HONORABLE CLAUDE SMITH
CHOSEN FOR SPEAKER

Commencement Week Plans
Taking Form

It was announced recently that Honorable Claude Smith of Philadelphia will be the speaker for the Commencement exercises to be held on June 12. Mr. Smith is a summer student of CNC and has become outstanding in the law field.

After he had started his college work at CNC he went to Swarthmore College where he was graduated. After graduation he became associated as a law partner of Roland S. Morris former ambassador during President Wilson's administration. He is now a trustee of Swarthmore College and an important community factor in the life of Philadelphia.

This affair will be the climax of the week's activities which this year will be started on Friday, June 5 with the Sigma Phi Kappa Delta banquet to be held on that date. On Saturday evening the Alpha Mu Kappa dinner dance will be held. On Sunday, Baccalaureate will be held; Monday, Music Recital; Tuesday, Senior Convocation; Wednesday, Senior Play; Thursday, the Olcott Reunion; and then Commencement on Friday.

SCA PLANS UNIQUE PROGRAM

A unique program of song histories has been planned for the Student Christian Association meeting to be held in the Reception Room at 7:00 Tuesday, May 19. Mary Esther and Dorothy Martin will be in charge of the program. Songs will be sung and presented in instrumental form.

DID YOU KNOW THAT:

Of the 273 students whose names appear in the student directory 196 have married and quit school; 7 have completed their work and 19 have still in school. 16 have dropped out without stating reason. (Cont. on p3)

On Thursday evening, June 11, a unique dinner will be held honoring the memory of Mrs. E. E. Olcott, who for twenty-five years was a faculty member at Central Normal College. At that time Mr. Harry Kelly of Nashville will be the toastmaster and Mr. Grover E. Brown of Nashville will tell stories written by Mrs. Olcott and often told by her.

After the dinner all will adjourn to the Chapel Hall where a "Reunion" of the type sponsored by Mrs. Olcott will be held. Mrs. Gaston, who played for the "Reunions" which became famous, will play.

The arrangements for the affair are in the hands of co-chairmen: Mrs. Daisy Jones and Miss Bertha Watts, and of student members: Opal Williamson, student chairman, Audrey Mahuron, Rex Johnson, Harry Turner, Ruth Landley and Nellie Albright.

This is another incident supplementary to the establishment of the rooms in her honor. Mrs. Olcott's sister, Dr. Bush of Louisville, has offered a picture of Mrs. Olcott to be placed in one room as well as many of Mrs. Olcott's books. A special visit will be made by a committee to the home of Dr. Bush at which time further details concerning the life of Mrs. Olcott will be written and prepared for this occasion.

Invitations have been sent to many of the former students of Mrs. Olcott.

LEARN TO DIRECT YOURSELF

The person who is always "dead sure" of his way hasn't traveled far, but a traveler who can't or won't read the guide posts he finds along the way, gets unnecessarily confused and lost. There are many guideposts that help young folks to find on-leading roads.

Any one old enough to read books has traveled part of his way in living. Many of his habits of feeling, thinking and doing are formed.

Our parents start us on our way. This is a responsibility that we young people will soon have to assume. Ought we not be proud of our parents?

Teachers and school help a lot in establishing our ways. Here is another time that we should be well aware of and teach our pupils that way.

Our friends and companions greatly influence our way. How careful we ought to be in choosing our friends.

As we grow older, we visit new places, meet new people, find ways of living that conflict with ways we are in the habit of following.

Often we needlessly handicap ourselves by carrying all along the way, bad habits we've fallen heir to or have picked up from shiftless companions.

Effortlessly following the wants of the moment may be interesting for awhile as to results. Don't follow just the want of the moment. Your ways or habits of living must be the kind of ways that you and your friends can tie to and live with comfortably through the years.

Here's the big point. You have the power of self-direction. The job of growing up is the job of learning to direct your feelings, your thinking, and your doing.

SOMETHING FOR NOTHING

Do you recall ever receiving anything without having to work for it? Probably you have, but as a rule few people ever get anything without earning it. You realize, no doubt, that in order to receive a grade in a course, you must work for it. The same applies to our success in life; success will not come to anyone unless he works and puts forth an effort to gain it.

No doubt you have seen the people line the streets and fill the theatre on bank night--each one hoping that he will get something for nothing. Little does he realize that the owner is getting rich, so to speak, off the audience or he would not stay in business.

The same illustration can be applied to gambling. Some students like to "shoot a little crap." Why do they do it? The answer is evident--trying to win something without exerting any effort.

Just remember, no person will ever get to "first base" if he carries with him the idea of getting something for nothing. In order to get anywhere, one must exert his own efforts and apply himself; otherwise, he will soon be lost along the wayside. So when you see a person whom you hold as your ideal and desire to be like that person, just remember, he put forth his efforts to get there and did not expect to gain something for nothing.

MY INFERIORITY COMPLEXES

It appears that everyone has some bodily or mental weakness, wither real or imaginary, which he worries about. He may imagine he is not liked; that he is not good looking; or that he is lacking in intelligence. He may be too fat or too lean, too short or too tall. All such petty worries are called inferiority complexes. I had never heard of this big name when a boy, but I had them all the same, and I had them bad.

My first inferiority complex was that my head was too small. Yet I had often been accused of having the big head. What a paradox! My two older brothers, John and Levi, who had rather large heads, took notice that my head was under size, and often found occasion to remind me of it, and not in a very complimentary way. Then I began to notice it myself, with some displeasure, but did not say anything about it. I was not anxious to broadcast my frailties.

I felt very sensitive regarding this slight which Nature had put upon me, and wondered why I had been singled out as a mark of her displeasure. But in later years I have observed that our good Mother Nature is very fair in the distribution of gifts to her children. While she does not bestow all her graces and virtues on any favorite child, yet she endows each one with a goodly share. "Whom she makes beautiful, she rarely makes wise, and whom she makes wise, she seldom makes honest."

One day while yet a boy, I entered a store to buy a hat. The clerk showed me several, but they were all too large. He remarked, "I notice you have rather a small head." His innocent remark left a sting, and caused him to lose a sale. I did not buy a hat that day. Being often reminded that my head did not measure up to the standard size, and feeling very tender on the subject, I began to build up a line of defense, and to get ready for all unfavorable comments, especially from John or Levi. We had an old Jack on our farm that none of us respected very highly, yet he had an enormous head.

DELTA SIGMA KAPPA

The Delta Sigma girls are looking toward attending the Delta Sigma Kappa National Sorority Convention which will be held at the Antler's Hotel in Indianapolis this weekend, May 15, 16, 17. Quite a number of campus and off campus members are planning to attend the convention.

Because of defense program, the girls decided to not have their spring dance this year.

The regular meeting will be held Monday evening, May 18 at 8:30 p.m. in room 7.

HAVENS WRITES FROM WASHINGTON

Hello all:
 I'm wondering what the goings on are around the campus this evening? If it is as lovely there as it is here I can just about picture the usual group relaxing on Chapel steps after a grueling day of study, and certain twosomes strolling toward the park to play tennis-(perhaps).

Uncle Sam is really a pretty good Bandmaster. He doesn't expect too much from us but still enough to keep us busy.

There are some two-hundred fellows in the school at present. No more will be graduated until next November. It is possible that I may be one of these. The course of a day consists of about seven hours actual playing, various classes and the usual disciplinary duties.

I'm on a marching detail tomorrow, escorting the President of Peru, S. A. over the city, so I intend to turn in early to-night. Best regards, Cecil Havens U.S. Navy School of Music, Washington, D.C.

P.S. We're a happy lot of sailors today.

Music Notes

Only three more weeks until Commencement Week and already one can hear the Seniors of the Music Department feverishly working on their music for the Senior Recital. Miss Gaston is planning a recital to be held within the next couple weeks at which time she wants to help her students become familiar with stage presence and chase away stage fright. All music students are invited, but the seniors should really take advantage of this opportunity.

Elizabeth Valentine is to play for Sunday School at the Methodist Church and for church at the Friends Church Sunday Morning.

Laura Ruschhaupt played a violin solo Sunday for Mother's Day at the Methodist Church and Elizabeth Valentine accompanied her at the piano.

The Girl's Sextette sang at Avon for a Civic Club program honoring Mothers' Day last Wednesday evening but due to a change in arrangements they will go a week from tonight at which time they will sing at banquet organizing the alumni of C. N. C. in that locality.

The Mu Phi Epsilon, an honor music sorority, will give a tea honoring Miss Elizabeth Ayers Kidd, National President of the sorority, who is to give a lecture recital of ancient instruments, a subject in which she has spent much time and is considered an authority. Miss Gaston will take as her guests, Mrs. Virgil Hunt, Mrs. John DeLong of Greencastle, and Mrs. Gaston. The tea will be at the Governor's Mansion in Indianapolis.

Mary Esther Martin will sing at S. C. A. Tuesday evening and Dorothy Martin will speak on Hymns during the meeting.

Several weeks ago it was mentioned that the Music Department would write to service men who had been members of the department or of the Chorus, Band, or Orchestra. A chart has finally been placed in the Music Room with the names of such Service men and also names of those who said they would like to write. Please notice this chart and if you know of anyone who is eligible for this list of men and who is not mentioned please turn the name and address in to Anita Ruth Breitweiser or Miss Gaston. If you do not have their immediate address but know the home address please turn that in also. If you would like to be a correspondent with these men we would like your name, too. PSI CHIS WILL HAVE PICNIC

The Psi Chi held their weekly meeting Monday night and made plans for a werner roast next Tuesday night at six o'clock. Altha Guernsey, Dorothy Leathers, and Roberta Jean Miles were appointed on the food committee. All members and pledges are urged to go for a good time and good eats.

DOROTHY WHITCOMB MARRIED

I'm still working at the Webash River Ordnance Works at Newport---We've moved out to the plant site now. At first I simply hated it; I worked in the Mail and Records Dept. and all I had to do was filing and copy work, and it was all very dull routine. But about the middle of February I was transferred to the Timekeeping and Payroll Department, where I'm secretary to the Chief Government Timekeeping. It's very interesting work, and I like it a lot now. There are an awful lot of nice girls here, and everyone has a lot of fun.

I don't know whether you'd heard that I'm married now or not; well, I finally took the step. I'm Mrs. Jaroski now, but I'm still working under my old name, as it's too much trouble to change all the Civil Service records. It's quite a bit easier to handle too, you can imagine. Dorothy Whitcomb.

CAMPUS DIRT

Dear Campus Crier;

It has been my pleasure to hunt up the old reed organ. It seems as though we all could love and cherish a relic such that it is and find ample room to put such relics that have been handed down for quite some time. Possibly by Mr. Harper himself. Maybe he intended to give the organ to the school for just such a room. At any rate the Commerce Students, especially a selected few have been much disturbed over its disappearance. It is very loyal of this group to take so much interest.

May we all further our efforts to an enlargement of what we have here and even more important, a preservation of the things already possessed. I suggest that a department take a responsibility such as the Elementary teachers have done and establish a room for the preservation of College tradition. Relics (such as the organ) and trophies that are so unmercifully thrown around in the Commerce Department and so unskillfully displayed in the office of Dean of the College.

Take care of our property; your son or mine might want to attend Central Normal College. Let's enrich it for them?

Yours,

"Floogie"

AN OPEN LETTER TO "FLOOGIE"

It is indeed a pleasure to know that there is someone in this school who would sacrifice the time necessary to hunt the misplaced organ. Previous to the time the organ was re-finished, it had been stored in the bell tower, subject to rain and weather in general. However, I don't think it was given to the school by Mr. Harper, since the manufacturing date is much later. The "selected few commerce students" have a natural interest in the organ, considering the amount of time and work they have spent on it. The Elementary students are to be congratulated for their excellent work in establishing the Memorial Room. However, it is difficult to do the same thing in the Commerce Department for two reasons: 1. The difficulty in organizing the large number of commerce majors. 2. The lack of adequate space for class meetings, under the present system.

It would indeed be nice to have a trophy room--it would be impressive. But there are a limited number of rooms available for class discussion, with the result that some of the classes meet in the Commerce Office. It would be difficult to find a room in which to display such trophies.

Did you notice Franzman's "Tux" at the Psi Chi dance--and Helen Rogers was flaunting an orchid!!! Deah! Deah!

There's a joke going around on Dec Morgan. Ask her why some folks think she should study up on Canine anatomy.

Who is the flame who is chasing Tom Isaacs? She is a Freshman too!!

Why doesn't Freda Mae Pope let her boy friends take her home instead of getting out at the corner and walking home by herself?????

NOW — FOR COLLEGE MEN — A NEW OFFICERS' TRAINING PLAN

★ TO MAN THE MIGHTIEST AIR ARMY IN THE WORLD ★

IF Jap treachery and Nazi savagery make you see red — calm yourself. We shall pay them back with compound interest!

You as a college man now have the opportunity of serving as a Flying Officer — a Bombardier, Navigator or Pilot — with the branch of service which will do that paying back in person — the U. S. Army Air Forces!

If you are a Senior or wish to leave school — apply now for your Aviation Cadet training. After approximately 8 months — earn the right to be a flying officer in the U. S. Army Air Forces!

If you are a Freshman, Sophomore or Junior — you can, if you like, continue your studies under the Deferred Service Plan of the Army Air Forces.

New Simplified Requirements

To qualify you must be 18 to 26 (inclusive), physically fit — and pass a new, simplified mental test which college men find easy.

THREE ENLISTMENT PLANS FOR COLLEGE MEN

- 1. Seniors — Sophomores — Freshmen May Continue Their Education
A new plan allows Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen, aged 18 to 26, inclusive, to enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and continue their schooling, provided they maintain satisfactory scholastic standing.
 - 2. All College Men May Enlist for Immediate Service
All college students may enlist as privates in the Army Air Forces (unassigned) and serve there until their terms come for Aviation Cadet training.
 - 3. All college students may enlist in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and wait until they are ordered to report for Aviation Cadet training.
Upon graduation or withdrawal from college, men will be assigned to active duty at a training center as facilities become available. If the necessity of war demands, the deferred status in the Army Reserve may be terminated at any time by the Secretary of War.
- The new Army Air Force Enlisted Reserve Plan is part of an over-all Army Enlisted Reserve Corps program shortly to be announced. This program will provide opportunities for college men to enlist in other branches of the Army on a deferred basis and to continue their education through graduation if a satisfactory standard of work is maintained. In case of necessity the Secretary of War shall determine when they may be called to active duty. It is understood that men so enlisted will have the opportunity of competing for vacancies in officer's candidate schools. This plan has been approved in the belief that continuance of education will develop capacities for leadership. (Reserve enlistment will not alter regulations regarding established R. O. T. C. plans.)*

As an Aviation Cadet you receive $75 a month, with expenses paid. As a Second Lieutenant on active duty, your pay ranges from $103 to $245 a month.

About four out of every five Aviation Cadets this past year received Second Lieutenants' commissions — of which 67% are now flying officers! Commissions for ground crew service are also awarded.

Settle Your Service Now

To make America supreme in the air we need every college man who can qualify for active or deferred service.

See your Faculty Air Force Advisor for information and help with details. Join the thousands of America's college men who are enlisting this week!

NOTE: If you are under 21, you will need your parents' or guardian's consent. Birth certificates and three letters of recommendation will be required of all applicants. Obtain the forms and send them home today.
