

WILL BOOK
1883-1891

Parnes Stephen	1
Broadstreet Thomas Sr.	8
Barnes John D.	11
Bales Rebezer	19
Barton Ralph	24
Baker Susan	34

Coffin Elisha	4.	Demoss Hannah	10
Cornett John	9	Dooley Moses	21
Cot Jacob P	14	Dowhard Robt R.	23
Carpenter Mary A.	15-
Cassidy Thomas	20
Christie John	273
Cramm Wm Sr.	282

Eusminger Henry B
Edmondson Francis

5
10

Fowler, Joanna E.

33

Gassett Samuel
Gregg Martin Sr.

13

17

Holman Abasha
Hudricks Mary E.
Humphins Jehu
Hudley Milton E.
Hunttun Eduge
Haley Malachi
Hutton Mary
Hutton Hamilton
Hux. Sarah A.
Hadley, Mordecai

21

11

17

18

20

23

27

28

31

32

Jackson, Fredell.

5

Johnson, Edwin
Jenkins, Ruth
Jones, Adam.

13

28

30.

Leak James L.

1

Keith S J
King James

6

16

Lockhart Thomas

7

Lewis Lucentio E

15

Larson Julia A.

227

K
L
M
M
N
O

Mendenhall Samuel	8
Meridith Malinda J	12
Morris Lewis	14
Moore, Martha A.	30

O'Dea Thomas
O'Sale, John

6

31

N
O

Parker Thomas
Padgett James
Phillips Philomena

9
22
280

Reichardson Alfred H.
Rewe, Margaret
Reushton William Sr.
Robards, Nancy E.

24
25
26
32

Smith John Scott
Selch Eliza
Sellers Joseph H.
Stout Andrew C.
Squidney John B.
Snoddy James

3
3
4
7
~~15~~
18

Sharp James
Townsend, Jesse W.
Taut, James N.

12

29.

33

Teach James
Vannice Peter Co.

20
21

Woodard William
Wilson, Mm. M.

19
29

Will of Stephen Barnes, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 1st day of September 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Stephen Barnes deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Jeremiah Ragland who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. in Book No 4 at page

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Wm. F. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of James L. Leake, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 11th day of September 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James L. Leake deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, David C. Lane who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. in Book No 4 at page.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Wm. F. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of James Veach, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 12th day of September 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Veach deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, John T. Veatch who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. in Book No. 4 at Page.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

How. F. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Abasha Holman, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 4th day of December 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Abasha Holman deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, William J. Gibson who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. No 4 at Page 84

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

How. F. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of John [unclear]

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the [unclear] day of [unclear] 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John [unclear] deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, [unclear]

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Will of Eliza [unclear]

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the [unclear] day of [unclear] 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Eliza [unclear] deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, [unclear]

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Will of John Scott Smith, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 13th day of December 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Scott Smith deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Volney J. Brown who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. No. 4 at Page 86

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Amos H. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Eliza Selch, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 29th day of October 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Eliza Selch deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Oliver W. Hill and William M. Hillen who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they are subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witnesses. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. No. 4 at Page 82

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Amos H. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Elihu Coffin, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 17th day of December 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Elihu Coffin deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Albert Maxwell who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. to wit on Record No 4 at Pages 89, 90 & 91.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Amos F. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Joseph N. Sellers, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 29th day of December 1883, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Joseph N. Sellers deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Tilghman N. Christie who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. No 4 at page

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Amos F. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of John
The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 18th day of December 1884, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Albert Maxwell who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. to wit on Record No 4 at page

Will of John
The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 18th day of December 1884, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Albert Maxwell who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. to wit on Record No 4 at page

Will of Iredell Jackson, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 28th day of May 1884, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Iredell Jackson deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Newton M. Taylor who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. On Will Record No 1 at pages 101 + 102

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Amos J. Haynes

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Henry B. Ensminger, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 16 day of August 1884, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Henry B. Ensminger deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Elsie A. Kuchler formerly Elsie A. Reed who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that she was ^{the} subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court. Record No 4 Page 111 + 112

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. Chellard

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Nancy J Keith, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 8 day of April 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of N J Keith deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, James D Hawkins who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W R McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Thomas O'Dea, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 2 day of May 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Thomas O'Dea deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Thomas Maloney who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W R McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

7

Will of Thomas Lockhart, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 9th day of May 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Thomas Lockhart deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Amos S. Mills who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. Calland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Andrew C. Stout, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 15th day of July 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Andrew C. Stout deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Moses B. Pike who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. Calland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Samuel Mendenhall, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 11th day of August 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Samuel Mendenhall deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, John Hurray who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he ~~the~~ ^{is} the subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Thomas Broadstreet Sr., Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 12th day of August 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Thomas Broadstreet Sr. deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Casper Roberts and Joel B. Garrison who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they ~~were~~ ^{are} subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Thomas Parker, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 1st day of September 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Thomas Parker deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, James M. Wills who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. C. C. C. C.
Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of John Cornett, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 1st day of Sept. 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Cornett deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, J. H. Hull who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he ~~was a~~ subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. C. C. C. C.
Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Francis Edmondson, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 23rd day of November 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Francis Edmondson deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, William A. Ragan who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Hannah Demoss, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 11th day of December 1885, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Hannah Demoss deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Elwood Stanley who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Mary E. Hendricks, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 20th day of April 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary E. Hendricks deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, William J. Darnall who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he ^{one of the} subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. Clelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of John D. Barrow, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 13th day of April 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John D. Barrow deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, W. H. Baldaick who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he ^{one of the} subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. Clelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of James Sharp, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 14th day of May 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Sharp deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, James H. Peabworth who, being duly sworn, on oath avers that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

A. R. McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Melinda J. Meredith, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 21st day of May 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Melinda J. Meredith deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Amos S. Hills who, being duly sworn, on oath avers that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

A. R. McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Samuel Gassett, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 24 day of May 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Samuel Gassett deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Ebenezer Tomlinson who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W R M Clalland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Edwin Johnson, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 4 day of August 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Edwin Johnson deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, B F Baker who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he ^{was} a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W R M Clalland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Jacob P. Cox, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 18 day of August 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Jacob Cox deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Stephen Leunt who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. Cellaud

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Lewis Morrow, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 26 day of August 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Lewis Morrow deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, James M. Mills who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. Cellaud

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Lucretia Lewis, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 14 day of August 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Lucretia Lewis deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Richard F. Hopper who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. Clelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Mary A. Carpenter, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 6th day of Sept. 1886, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary A. Carpenter deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Amos D. McCracken who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. M. Clelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of John B. Sandusky, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 1st day of November 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John B. Sandusky deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, William Deussmuns and John R. Smith who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witnesss. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. McCallum

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Jane King Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 17 day of November 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Jane King deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Orack G. Hogate and Thomas H. Hulsman who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they the subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witnesss. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. McCallum

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Martin Gregg Sr., Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 27th day of November 1887, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Martin Gregg Sr., deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Thomas J. Lopez who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. Clalland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of John Hawkins, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 5th day of February 1887, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Hawkins deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, James Mills and Charles Mill who, being duly ^{sworn} on oath averred that they the subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. Clalland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of James Snoddy, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 7th day of March 188⁸, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Snoddy deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Daniel Swafe who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. Clelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Milton E. Hadley, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 14th day of April 188⁸, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Cyrus L. Sturdee who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. Clelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Elozer Bales, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 29th day of April 1887, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Elozer Bales deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Albert Maxwell who, being duly ~~sworn~~^{affirmed} ~~on oath~~^{affirmatively} averred that he ~~was~~^{was} subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

N. B. McLelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of William Woodard, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 19th day of August 1887, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of William Woodard deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Joshua M. Cook who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he ~~was~~^{was} subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

N. B. McLelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Edmy Hammett, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 23rd day of August 188⁷, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Edmy Hammett deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Joshua S. Thayer who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. McCalland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Thomas Casserly, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 19th day of Sept 188⁷, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Thomas Casserly deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Nevtan Lush W. A. Rice and Michael Deigan who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they are subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. McCalland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Peter C. Vanasco, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 15 day of February, 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Peter C. Vanasco deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Jacob Rimer and Jacob F. Keury who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they ~~the~~ subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witnesses. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

R. M. Clelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Moses Dooley, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 28 day of February, 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Moses Dooley deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, R. B. Blake who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he ~~one of the~~ subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

R. M. Clelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of James Pagett, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 2 day of July 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James Pagett deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Isaac Christie and Robert Person who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they the subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. McCallister

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Julia A. Lawson, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 4 day of July 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Julia A. Lawson deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Wilson F. Lawson who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he the subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. M. McCallister

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Malachi Healey, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 17th day of July 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Malachi Healey deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Jonathan H. Johnson and Joseph M. Fallo who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they the subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

W. R. McClelland

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Robert R. Downard, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 18th day of August 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Robert R. Downard deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Chas. A. White and Thomas A. Clark who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they are subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Ralph Barton, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 24th day of August 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Ralph Barton, deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Amos Alderson who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Alfred H. Richardson, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 27th day of August 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Alfred H. Richardson deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, John H. Baylies who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Margaret Rewe, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 30th day of November 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Margaret Rewe deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Maria Allen Jessup who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that she was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate,

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of John Christie, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 25th day of October 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John Christie deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Thad S. Adams who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of William Rushton Sr., Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 2nd day of October 1888, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of William Rushton Sr., deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Alfred Hadley & Marshall P. Frame who, being duly sworn, on oath avowed that they were subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Philomena Phillips, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 11th day of February 1889, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Philomena Phillips, deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, J. M. Watson who, being duly sworn, on oath avowed that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of William M. Craven Sr, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 26th day of February 1889, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of William M. Craven Sr. deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, William A. Ragun who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he was a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Mary Hylton, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the ^{term} vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 14th day of March 1889, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mary Hylton deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Orin Patterson and William Hylton who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they are subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Ruth Jenkins, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 10th day of April 1889, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Ruth Jenkins deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, A. B. Barker and Seth T. Thron who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they were subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witnesses. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate,

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Hamilton Huston, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 6th day of July 1889, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Hamilton Huston deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, George W. Wayland who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Jesse M. Townsend, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 21st day of July, 1889, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Jesse M. Townsend deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, J. I. Strong who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emoch G. Hogate,

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of William M. Wilson, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 19th day of August, 1889, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of William M. Wilson deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, William J. Darvall who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emoch G. Hogate,

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Martha A. Moore, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 14th day of April, 1890, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Martha A. Moore, deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, David Fields who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emock G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Adam Jones, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 18th day of April, 1890, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Adam Jones, deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Joseph F. Jones who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emock G. Hogate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of John O'Toole, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 7th day of July 1891, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of John O'Toole deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Jonathan H. Johnson and John J. O'Toole who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they are subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witnesses. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emoch G. Hagate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Sarah A. Hux, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 16th day of July 1891, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Sarah A. Hux deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Isaac Pierce and Samuel W. Williams who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that they are subscribing witnesses to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witnesses. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emoch G. Hagate

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Nancy E. Roberts, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 18th day of July 1890, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Nancy E. Roberts deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, B. M. Leuty who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hagate,

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Mordecai Hadley, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 22nd day of July 1890, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Mordecai Hadley deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Zeno Stuart who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Enoch G. Hagate,

Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of James M. Taut, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 8th day of August 1890, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of James M. Taut, deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, James M. Mills who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof, by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emack G. Hogate
Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.

Will of Joanna E. Fowler, Deceased.

The undersigned, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County of Hendricks, in the State of Indiana, respectfully reports to said Court, that in the vacation thereof, to-wit: on the 24th day of June 1891, an instrument of writing, purporting to be the last Will and Testament of Joanna E. Fowler, deceased, late of said County and State, was presented to said Clerk for Probate and Record. That thereupon, on said date, appeared before said Clerk, Charles W. Keeny who, being duly sworn, on oath averred that he is a subscribing witness to said instrument of writing, and testified as to the due execution thereof by said Testator as and for his last Will and Testament, and as to the competency of said Testator to execute the same, and his freedom in such execution from any coercion or restraint; which testimony was by said Clerk thereupon reduced to writing and subscribed by said witness. And it appearing to said Clerk from said testimony that said Will was duly proven, and no objection to the Probate thereof being shown, the same was by said Clerk, on the date aforesaid, duly admitted to Probate as the last Will and Testament of said Testator, and as such so certified by said Clerk, and, together with said testimony, duly entered of record in the Will Records of said Court.

All of which is respectfully submitted to said Court for approval.

Emack G. Hogate
Clerk Hendricks Circuit Court.