In the provisions of this will I leave nothing to my son William S. Jessup for the reason that he has during the past eighteen months caused me disturbance of mind and expense by instituting a law suit against me and making claims of indebtedness and interest in my estate which I think have been unjust and unreasonable, and has received on account of such conduct as much from me as he ought to receive from my estate because of having abandoned me in my business and given me the pain and disturbance which he has done. I do not wish, in this my last will, to express towards him any feeling of unkindness or hostility, but I feel that the provisions of this will are justly due to my other children and that he has justly received all that is justly coming to him.

State of Indiana, Hendricks County, SS:

I, Tetmany Shoffner, of Hendricks County in the State of Indiana, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but knowing the uncertainty of life and the certainty of death, do make and publish this my last will and testament, as follows:-

Item 1- I want all my just debts and funeral expenses paid out of my estate.

Item 11- I give and bequeath unto my beloved wife all my household goods and kitchen furniture to be her own absolute property, but if there be any article or articles of goods or furniture she does not desire to keep I want the same disposed of for the benefit of my estate. The poultry on my farm is now the property of my wife, and I do not dispose of the same by this will. I want my wife to have grain enough to make her bread until the next succeeding harvest of wheat and corn after my death. I also want her to have meat enough for her use and for the use of the household for one year if the same be provided on the farm at the time of my death, and if not enough on hand for that purpose, I want her to have hogs or cattle, or both, sufficient to furnish her meat for one year after my death. I also want my wife to have one cow, and she is to take her choice out of the herd on the farm.

Item 111- I want my executor hereinafter named to sell all the balance of my personal property not heretofore bequeathed in this will and out of the proceeds to pay 1st, my funeral expenses and expenses of my last sickness, and 2nd to pay to my wife one hundred dollars ($100.00) in full of her statutory claim of five hundred dollars ($500.00) as my widow. After all my debts are paid and my wife receives said one hundred dollars ($100.00) I want whatever balance remains from the sale of my personal property to be divided among my children living at that time, share and share alike, and to the descendents of such as are dead, the children of a deceased parent to take the parent's part. But I want no more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) of such division paid to my daughter Minnie during the lifetime of her husband, Charles Lackey, but any sum over one hundred dollars ($100.00) to be distributed to my said daughter Minnie I want my son Robert P. Shoffner to hold in trust for her, and after the death of Charles Lackey, I want said Trustee to pay what he has belonging to her to the said Minnie.

Item 1V. I hereby will and devise to my beloved wife all my real estate wherever situate for and during the period of her natural life. If the proceeds of the sale of my personal property, as above indicated, will not pay my debts, I want my wife to assume whatever remains unpaid, but not to sell my real estate. And to that end I want her to have the right as a matter of right, and I so direct her, to mortgage my lands, or any part thereof, to the amount of one thousand Dollars ($1000.00), if it be necessary to borrow so much to pay my debts.

Item V. After the death of my wife I want my land to go in fee simple to my children living at that time, share and share alike, and to the children of such as are dead, the children of a deceased child to take the parent's part. But if any of my children die leaving no child or children surviving, I want his or her part to go to my other children share and share slike.

Item Vl. If my daughter Minnie remains with me and my wife I want her to have a reasonable compensation for caring for us or either of us while either or both of us may be invalids, not, however, exceeding two hundred dollars ($200.00) per year, and the same is to be paid out of my estate.

And before my other children shall have each an equal share with my said daughter Minnie in the real estate, they shall pay to her $650.00 together, each paying an equal part thereof, but this last provision is on the condition that she remain with me and my said wife during our lives.

Item Vll. I hereby nominate and appoint my son Robert P. Shoffner Executor of this my last will and testament.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this the 26th day of June 1903.

The following is my will-

Item 1st- I bequeath all my property, real & personal to my beloved wife Jane during her natural life- she to have the free use & all rents & profits thereof so long as she may live. And I will that upon the death of my said wife my real estate shall go to my sons or their descendants, in fee simple, as follows. To my son Alonzo the 80 acres upon which he resides & farms being the South 80 of my farm in Washington Township. To my son Harry the North & East 80 the same being the 80 upon which my farm dwelling & other buildings are situate. To my son Edgar the North & West 80- each of my said sons to have the portion thus bequeathed him subject to a full one third part of my indebtedness at the time of my decease- & funeral expenses including a reasonable amount for a family monument.

Furthermore - I am now surety on some notes for sons Harry & Edgar & if I, or my estate shall be required to pay any sum on account of said suretyship, the amount so paid shall become an addition charge or lien against the land hereby bequeathed to the delinquent or delinquents, & of the charges hereby imposed upon the several tracts- That is to say for the payment of my indebtedness & to reimburse my estate for any sum paid as surety as above noted- Shall remain unpaid to my executor for three months after my decease, then after said period said executor shall proceed by due process of law to enforce said sums against said several tracts.

Item 2. Though my indebtedness is small I do not anticipate having enough personal property to pay them in full. I also have but little personal property. My purpose in making the dispositions set forth in item one is this, which I desire shall be plainly understood.

If my said wife shall desire to continue to live in our Plainfield residence she must be left perfectly free to do so & she shall be permitted to select from our household goods & other personal property whatever she may desire for her own use & personal comfort in housekeeping & all such articles as she thus selects shall not be charged, or inventoried against her. Thus it will appear why I direct that all my other property real & personal, shall be sold or subject to my debts before the Plainfield residence & wife's household effects shall be disturbed. In other words if my said wife shall desire to live in her own house it is my most earnest wish & will that she enabled to do so- & be entitled to the same income from the farm that we are both now enjoying.

Item 3. I recognize that I have heretofore conveyed to my son Alonzo five acres of the 80 above bequeathed to him, but he paid me nothing & the small amount he paid to each of his brothers- being about $83. I deem was nothing more than fair to his brothers for the free sue or rather net profits of said 80 by Alonzo for 8 or 10 years.

Item 4. Upon the death of my wife the Plainfield residence property & all other property remaining undisposed of to be converted into money by my executor & equally Item 5. I appoint my friend James M. Barlow executor of this my will.

In witness whereof I hereunto set my hand this the 15 day of August, 1904.

Will of J. N. Rankin, and the proof thereof.

I, J. N. Rankin, of Cartersburg, Indiana, lately of Winchester, Clark County, Kentucky, do make and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking any former will by me made.

First, I devise to my wife, Hazel Rankin, my real estate situated in Winchester, Kentucky, in fee simple. I make this devise to her absolutely for the reason that said real estate is encumbered by several mortgages, and if I should devise any interest therein to my child, who is an infant, then it would require a sale of the property under orders of the Court, and I do not believe the property would bring its fair value at a forced sale; also I have perfect confidence that my wife would make the best possible use of said property for her support and the support of our child. However, I do not intent to create any charge whatever on this devise to my wife.

Second, I devise my personal property to my wife and child in equal shares. I have already made my Life Insurance payable to them; One Thousand Dollars ($1000) of which is payable to my child and two Thousand Dollars ($2000) to my wife, Hazel Rankin.

Witness my hand in the presence of the two attesting witnesses at Winchester, Clark County, Kentucky, this 31st day of August, 1912.

J. N. Rankin

Subscribed in our presence as attesting witnesses by J. N. Rankin and subscribed by each of us in his presence and in the presence of each other, at his instance and request, attesting the execution of the foregoing will, this 31st, day of August, 1912, at Winchester, Clark County, Kentucky.

W. Scrivener and Harvey T. Lisle respectively; that she is acquainted with the signature of J. N. Rankin and that the signature to said will is his signature; that said J. N. Rankin died at Cartersburg, Indiana, May 1914, and that he was forty seven years of age and living there when he died.

And came also C. E. Kelley who being duly sworn testifies as follows; That his home is in Clayton Indiana; that he was acquainted with J. N. Rankin; that he was of sound mind at the time of his death.

I, Charles E. Edwards, Clerk of the Circuit Court of Hendricks County, Indiana do hereby certify that the within annexed will and testament of J. N. In the matter of the Estate of) ) No. 2318.
Eliza C. Henderson, deceased.)

Comes now again the proponent by A. J. Shelby and George C. Harvey, his attorneys, and comes again also the objectors by Adams, Batcheldor & Woods, his attorneys, and the proponent having rested his case in chief upon the submission for trial, the objectors now offer evidence in support of their objections, to which offered testimony the proponent objects, and now pending objection of the proponent to the introduction of testimony by the objectors and the ruling of the court thereon, the objectors tender their amended, verified objections to the probate of the will of Eliza C. Henderson, deceased, and which verified amended objections are in words and figures following, to-wit: (H. I.).

To the filing of which amended objections the Proponent objects and the Court sustains the objection and refuses to allow the same filed to which ruling of the Court the Objectors except. And now the Proponent files his written motion for a peremptory instruction to the Jury to find for the Proponent and for the probate of said will, which motion is in words and figures as follows, to-wit: (Here Insert).

To which motion the objectors object and which objection the Court overrules, and sustain the motion of the Proponent for said peremptory instruction, to which ruling of the Court the Objectors except. And now the Court instructs the jury to find for the Proponent. The jury retires in charge of the sworn Bailiff and again return into open Court the following verdict;

"We, the Jury, find for the proponents, that the will of Eliza C. Henderson, executed on the 20th day of August, 1912, is the last Will of said Eliza C. Henderson and that said Will was duly executed and that at the time of its execution the said Eliza C. Henderson was a person over the age of twenty-one years, a resident of Hendricks County, Indiana, and was at said time a person of sound mind and under no coercion or restraint.

Sylvanus M. Riker, Foreman".

And now said verdict is ordered filed by the court and the court receives the same as advisory to him and upon his motion renders judgment probating the will as the last will and testament of the said Eliza C. Henderson, deceased.

It is therefore adjudged and decreed by the Court that the will of Eliza C. Henderson, offered for probate herein, is the last Will and Testament of Eliza C. Henderson, deceased, and that at the time of the execution of the same the said Eliza C. Henderson was a person over the age of twenty one years, of sound mind and disposing memory, and at the time said will was executed the said Eliza C. Henderson was under no coercion or restraint and that said will was duly executed.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that said Will should be admitted to probate as and for the last will and testament of the said Eliza C. Henderson, deceased.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the court that the costs in this action, except as to the evidence for the Proponent probating said Will, should be taxed to the Objectors, all of which is taxed at _____ Dollars and _____ Cents.

It is further ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court that the Clerk of the Boone Circuit Court certify this decree and the will of the said Eliza C. Henderson, back to the Hendricks Circuit Court, the Court of original jurisdiction herein, from which court letters testamentary may issue herein.

All of which is now finally ordered, adjudged and decreed by the Court.

Kate to have one half of said lands and Hugh and his wife the other half for life as aforesaid, and they may continue to hold the same as tenants in common, or divide the same at their option; the remainder over in fee, of the portion given to Kate, I devise upon her death to her children; and the remainder in fee of the portion given to Hugh and his wife, I devise upon the death of both, to their children if any they have, and if they have no living child, or the descendants of any, then my will is that Hugh and Madge's said portion, shall go in fee to all my grandchildren share and share alike.

Item 4. I bequeath to my wife, Mary J.
