EDUCATION

We wonder sometimes, just what is the purpose or function of education? What are you, as teachers going to teach? Will you teach just mere facts or will you teach something that will be of some real value to the students?

It seems as if education has failed to a certain extent when we survey this blood-soaked world. It seems as if man is stepping backward into the future not knowing which way to turn. It seems as if people have lost their true sense of reasoning and have come to a point where they let someone else try to solve their problems and carry their burdens.

We can say that the aim of education is to develop a person who is well adjusted socially and knows something. Education is a process of growth; it means a liberation of capacity. No teacher can hope to succeed unless he can comprehend clearly the general purpose of education. Bossing says that the purpose of education is "To develop in each individual the knowledge, interests, ideals, habits and powers whereby he will find his place and use that place to shape both himself and society toward even nobler ends."

The teacher is the most influential factor in education especially high school education. The teaching staff in any school or institution of higher learning should be the best qualified that can be secured. The ability of teacher training institutions to provide competent teachers will determine the success or failure of the American experiment of universal secondary education. The demand is for teachers with a broad, deep understanding of life. Teachers who have a philosophy of life that is bound to flow on to the students.

President Eliot of Harvard said: "The supreme value of a teacher lies not in the regular performance of routine duties, but in his power to lead and inspire his students through the influence of his own mental and moral personality and example." We must teach the student to think and reason; not to accept something just because someone else has said it but to be able to "row his own boat."

THIS 'N THAT

Wow! Talking of hot weather--and a summer yet to come! Such is life--if you feel too hot, just crawl into the refrigerator and shut the door.

Speaking of doors all goes to remind us of windows which remind us that the Olcott reading room in the East wing of the Recitation Hall is progressing nicely, what with drapes, paper and paint in order to date.

No doubt you visited the art and Flower exhibit Thursday. If so you know what a glorious mass of color the art room had been transformed into. Many beautiful flower arrangements and many pieces of art, done by Mr. Wilson's art classes were displayed in fine fashion.

Incidentally, if you've cars at all you've heard of the smash hit on cologne. Lets keep it up by buying Defense Stamps and bonds--Eh?

THE NEW ORDER

It is a recognized fact after this war there will have to be a new order, even though it may not be on the plan suggested by Herr Hitler.

Let us look at this problem of permanent peace from a very objective viewpoint. Let us suppose that after this war, instead of proposing disarmament, which has proven ineffective before, we use a different procedure. Suppose that we look at the ailing nations as though they were ailing human beings. Every so often there are a few cases of small-pox in different communities throughout the nation. Do the doctors let the disease run rampant through the countryside? No, they isolate the cases and confine the disease to narrow limits. Then why not apply this same theory to nations? Instead of calling in allies, and making a world affair of it, why not let these small wars fight themselves out, or better still, in setting up a League of Nations, also set up an International Army. The International Army could confine the war by brute force within narrow confines.

On the fact of it, this may seem impracticable. But the League of Nations fell because it lacked the power to enforce its decisions. It is impossible to have absolute, permanent peace. But it is not impossible to confine the wars to narrow limits and thus avoid this periodic world conflict which has taken and is taking today millions of lives.

If "John Bull" had ten or twenty thousand soldiers in an International Army, he would not recklessly invite disaster, and this does not apply to "John" alone. Any nation would hesitate to plunge into war against another country, knowing that in that country would be a force of the International Army, containing some of its own subjects, who had sworn to fight on the side of the defender. It would localize the war, and save many innocent civilians.

Some of our feckishness is born in us, the rest of it is the result of education. It's a nice question which causes us the most trouble.

Who's this fellow that has been meeting Jane C. after geography class?

Mary Alice Miller says she hasn't been doing anything lately.. Could this mean she has a steady in the army?

Is this a budding romance between Norma S. and Comer? At any rate they seem to get together an awful lot lately.

Did Harmon have a weekend of it! We're just judging from all appearances.

Tom and Mary are still going strong. You can't look anyplace but what you see them together.

What was Oliver doing pacing the streets Sunday night? We Hear a certain new freshman girl stood him up. How about it, Nondas?

We wonder if Betty Dove is going to keep house for Wheatley as he is going to live in Danville for a little while.

Is Helen ever going to quit telling her sister Ann what to do? It seems that Ann can't ever do anything without her permission.

We hear Sue Terry went to Indianapolis Wed. nite and she came back with a man's picture. What's this you are keeping from us? We wonder why Earl Hudson is buying that new set of dishes. That on top of all the painting he has been doing makes us wonder if Earl is planning for a new draft evasion.

Flash! McClung loses his bet!! Humphroys did not have a single date for two weeks after the boy friend returned to the army. It's being rumored about that she's planning a trip to Miss. as soon as school is out. Does this mean wedding bells?

John Oliver has all the looks of an expectant father to-day. Is there something you've been keeping from us, John?

Of course it's late to be mentioning it, but there are still some Alpha Mus that don't have dates for the dance and some girls just dying to be asked. Maybe we should start a date bureau—"Cupid Inc."

Did you know that this affair between Meeks and a certain Herman around town seems to be getting pretty serious. How long has this been going on?

We wonder if anything will come of the Donson and D. Houston affair? They seem to have been getting along alright Wed. night at the show.

Who was it that Ruth Percifield went with to Riverside? Were you looking for flowers??

What's this we hear that the girls all have to find a man before they start teaching. "The communities are too critical." Ask Catherine Goodmiller and Ruth P. about this.

What has Swanson been doing to give Doris so much worry that she is actually getting grey hair over him?

Why does Betty Meyers call Dr. Hightower "Uncle"?

We hear that Freda Pope and five other people went down to the park for a picnic. Guess what they had to eat? Your wrong it was fried chicken. I would like to go to a fried chicken picnic Freda. But Freda who was this man who you were with? I wish you would tell me more about it. It sounds interesting.

Four of them right now are working in the State House at Indianapolis with no more courses than I taught them."
