera Lewis, Oscar Apfel, Lucien Littlefield support the star in his shenanigans.

News from Loew's

Another double feature program has been announced for the new attraction coming to Loew's on Friday, August 8nd, and lasting for seven days. The first picture on the dual show is the thriller by Edgar Wallace, "Sanders of the River," actually filmed on the Congo of the darkest Africa and starring Leslie Banks, Paul Robeson, Nina Mae McKinney with a cast of thousands of natives.

The story of "Sanders of the River" deals with the thrilling adventures of the miracle-working British District Commissioner Sanders, who by his personal courage and deep understanding of the natives' mind and heart maintained peace among the savage Congo tribes under his charge.

Robeson is to be seen as Bosambo, a big, handsome, intelligent Negro whom Sanders makes chief of probation. Banks has the title role of Sanders, while Nina Mae McKinney is to be seen as the beautiful slave girl, whom Bosambo makes his bride.

The villain of the narrative is a wicked old king, who takes advantage of his inaccessible mountain location to break every law and trade slaves.

The second feature is the Columbia Production of "Air Hawks," action and mystery thrilling story of the airways; a mad maniac invents a death ray and uses it for his own purposes, to strike down and kill airmen. Ralph Bellamy, Tala Birell and Douglas Dumbrille, and Wiley Post are prominently featured in the new picture.

Latest news events described by Edwin C. Hill in Hearst Metrotone News round out the program.

NOTICE OF SALE OF SCHOOL HOUSE AND GROUNDS

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned trustee of Liberty Township, Hendricks County, Indiana, will sell at public auction the following described school property belonging to said township, to-wit:

A part of the southwest quarter of the northwest quarter of Section 25, Township 14 North of Range 1 West, bounded and described as follows, to-wit: Beginning at the southeast corner of said quarter quarter section; thence North 15 rods; thence West 16 rods; thence South 15 rods to the South line thereof; and thence East 16 rods to the place of beginning, estimated to contain 1.50 acres, more or less; including the school house located thereon.

Said sale will be made on the above described property at 2:00 p. m. on Tuesday, the 19th day of August, 1935, for cash, and according to the statutes of the State of Indiana.

OSSE BARNES, Trustee,
7-25-35CMC Liberty Township

Chesterfields "go to town"
They Satisfy

—that's just the 1935 way of saying what Chesterfields have been saying for years . . .

Chesterfields do about everything a cigarette ought to do.

Chesterfields have TASTE—yes plenty of it. But not too strong.

And Chesterfields are MILD—but they're not insipid or flat.

Chesterfields "go to town"

