THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR--For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them, the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, before the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill out the blanks also.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

Very respectfully,

B. F. JOHNSON,
Chief of Indiana Bureau of Statistics.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR—For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, before the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR—For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW—COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR—For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, before the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

Township Assessors will make Compilation of Statistics shown on this blank, on a Statistical Book, which will be furnished by County Auditors, and from which book Township Assessors will make a condensed report, on blanks to be furnished by the Bureau of Statistics May 15, 1903.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR--For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

Township Assessors will make Compilation of Statistics shown on this blank, on a Statistical Book, which will be furnished by County Auditors, and from which book Township Assessors will make a condensed report, on blanks to be furnished by the Bureau of Statistics May 15, 1903.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR—For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW—COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR—For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR—For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR—For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

THE LAW-COUNTY AUDITOR AND ASSESSORS' DUTIES.

DEAR SIR—For your information, below are printed two sections of the law of March 11, 1895, relating to our mutual duties in regard to the work authorized in this statistical blank. They are as follows:

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana, That the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics shall annually provide the form of such blanks as in his judgment may be necessary for the information of the Bureau of Statistics, and shall, between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form of such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliver a sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for the assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out the blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for statistical purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he shall transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who shall neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not less than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill the blanks also.

the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of March of each year, furnish to each of the County Auditors in the State a form such blank, and it shall be the duty of the County Auditor of each county in this State to cause to be printed such blanks, and deliv sufficient number thereof to each of the Township Assessors in his county, at the same time that he delivers to them the blanks for assessment for taxation, and such Township Assessors shall, in connection with obtaining the lists for taxation, cause to be filled out blanks so furnished to him by the Auditor, with the information required to be furnished, such information, however, being for stati cal purposes in relation to agricultural and such matters as may be required; and he shall enter the totals in a report which he s transmit to the Chief of the Bureau of Statistics on or before the first day of July of each year.

SEC. 2. Any person or persons authorized by the Bureau to collect statistics or to answer questions relating thereto, who a neglect or refuse to make true returns shall be subject to the penalties now provided by law for such neglect or refusal (which is not than $10.00 and not more than $500.00).

In so far as the inquiries relate to city and town people, as to horses, cows, etc., please see that they fill blanks also.

Very respectfully,

B. F. JOHNSON,
Chief of Indiana Bureau of Statis
