1943 Centralian
Central Normal College
Danville, Indiana

War-time Edition
The school year 1942-43 has been an outstanding one in the history of Central Normal College and for this reason we are attempting in a small way to review and preserve some of the incidents and happenings dear to the memory of all.

First, we think it fitting to give an explanation of just how this booklet came about.

At the start of the school year the senior class launched full plans for the usual yearbook—the Centralian. Our book first started dwindling when the enrollment began to decrease and our Armed Forces increased. This took our photographers and others on the staff who were absolutely necessary to produce the book.

Now it is our earnest desire that you accept and enjoy this pamphlet as a "War Time" facsimile of the Centralian.
Charles A. Hargrave, one of the most distinguished, beloved and respected teachers of Central Normal College holds a special place in the memories of students, graduates, faculty and friends. Because of the work he has done and the reverence in which we hold him we dedicate this book to his memory.

The Commencement activities this year will be climaxed by the dedication of Hargrave Hall, formerly known as Science Hall. A committee was appointed last June to plan for the dedication since it was in this building that Professor Hargrave did much of his work in the Science Department. The Scientific Class of 1910 is responsible for the new inscription above the doors of the building.

The duties of Mr. Hargrave in serving the school were many. As a member of the faculty he acted in various capacities: professor of mathematics, professor of science, secretary-treasurer of the college, and also president—in which capacities he was always a friend of the students and faculty. He was president for a brief time only because he preferred teaching. Aside from teaching he took care of details of business and was frequently relied upon for advice on textbooks, methods of teaching, courses of study and policies of administration. One of his foremost ambitions was to be of service to young men and women seeking an education.

No other person has served the institution longer, or given a higher quality of work than did Professor Hargrave.
WE SALUTE OUR

Although the War started with the attack of Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941 its real significance was not felt on Central Normal Campus until those whom we knew began to receive "Greetings" from their Selective Service Boards and others worried that they would receive theirs soon. Most of the boys who were over 18 joined the different "Reserves"—the Army, the Air Corps, the Marines, and the Navy.

There was a constant spirit of anxiety and questions in the minds of the men—"Am I needed in the service of my country—and when?" So great was this anxiety that many volunteered for the Navy before they were called. Robert Forsythe volunteered for the Navy in November. John Oliver, Bill Odom and Donald Long were called in December.

"Pete" Froman, Carl Underwood and Kenneth Sutherland found their way into the Army in January.

Carl Limback, Jack Tomlinson and Jack Gardner went to the Army and Jimmy Watson and Paul Denison joined the Navy in February.

The climax of the year occurred on Thursday, the 18th of March, when the postman brought the call to Vincent Haviza saying that all the Army Reserves were being called to report on the 26th. Paul Revere had nothing on Dick Tangle as he played messenger and called the boys from their classes.

'Twas a sad group who gathered in the Commerce Room to comfort the girls who felt that the campus would no longer be a livable place without the boys — at this time Reserves Dick Evans, "Fibber" McGhehey, Vincent Haviza, Wayne Campbell, John Smith, J. D. Mack, Bill Mayer, and Ralph Starkey were called. Others who left for the Army in the month of March were: Bob Crum, Earl Bywaters, Bob Stuart, Don Tangle, Donus Mavens, John Bork, and Charles May. Frank Meltzer entered meteorology work, and Joe Mackowiak went to the Navy.

On April 5, Earl Dinsmore fulfilled his rendezvous with the Navy, Maine Woody with the Army and Dick Tangle and George Thompson with the Army Air Corps.

In May, Merlynn Borgstede was suddenly called to the Army. Those yet on the campus who are in the different reserves are: Army—Hubert Fowler, "Buzz" Hargrave, Bob Porter; in the Navy—Charles Gross, Frank Hanson, Bob Scheller, Charles Parker and George Watkins; in the Marines—Fred Franzman, Jim Bush, Doug Barnes, Tom Isaacs, Willard Brown and Bob Shank.

CHARLES GROSS, (NAVY), ROBERT SHANK (MARINES), TOM ISAACS (MARINES), DOUGLAS BARNES (MARINES), HOMER HARGRAVE (ARMY), AND ROBERT SCHELLER (NAVY).

OTHER RESERVES WHO ARE IN SCHOOL BUT NOT IN THE PICTURE ARE: JAMES BUSH (MARINES), FRED FRANZMAN (MARINES), GEORGE WATKINS (NAVY), HUBERT FOWLER (ARMY), CHARLES PARKER (NAVY), BOB PORTER (ARMY), FRANK HANSON (NAVY), AND WILLARD BROWN (MARINES).

The Marine and Navy Reserves have been ordered to report for duty in June, but as yet the Army Reserves have not received their orders.
HIGHLIGHTS OF

SEPTEMBER

We started the ball rolling on September 15, with an "All-College" picnic in the park. All of us did our best to display culinary art when we tried to make our first impressions (good ones we hope) on the new-comers. This was the time and place where the secret of "Tiny" Smith's physique was disclosed. After consuming the hamburgers we climbed the college hill and proceeded to the Grid Room where Dean Green (hearty laugh and all) got even the most dignified of the group to take part in hilarious folk games.

OCTOBER

Next in line of important events was the election of class officers. The seniors unanimously elected "invincible" Vincent Haviza to pilot them through the year. The juniors chose Earl Bywaters as president—the sophomores, Dick Evans—and the freshmen, Jimmy Watson. It was in October that Kathleen Mauck reigned as Homecoming Queen. Her attendants were: Betty Walker, Florence Miller, Kathryn Mackey, Laura Ruschhaupt, Joyce Force, Nondas Barshart and Mignon Hurt. This group led the Homecoming parade to Tiber Field where C.N.C. encountered Evansville. In the evening at the Homecoming dance the queen was crowned by Vincent Haviza. The outstanding Seniors were recognized by "Who's Who Among College Students." Among those selected were: Rose Marie Adams, Opal Williamson, Elizabeth Kyburz, Vincent Haviza, Marion McGhehey and Lawrence Swanson.

NOVEMBER

One of the highlights of the year, if not the highlight of the year, occurred on November 20—which all of us will recall as the date of the "Warrior Hop." We felt this was something special because it was the first big dance ever held in this Gym, and it was beautifully decorated through the effort of the Lettermen and the Association of Women Students. Townspeople, alumni and friends also enjoyed the dancing and card games. Don't forget this was the night that it was announced that McGhehey was engaged to Doris Jean Miller. Ooops, we also want to leave a written record that that thirty-minute extension on dean hours was official!!!

DECEMBER

Everyone will remember the month of December starting with the very first day—the beginning of gas rationing. By the way, the commerce students did their patriotic bit by spending many hours processing ration books. On December 22 we gathered in the Grid Room for the annual "All-College" Christmas Party. During the evening we paused in our dancing to catch the Christmas spirit by singing Carols under the energetic direction of Mr. Winfrey.

THE YEAR

JANUARY

January started out with a bang—the Warriors uncovered their talent and brought home the honors from the Valparaiso invitational tourney. On the 16th, the C.N.C. squad met the Manchester team in an exciting Homecoming game—after which we adjourned for the dance which the seniors planned. The 20th marked the official opening of the "Tepee Room" with its unique murals of Indian scenes painted by Wayne Campbell. We don't want to omit the originality shown by Rudolph and Sutherlin in designing the drapes. These people laid the foundation and were aided in their work by others.

FEBRUARY

Sigma Phi Kappa Delta chose its first class and initiated them on February 26. A dinner was held in their honor at the Hilltop Tea Room with speeches by Dr. Benson and Opal Williamson. We can't quote verbatim what Opal said but we know that she is not afraid of the dark because she continued her speech even when the lights went out. Those elected were: June Dowen, Opal Williamson, Rose Marie Adams, Delores Collier, Charles Gross, Vincent Haviza, Audrey Muharon, Marjorie Merrilees, Dorothy Pelko, Catherine Robinson and Marion McGhehey. This month also marked the occasion of the last fraternity dance for the duration. (We hope that this is a pessimistic viewpoint—or that the duration will be short.)

The dance was given by the Alpha Mu's and the Alpha Theta's and we all enjoyed it with its patriotic theme.

MARCH

March was the month of contests and military greetings. Really, there isn't much to say about these. Anyone who has witnessed either or both knows that there are no words to describe them.

APRIL

April found us realizing what had happened in March—campus man power reduced, therefore no dates — only letters marked "FREE" in the upper right hand corner!

MAY

Then came May, with the realization that something had to be done about a yearbook or a facsimile—hence this production. Now on this the 26th day of May at 2:00 a.m. as the deadline approaches (correction—it's here) the sleepy staff looks forward——need more be said?
A Word About Our Faculty

With the approach of our last year at C.N.C. we came back in September to be greeted by these helpful and friendly faculty members who have seen us to the top rung of the ladder, occasionally giving us a little boost if we seemed to falter.

Our congenial and friendly President Hunt was not only the President of our Alma Mater but also a pal to every student. "Prexy," as many of the students called him, always had time, in his overcrowded day, to stop and talk to any student who happened by. We seniors and the student body in general missed him very much when he resigned his post here; however, we wish him every success in his new work.

With the resignation of Mr. Hunt an executive committee was appointed consisting of our able Dean Hightower, Coach Johnson and Mr. DeMoss, our registrar. The Coach has really done his part in keeping up the old fighting spirit of C.N.C.

We can never forget the loyal Johnsons' and Evans' and their contribution and support to us all through our college career. Miss Watts holds a warm spot in the hearts of all of us. Then, of course, who can forget "Skid" and his band and Miss Gaston and her song birds? Mr. Wilson left us soon after school started to take his place in Uncle Sam's Army.

Mr. Winfrey kept us instructed on the world situation and once in a while gave a few pointers in the finesse of hunting. Mrs. Wean has been her usual busy self all year, working with contests, committees, and helping students in their problems. Mr. Green, our jolly mathematician, really did a thorough job of preparing our boys for all that math they will use in the different branches of the armed forces.

Dr. Whitney is one of those small, little ladies, who commands the respect and attention of all the students who study the tiny bugs and spring flowers. Then we have the two young maids (Watch for further comment), Nancy and Miss Blair, who kept us supplied with all the books we need for our extensive study, however, in the last days of our senior year Miss Blair temporarily left the Institution of Education for the Institution of Marriage.

Above we have given a short resume of the part the faculty has played in our lives. We wish to thank them for their help and guidance and hope that they will remember us as long as we will remember them.

The Board of Trustees

During our last year in school we have been very fortunate in having such people as Otis Gulley, E. J. Roberts, John Kendall, Dr. J. H. Grimes, Glen Hovermale, H. M. Whisler, E. B. Edmondson, Thomas Fogarty and Lawrence Vannice on our Board of Trustees. The death of Mr. Vannice was a great loss to the student body and board as well as to the community.

They have worked hand in hand with the faculty and students in the crisis that our Central Normal College has faced, and through their untiring efforts, our faithful board has kept the spark of friendship, fellowship, and scholarship alive. May it never die!

Association of Women Students

Standing: Phoebe Goodmiller, Mig-nom Hurt, Vivian Szwarc.
Seated: Laura Ruschhaupt (Treas.), Betty Myers (Pres.), Rose Adams (Sec.), Margaret Winklepleck (V. Pres.).

Every girl is a member of the Association of Women Students. This year the A. W. S. Council was chosen by a faculty committee. The council decides on problems brought before them in respect to the welfare and good of the girls. This is a democratic form of self-government among the girls.

With the growing need and desire among the students to have a room for recreation, the A. W. S. sponsored the designing and work of the Tepee Room located in the Academy Building. The Indian Warrior theme was carried out in the designing and decoration of this room. Various games were purchased for the use of the students and a nickelodeon was installed for those who wished to dance.

Other activities that the A. W. S. sponsored were the very successful Warrior Hop and the Christmas Party.
STUDENT CHRISTIAN ASSOCIATION

"Character Development" was the general theme of the program for the year. Some of the programs were outstanding on this topic. Several students gave interesting discussions of the lives of outstanding characters such as Madame Curie, Kagava, Florence Nightingale, and Chiang Kai-shek. Later on during the year Mr. Lancaster, state field representative for the Y. M. C. A., spent the day on C.N.C.’s campus giving personality tests and then interpreting them to the students in personal interviews.

Easter is the highlight of the year and this year the Easter Sunrise Service held greater meaning than ever before. Against the background of leafy green palms and a lighted cross, Alice Thompson furnished inspiring music on the marimba. Mrs. A. J. Wilson brought an inspiring address. Even in the midst of a world at war there could be peace and hope.

The usual welcoming of C.N.C. students of friends at "Friends from Home Day" was missing this year because of the curtailment of tires and gasoline. However, the annual "Stunt Night" took place with the usual hilarity and enjoyment by all. The Alpha Mu’s seem to have what it takes because they were awarded the plaque for the second consecutive year with a wrestling match between Don Tanselle and "Tiny" Smith.

Because there seemed to be a need for a means of getting the students together socially after the basketball season was over, the Student Christian Association sponsored an "All-College" get-together with a covered dish supper. You might think that with all the rationing this would not be possible, but it was very successful and called for another later on. The boys were a little backward the first time but came through in fine style at the second invitation.

Officers in charge of the organization this year were: President, Opal Williamson; Vice-president, Laura Ruschhaupt; Secretary-treasurer, Charles Gross and Program Assistant, Mary Margaret Stansell. Officers for next year will be elected at the beginning of the fall term.

FOOTBALL SQUAD

BASKETBALL SQUAD

Mack, Donald Mobley, Donald Mohler, Robert Scheller, Robert Shank, Ralph Starkey, Robert Stewart, Richard Tanselle, George Thompson, Carl Underwood, James Watson and Meredith Yarling.

Officers in charge of the organization this year were: President, Opal Williamson; Vice-president, Laura Ruschhaupt; Secretary-treasurer, Charles Gross and Program Assistant, Mary Margaret Stansell. Officers for next year will be elected at the beginning of the fall term.
MUSIC DEPARTMENT

The Music Department under the direction of Miss Gaston was a source of inspiration all through the year. Each convocation Miss Gaston urged not only the men but also the girls to attend rehearsals. Even with the loss of so many, the band under the direction of Mr. Skidmore furnished good music and pep at all the games and many convocations.

Laura Ruschhaupt was president of the band with James Wright, vice president and Kathryn Mackey, secretary-treasurer.

Merlynn Borgstede was president of the chorus; Jane McCown, vice president; Judy Spencer, secretary-librarian, and Florence Miller, treasurer.

Musical numbers were furnished during the year for different occasions by Frank Meltzer, Jane McCown, Alice Thompson, Lela Fritsche, Mary Esther Martin, Roberta Jeanne Miles and the Girls' Sextet.

The pictures show: Girl’s Sextet, Girls’ Glee Club, Men’s Quartet, and the College Band.

COMMERCE

War situations also permeated the Commerce Department. There were so many things we couldn’t do because of war conditions.

Early in the school year the Crier Staff elected Marion McGhehey and Opal Williamson as Co-editors with Earl Dinsmore as Business Manager. Only once during the year did it fail to go out on Friday morning keeping the unbroken record since February 26 of 1932.

The members of the department were given their first initiation by assisting with the processing of gasoline ration cards. They learned first hand who got “B” books and “C” books and why.

Those who were elected to Kappa Pi Beta and initiated during the year were: Altha Guernsey, Louise Ballinger, Anne Thurston, Alice Cragun, Charles Gross, Laura Ruschhaupt, Wanda Jones, Genevie Bush, Freda Pope, Joyce Force, Mignom Hurt and Roberta Miles.

From January until May all members of the department worked on contest in their spare time. Because of the transportation situation the big contest was not held, but ten district events were scheduled under the direction of the Commerce Department and other Commerce teachers. (Contests were held at Hamilton, Howe, Columbia City, Danville, Sheridan, Battle Ground, Rochester, New Albany, Clinton and Stony Creek.) The entire department assisted with the one among the schools of Hendricks and adjoining counties held at C.N.C. Altha Guernsey, Hubert Fowler, Laura Ruschhaupt, Blendell Skomp, Dawn Crouse, Fred Franzman, Rose Adams, Martha Rudolph and Mrs. Wean assisted with the supervision of those held in the different districts.
