DEDICATORY

Realizing the extent of the sacrifices that were necessary in order that we might attain to graduation; and desiring to express in tangible form thanks and gratitude for our opportunities, we, the Class of 1927, do dedicate this issue of The Libertonian to those whom we love, honor and respect above all others—

OUR PARENTS

Four

MR. STONE

We hereby wish to thank Mr. Stone, Liberty Township Trustee, for his interest and helpful service to us. He has shown much interest in school affairs and we feel that he will bring our schools to a very high degree of efficiency.

Five

LOYALTY SONG

We're loyal to you, C. H. S.
We're all tried and true, C. H. S.
We'll back you to stand
Against the best in the land,
For we know that you can,
C. H. S. Rah! Rah!
Go crashing ahead, C. H. S.
Go break that blockade, C. H. S.
Our team is our fame protector.
On, boys, for we expect a victory,
From you, C. H. S.

APPRECIATION

The Editorial Staff of the Libertonian wishes to acknowledge its indebtedness for the aid and advice that have made possible the publication of this book. We wish to thank those members of the Student Body whose interest and counsel have been with us so unfailingly. We wish to express our appreciation to our advertisers. The firms here represented are known as dealers in superior goods. Furthermore, we are under obligations to the Faculty for the detailed care and personal supervision.

FACULTY

JAMES W. WRIGHT*Township Principal

We simply can't deny that he's (W)right,
 Even when we think he's wrong.
 Something in his name makes us agree
 That Wright's right, right along.

SCHUYLER A. ARNOLDScience and Manual Training

Mr. Arnold's vocation is,
 As near as we can see,
 Following Luther Burbank
 In the study of Botany.

FRED L. PIERPONT*History and Bible

His predominating feature is wisdom
 On any subject you might approach.
 And his best friend is—listen—
 It's our basketball coach.

NATHALIE EDMONSON

English and Home Economics

She'll be a maiden school ma'rm;
That's what they all say.
But she teaches Home Economics;
A bad sign if a ma'rm she'll stay.

MARY E. SANDERS

Music

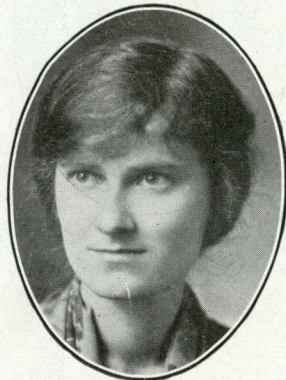

She's a director we love because she's gay.
She comes with a nod and smile each day.
But best of all you should hear our song
When she's here to help along.

FLORENCE E. FRITTS

Latin and English

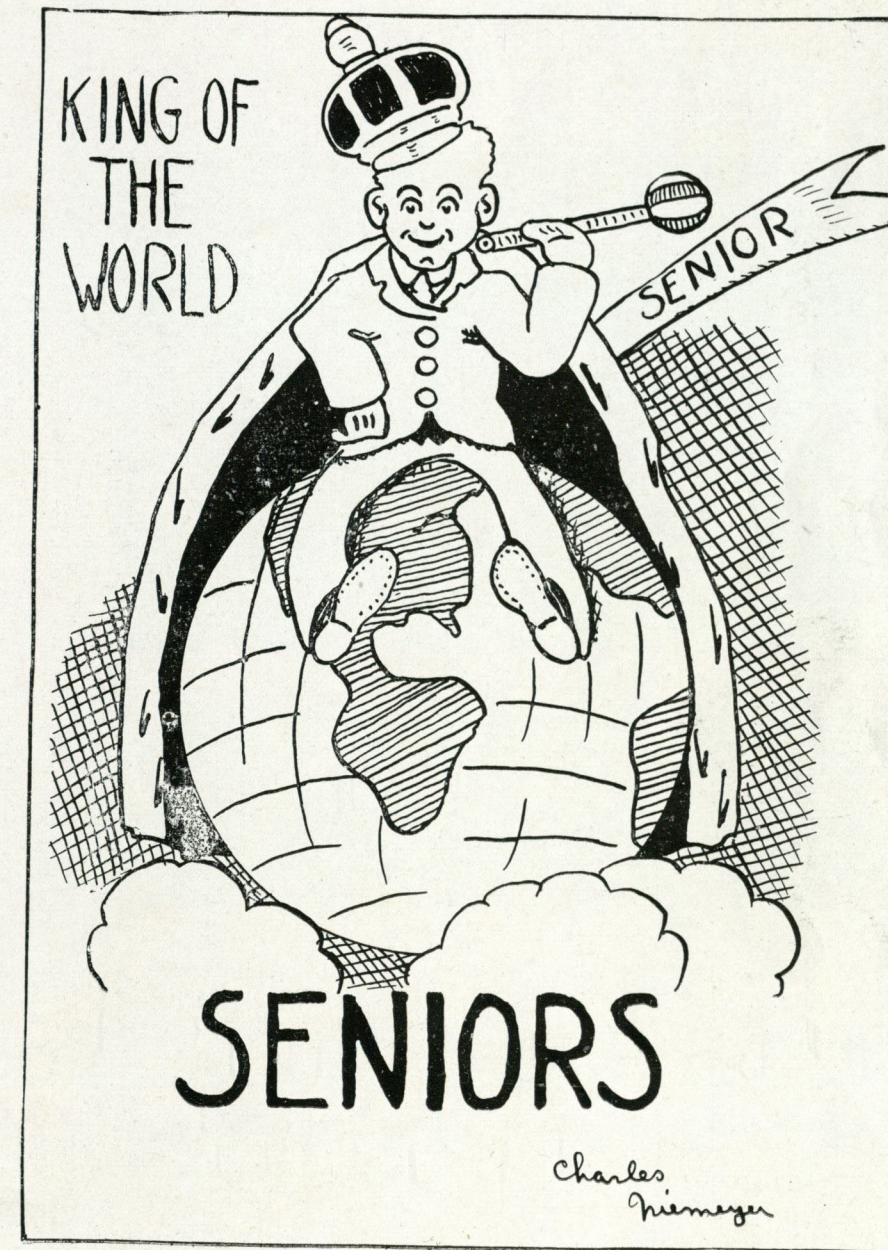

A smile, a nod, and good morning.
That's Miss Fritts to a "T."
If any one in school's more cheerful
We have him yet to see.

CHARLES H. NEWKIRK

Mathematics

Our athletic coach was a good one;
A mathematician, too.
But when it came to a ball game,
He coached the boys right through.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

- Shirley Worrell (lower right) President
- Russell Wooden (upper left) Vice President
- Vivian Henry (lower left) Treasurer
- Inez Dowling (upper right) Secretary

SHIRLEY WORRELL

“Bob”

Pres. '26, '27.
 Glee Club '24, '25, '27.
 Cast '26, '27.
 Song Leader '25, '26, '27.
 Librarian '25, '26, '27.
 Editor-in-Chief '27.

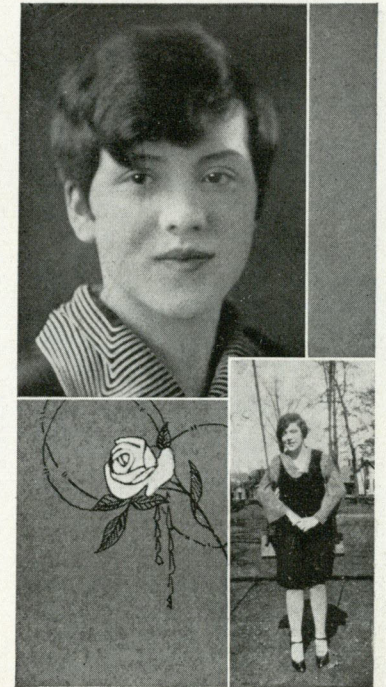

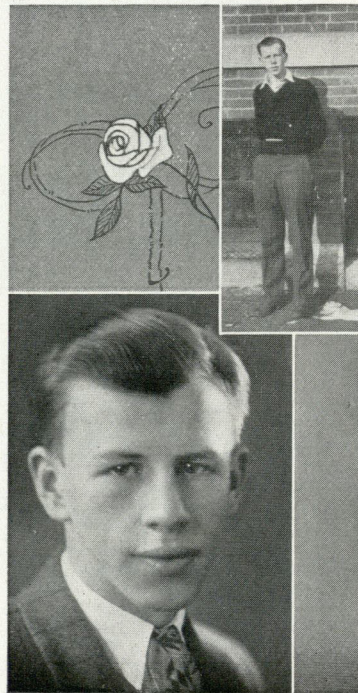

Shirley is the girl who loves to sing;
 The glories of music to our class she brings.
 To the door of law she holds the knob.
 Great things we expect of “Shirley Bob.”

RUSSELL WOODEN

“Cloddy”

Vice-Pres. '27.
 Treas. '26.
 Cast '26, '27.
 Basket Ball '25, '26, '27.
 Minor Staff '25, '26, '27.

“Cloddy” Wooden is a good old scout.
 To him there is never known a pout.
 For being the only boy, he reigns supreme,
 And gets all the glories there are to be seen.

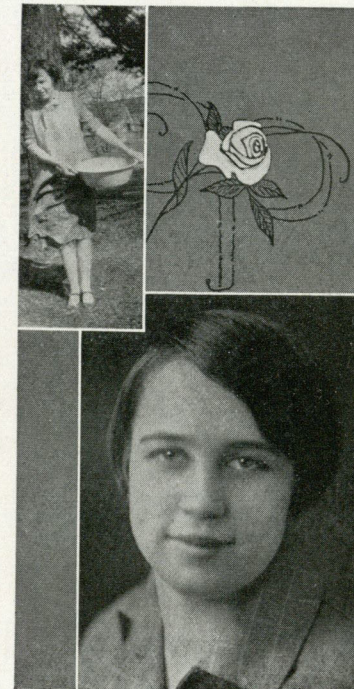

MARIAN JOYCE

“Red”

Minor Staff '27.
 Cast '27.

Marian holds the banner on golden hair,
 And she is very pretty and fair.
 And to C. H. S. from West Newton she came,
 To bring us great honor and fame.

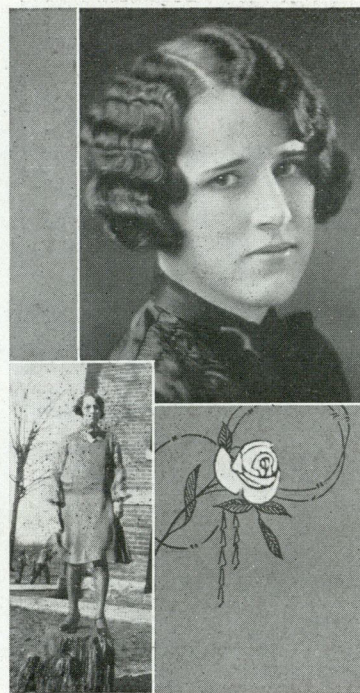

LULA PETTITT

“Toots”

Minor Staff '27.

Of dimples tiny Toots has two,
 And say! what she can't do.
 She has set her heart for a Mooresville “guy”
 And maybe she'll get him by and by.

NAOMI FRANKLIN

"Shrimp"

Cast '27.
 Glee Club '24, '25, '27.
 Circulation Manager '27.
 Minor Staff.

Naomi is right in step
 When you call for pep.
 She is merry and cheery and full of fun,
 And some day she'll be catching somebody's
 "son."

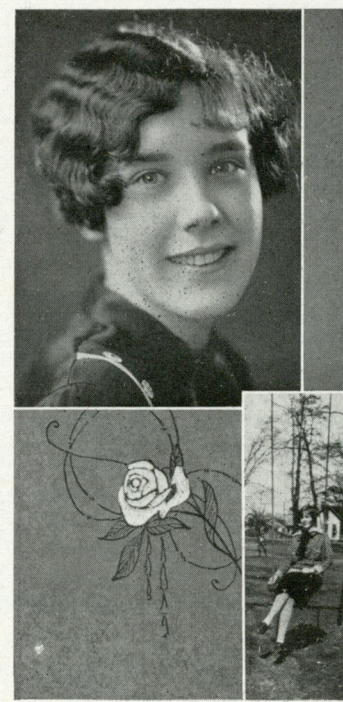

VIVIAN HENRY

"O' Henry"

Business Manager '27.
 Glee Club '26, '27.
 Treasurer '27.
 Minor Staff '27.
 Cast '27.

Vivian is a girl who deserves praise
 Because she has such likeable ways.
 She is loyal to our class, come what may;
 Working, never shirking, all the day.

INEZ DOWLING

"Heinz"

Associate Editor '27.
 Glee Club '27.
 Sec'y, '27.

Inez came to our class this year
 And for her lessons she has no fear.
 She is pretty, and has such lovable smiles,
 And to our class she's always worth while.

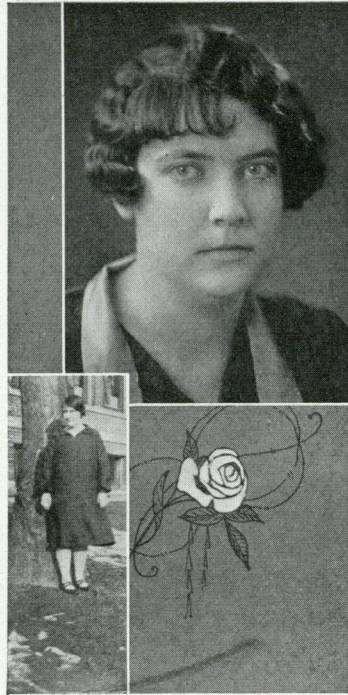

LILLIAN FORD

"Ford"

Advertising Manager '27.
 Minor Staff '25, '26, '27.
 Orchestra '24, '25, '26, '27.
 Glee Club '27.
 President '25.
 Cast '26.

Lillian says she'll be a doctor,
 And relieve all deadly pain;
 But we think she'll be a "Miller,"
 And will grind the golden grain.

BEATRICE ORRELL*"Bee"

Minor Staff '27.
Glee Club '25, '26, '27.
Cast '26.

Beatrice is always willing to help
And never thinks of herself.
And whatever anyone asks her to do,
She is always kind and true.

PAULINE CLARK"Peeny"

Minor Staff '27.
Secretary '26.
Cast '27.

Pauline is our witty little girl;
Always ready with a joke to hurl.
She cracks 'em and never blinks an eye,
Which makes us all laugh and cry.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY '27I

On Monday morning, September the tenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, twenty-one green freshmen some way or another found their way to the assembly room of Clayton High School. They came from the various parts of Liberty township.

They held a class meeting after a few days and elected officers. They elected Miss Throckmorton (Mrs. Christie) sponsor; Blanche Alexander, president; Lawrence Hickman, vice-president; Ethel Whitt, secretary, and Lula Pettitt, treasurer.

On the afternoon of October the nineteenth, they were initiated into the High School. They were then full fledged members of C. H. S. and ready to do their part to keep it a success.

This year they won the five dollars offered as a prize for selling the most Red Cross Christmas Seals. They were represented in the Glee Club and Oratorical Contest.

Kenner Collier of Monrovia High School entered the class during the second semester.

II

Again the next autumn this class met in the assembly room of Clayton High School. This year they were known as the Sophomore class.

They again elected officers. This year Miss Taylor was to be their sponsor, Lillian Ford the president, Russell Wooden the vice-president, Lawrence Hickman the secretary, and Maynard Fisher the treasurer.

They found out that four of their class had not returned with them, but two more had joined their class, Ada and Julia Clement of Alamo High School.

This year they were represented in the Glee Club by six of the members. The song leader was also chosen out of this class.

Twenty-three

III

When the class met this year they were Juniors. They had Mr. Pierpont for sponsor; Shirley Worrell, president; Blanche Alexander, vice-president; Pauline Clark, secretary, and Russell Wooden, treasurer.

They had four representatives in the Glee Club, one in the Orchestra and two on the basketball team.

There were only twelve of the former members that returned, but Vivian Henry of Fillmore High School had entered the class.

During this year the class gave a play, "That's One on Bill." They also had a Thanksgiving party at the school building.

This class also served hot lunches during the year. This was a help to the class and the whole school.

IV

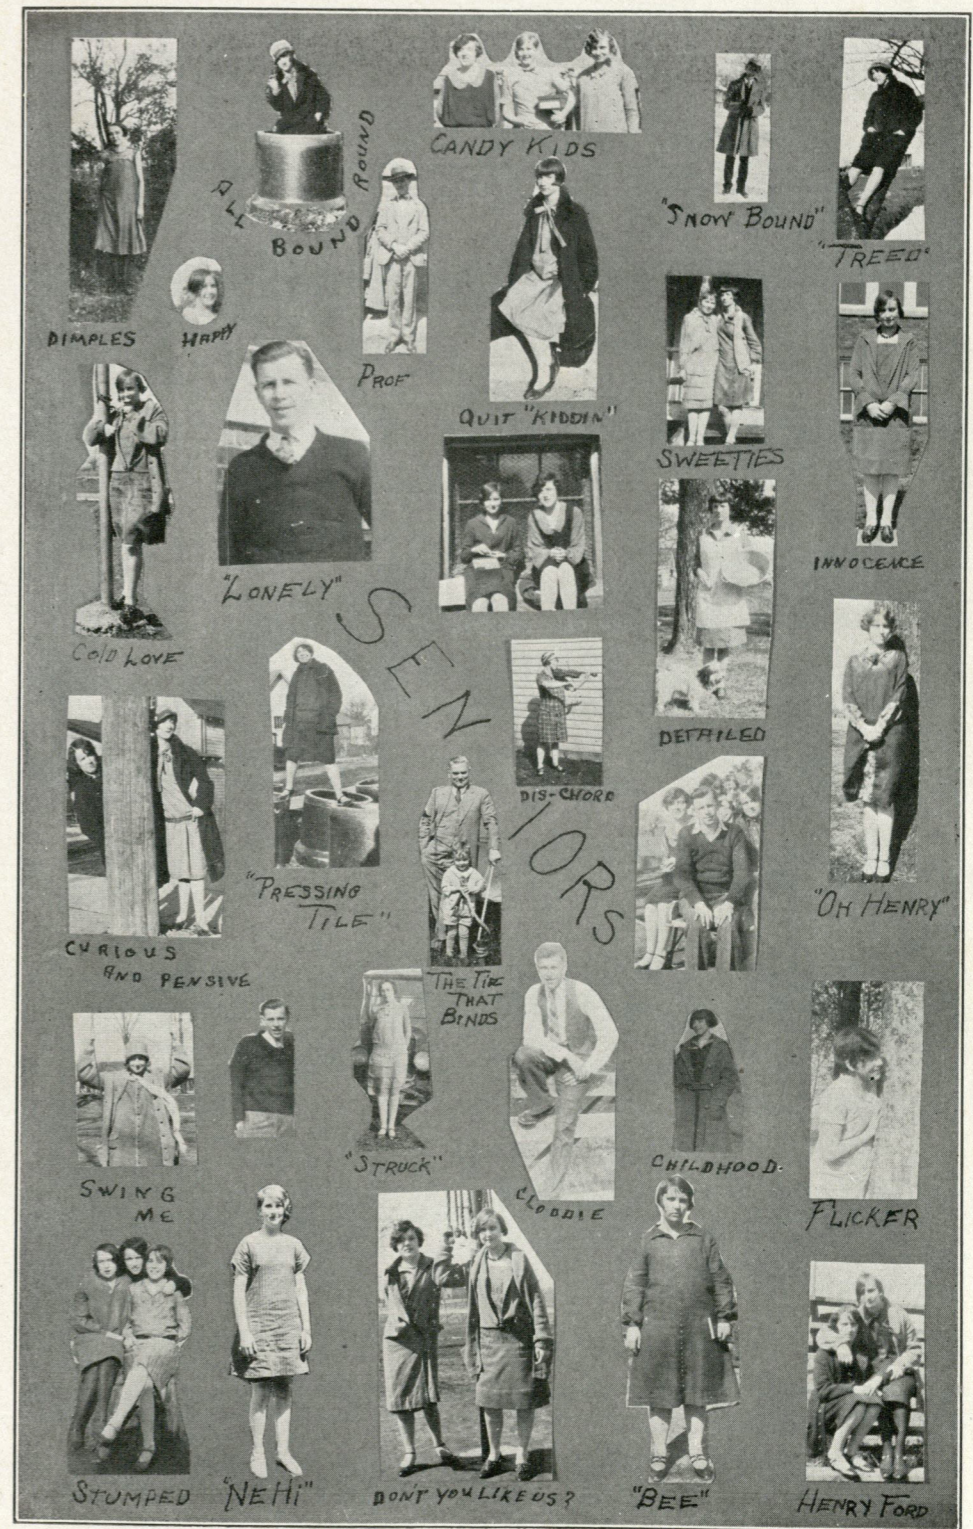

When the Class of '27 met again they were the Seniors of C. H. S. There were only eleven in the class this year. Blanche Alexander, Garnett Hill and Helen Lindsey (Lambert) had left the class for various reasons. There were two new members that had entered, Inez Dowling of Manual High School and Marian Joyce of West Newton High School. After the Christmas vacation Marion Riggan (Deem) did not return. That left the class with just ten members.

The Senior class sponsor was Mr. Pierpont and the officers were: President, Shirley Worrell; Vice-President, Russell Wooden; Secretary, Inez Dowling, and Treasurer, Vivian Henry.

During the year the class sponsored a Lyceum Course. They also served hot lunches again this year.

This year the class had one representative in the Orchestra, six in the Glee Club, one on the basketball team and the song leader was from this class.

In the spring the Class of '27 departed from C. H. S., after a stay of four pleasant years, wishing the best of success to the faculty and remaining students of C. H. S.

S—omething's wrong in my heart today.
 E—ven my thoughts are far away.
 N—ever will I enter Clayton High School again.
 I—am going away as a Senior—but then
 O—ur school has meant so much to me.
 R—ight down in my heart, I'm sorry, you see.

C—ome now, let's all cheer up and be gay.
 L—et's tell old Clayton what we have to say.
 A—ll our school days have been so bright and fair,
 S—o we hope they'll continue whether we're here or there,
 S—inging we go as we say au revoir.

JUNIOR HISTORY OF SHIP '28

We, the crew of Ship '28, set sail on the Junior Sea with two new members on our crew, making a total of twenty-four. After the first month of sailing, one sailor was lost.

We chose as leaders for this part of our voyage to the Land of the Seniors, Jewel Shields, Max Rynerson, Pauline Duncan, and Emory Lambert. Mr. Newkirk directed our course and we wish to thank him for the help he has given us.

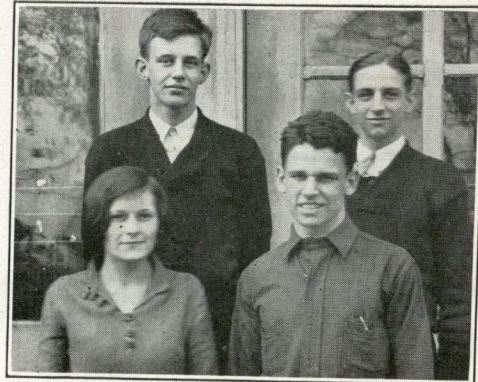

On Saturday evening, October 30, we held a public Hallowe'en carnival and masquerade at the Clayton school house. We cleared about $14 from this.

The crew presented the play "A Little Clodhopper" on Thursday evening, February 24, in the auditorium of the school house. We cleared about thirty-five dollars. We wish to thank Mr. Pierpont, who directed our play, and the High School Orchestra for the help which they gave us in making this a success.

We were represented in the High School Orchestra, Glee Club, Apple Judging team, Girls' Athletic Association, and the Basket Ball Team.

On to the Land of the Seniors!

THE JUNIOR PLAY

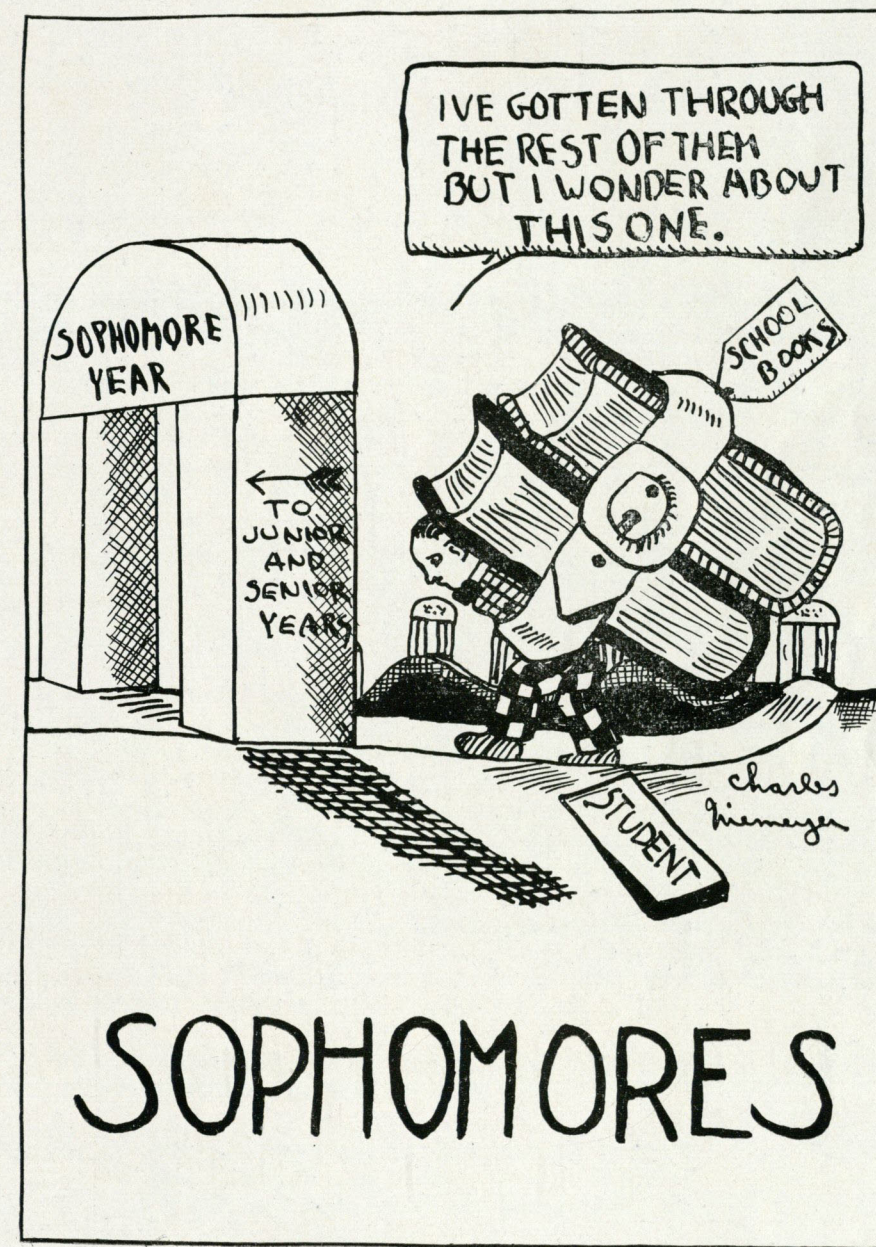

"The Little Clodhopper"

"The Little Clodhopper" a very entertaining little comedy in three acts, was given Thursday evening, Feb. 24, in the High School Auditorium by the Junior Class.

In the play were the lovers, the fond parent and plenty of comedy. The little clodhopper, played exceptionally well by Marcia Alice Woodward, added a bit of touching pathos to the play.

SOPHOMORE CLASS HISTORY

On September 7, 1925, thirty-eight warriors bold came to fight for C. H. S.

On the afternoon of September 11, they were duly initiated as full fledged members of Clayton High. As no group can carry on without its leaders the Freshman class held its first class meeting in the latter part of September. Miss Haworth was chosen as class sponsor; Richard Mitchell, president; Ethel Ludlow, vice-president; Miriam Stone, secretary; and Robert Ross, treasurer. It selected as its colors, blue and white; its flower, white carnation; and decided that its motto should be, "Not on the heights, but climbing."

The class was represented in the Orchestra, Glee Club, and County Latin contest. It was represented on the basketball squad the first semester.

On September 6, 1926, twenty-eight of those bold warriors returned to help carry on the battles of C. H. S. another year.

The new leaders chosen to help lead these brave warriors were chosen at the first class meeting. Marshall Davis was chosen president; Lyle Mabe, vice-president; Miriam Stone, secretary; and Ethel Ludlow, treasurer. Miss Edmonson was chosen to lead the class through its second campaign for C. H. S.

In school activities the class was represented in the Glee Club, Orchestra, basketball squad, Horticultural team and Boys' and Girls Athletics. The High School pianist, Geneva Kendall, and annual cartoonist, Charles Niemyer, were members of this class.

We wish to extend our appreciation and best wishes to Miss Edmonson for her helpfulness during the past year.

We are the class of twenty-nine,
And through the years we're to shine.
We do our best from day to day,
To help our school in every way.

OUR SOPHOMORE YEAR

Our Sophomore year has quickly flown away,
 Swift borne upon Time's ever fleeting wings.
 We fondly cherish memories of each day
 And oft, to us, a tear reflection brings.

Throughout the year our Class sincerely tried
 To bring to C. H. S. the best we had.
 And though, oftentimes, much else we found beside,
 Sweet memory brings us that which makes us glad.

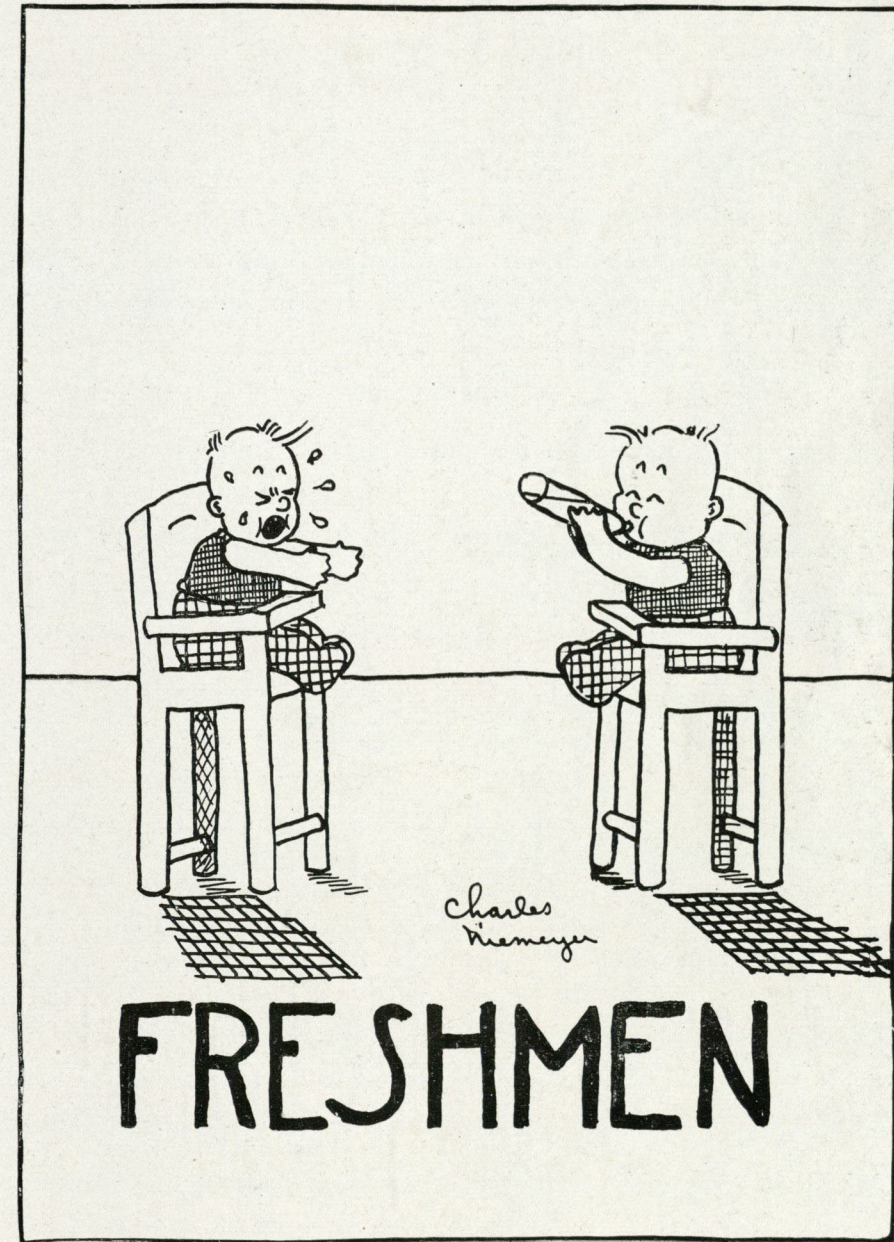

Some truth, each day, from lessons we did reap.
 The friendships we have formed are firm and true.
 And though, sometimes, the path seemed long and steep,
 The teachers' guiding hands have helped us through.

And may the high ideals we've been taught,
 Be shown unto the world by what we've wrought.

FRESHMAN CLASS HISTORY

On September 6, 1926, forty-one little, short boys and tall girls came to C. H. S. expressing their desire to be permitted to begin their higher education. Entering the assembly room, after being directed, some, very shy and modest and others more boldly, selected seats on the east side of the room. When they were all seated and counted again it was found that everyone of the forty-one was present.

After a few days of excitement and exploration we learned that the radiators were not made to sit on and that every time the bell rang it did not mean a fire drill, but was merely a signal to pass to class.

It was not long, however, before this class began to show marked ability and the teachers were convinced that it would succeed.

A class meeting was held a short time after school began and the officers elected for this class were Dee Duncan, president; Franklin Bolin, vice-president; Mildred Thompson, secretary; and Martha Wooden, treasurer.

The red rose and fern were chosen as class flowers and "Upward ever, downward never" was the chosen motto. The class colors chosen were blue and old gold.

This class was represented, this first year by the two yell leaders, three members of the basketball squad, the Orchestra, Glee Club, and athletic association.

However, the class managed to overcome many difficulties and come out at the close of the year with colors flying.

FRESHMAN CLASS POEM

In our Freshman class this year,
We were bright without a fear.
We were the ones that would say,
"We'll help our school in every way."

In our Freshman class this year
There were forty present here,
But to our great dismay,
Seven comrades went away.

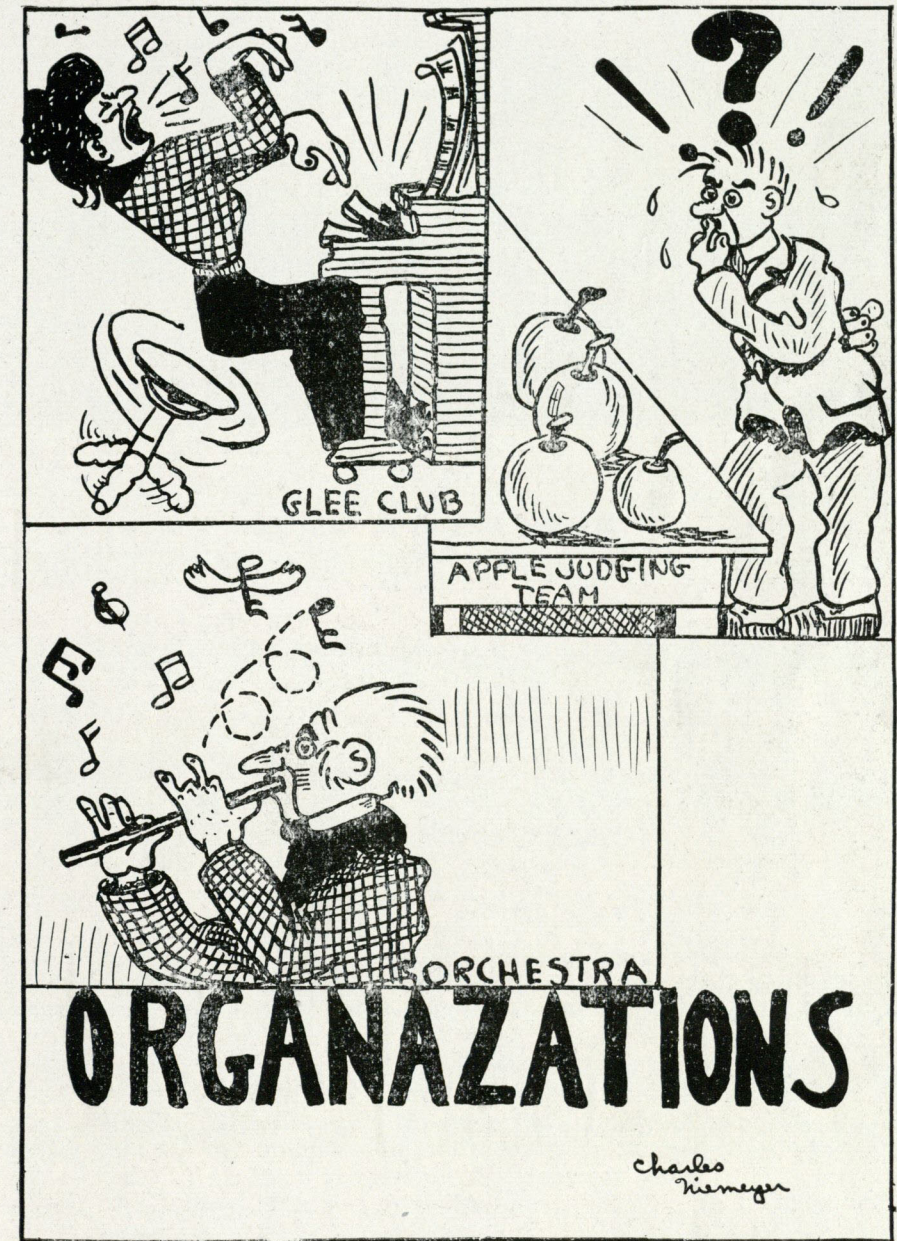

We, the Freshmen will e'er be true.
To our colors, Gold and Blue.
Into the Sophomore class we'll stray,
Only by growing stronger each day.

APPLE JUDGING TEAM

Front Row (Left to right)—Howard Hopkins, Marshall Davis, Charles Swindler.

Back Row—Merrill Johnson, Mr. Arnold (Instructor).

HORTICULTURAL TEAM

On November, 13, 1926, the apple judging team composed of four boys, Marshall Davis, Charles Swindler, Howard Hopkins, and Merrill Johnson, accompanied by their instructor, S. A. Arnold, went to Purdue University to compete with fourteen other teams from over the state. They left Clayton at 5:30 a. m. and arrived at Lafayette at 8:45. The remainder of the morning was spent in inspecting the apple exhibits and the poultry farm. Immediately after noon the judging of apples was held. Following this all the members of the competing teams were guests of Purdue University at the Purdue-Franklin football game.

When the judges returned their decision, Clayton had won fifth place. Marshall Davis had won first place on the plate of Baldwin apples that he exhibited.

Second Row—Grace Ferguson, Shirley Worrell, Esther Edmondson, Ethel Ludlow Lillian Ford, Beatrice Orrell, Rosa Cook.

Back Row—Doris Williams, Margaret Anderson, Mary Williams, Isabelle Worrell, Martha Wooden.

GLEE CLUB

The Glee Club was not a large organization, but was interesting and had some very earnest members.

Mrs. Saunders, the director, was faithful to it, but some days it was impossible for her to be present and on these occasions Miss Edmondson took her place and practice went ahead as usual.

The Glee Club was a willing entertainer at Parent-Teachers' meetings and other occasions.

The officers were, Shirley Worrell, pianist; Esther Edmondson, president; and Lillian Ford, secretary and treasurer.

HIGH SCHOOL ORCHESTRA

John Arnold, Doris Williams, Lillian Ford, Lyle Mabe, Geneva Kendall, Miles Busby, Merrill Johnson, Raymond Blunk, Mr. Newkirk, Margaret Anderson, Mildred Thompson, Mrs. Anderson, Marjorie Jones, Goldie Martin, Clifton Cooper, Walter Burns, Mr. Nichols, director.

ORCHESTRA

This organization is one of the best organizations the school has had this year. The members have worked and served faithfully and have accomplished much.

The orchestra has furnished music upon different occasions, such as Parent-Teachers' meetings, Farmers' Institute, and Teachers' Institute.

The officers were Mr. Roy Nichols, of Brownsburg, director; Lillian Ford, president, and Lyle Mabe, secretary and treasurer.

HIGH SCHOOL CHORUS

Everyone in High School is a member of our High School Chorus. It has accomplished much and is a valuable element in our school.

Often in the absence of Mrs. Saunders, the director, Shirley Worrell acts as leader.

The chorus, led by Shirley, helped to furnish music at the Farmers' Institute.

Geneva Kendall was the pianist for the High School Chorus this year.

Forty-nine

THE PARENT-TEACHER ORGANIZATION

Mrs. Maude Rynerson (lower right) President
 Clyde Beers (lower left) Vice-President
 Miss Dorothy Thomas (upper left) Secretary
 Charles Shields (upper right) Treasurer

The Parent-Teacher Organization has done much the past year for the school. Many patrons, students and the teachers showed a great deal of interest in its activities. The Organization worked on many problems of general interest for the school and welfare of the community.

This year has been unique for its many interesting and splendid programs, which aided greatly in its success.

The organization is already getting under way for next year and promises to continue in its valuable work.

THE HOME ECONOMICS CLASS

We have a very fine class in Home Economics this year. The class is large but we have done some fine work and have always been happy and agreeable.

We have been very successful in all of our undertakings. We served lunch a few times, this work for the most part being taken over by individual classes.

Our work shown in the exhibit at Danville attracted very much attention and many good things were said concerning it.

We especially appreciate the help and kindly direction of our teacher, Miss Edmondson.

GRADUATION ADDRESS

(With Apologies to Our Martyred President)

Eight months and three years ago our fathers and mothers sent us, twenty-six little green freshmen, to Clayton High School. This school was conceived in Liberty (township) and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal, barring the teachers who seemed to be a little above our equal. We will soon be engaged in the war of life, testing whether Russell or any other of the ten graduates of this school can long endure.

We are met on the battlefield of that war. We are come to dedicate a portion of school spirit as a final gift of those who here gave all they had that the school might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this.

But in a larger sense, we cannot give up, we cannot forget, we cannot dishonor our school.

The brave students who studied here have accomplished that from which it is beyond our power to detract.

The school will little note nor long remember what we did in class but it can never forget our spirit of loyalty. It is for us, the Seniors, rather to be here dedicated to the finished work which we have striven for and have so nobly achieved. It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great life remaining before us—that from this honored school we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last measure of devotion; that we here highly resolve that this class shall not have lived in vain; that this school, under the name of Clayton High shall have a beautiful memory for us and shall remain, of the students, by the students, and for the students yet to come to C. H. S.

OUR ANNUAL HIGH SCHOOL PICNIC

Last year on the last day of school the Senior Class sponsored the annual high school picnic at Camp Short. This custom started when we were in the Freshman Class.

The picnic was in the afternoon. That morning arrangements were made for the conveyance of the students. Some of the students furnished cars, some went in school busses or on trucks.

We left the school building amid the usual bustle and excitement and had lots of fun on the way.

The fun continued after we arrived. Each one did what they preferred. Some roamed around and picked flowers. Others went down to the creek and waded or fished.

We decided to have a mutual game of Blackman. We played at that until we were all tired and as no picnic is complete without a "weiner roast," we decided to have one.

The boys gathered wood and made a bonfire for the "weiner roast" and everyone was trying to find sticks that would be green enough not to burn, to roast "weiners" on.

After the last of the "weiners" were gone they served cookies and apples.

We sat around and talked awhile and then got our cameras to take some pictures.

It was time all too soon to start back. We arrived at the school building about three-thirty, a "tired but happy bunch of high school kids."

Lula Pettitt.

THURSDAY LUNCHESES

On Thursday of each week the Senior girls served lunch to the school and teachers. This was a very profitable undertaking. The school in general responded to our invitations to eat with us, for which we were very grateful. (Also our creditors.)

The planning and serving of our lunches was a very good practise as we learned more and more the need of cooperation in daily life and prepared ourselves for work in groups later.

Although we ran out of food and the orchestra had to go hungry, forgot to make coffee for Mrs. Anderson, made the cocoa in the dish pan or didn't cook the baked beans long enough, I believe we all enjoyed our lunches.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

Hello, Clayton High School.

This is the year of 1937 and school has begun once more. But just a minute.—Where is the class which was a graduating class of ten years ago—1927? Well, here is the lineup:

Naomi Franklin is in Hollywood playing in the great Chaplin production, "Cross Country from Clayton," with Charlie Chaplin her husband.

Lillian (Ford) Miller has a prominent position in Europe where she is a great violinist. She has been in several Lyceum numbers at Clayton in recent years.

Lula Pettitt is in the employ of the Yellow Cab Taxi Company of Indianapolis. She obtained her experience from driving a school taxi when she was a senior.

Pauline Clark is a Christian missionary in Hawaii. She is converting the natives by the hundreds.

Cloddy Wooden is making stump speeches from all the corners of Liberty township for the election of a certain trustee, so that he may be the janitor of the school building and the new gymnasium.

Vivian Henry is "Wise" and is living in Akron, Ohio.

Beatrice Orrell is a teacher in Clayton High School.

Shirley Worrell has taken the place of Madame Schumann-Heink and is a prominent singer over the United States.

Inez Dowling is a preacher for the "Volunteers of America" in Gary and is successful. Her work is well accomplished and her name is held before the children of the United States as being an example for them to imitate.

Marian Joyce and Virgil Franklin have built a love nest down in the town of Joppa where Mr. Franklin is mayor.

ESSAY ON OPTIMISM

Did you ever know anyone that was always telling his troubles? Don't tell your friends about your indigestion. "How-do-you-do" is a greeting—not a question.

We can not do our work in the world if we are constantly thinking about something that happened yesterday or worrying about the past. We can not live but one day at a time so why can't we look on the bright side of every day and take the best out of life? If we do our best there should be nothing to worry about.

Let's not "put off" happiness. "Tomorrow I will be happy, some people think, but in all probability the future will be very much like the present and past. Now is the time to be happy for tomorrow never comes.

Isn't it a "grand and glorious feeling" when you walk up the street and someone slaps you on the back and says, Hello there, old kid, my, but you're looking fine," instead of, "How are you, you're looking worse than I've seen you for a long time? What's the matter anyway?

When you are down and out and everything is going wrong, just think you are not the only person in the world. Other people have their troubles also. They get over them so why shouldn't you? Bear your troubles bravely and they will be lighter. Every dark cloud has a silver lining. Your life is what you make it so why make it a burden for yourself and others around you? Life is too short to grieve away.

What is the use to worry if you are behind in your rent or your best girl stings you? Smile and the world smiles with you. Sigh and you sigh alone.

Pauline Clark

SENIORS

We started some four years ago—
You and I.

We were green, weren't we though?
Did we think so? Not a bit;
In our opinion we were it—
You and I.

We worked one whole year,
You and I.

Then according to the seer,
We had left off all the green.
Anyway what could be seen—
You and I.

We got sixteen credits—
You and I.

We were Juniors—got there by bits.
One year more is absolutely all.
We'll be Seniors just next fall—
You and I.

And now we're quitting,
You and I.

'Tis now we start regretting
That our school days are past,
For we've had a good time to the last—
You and I.

—Ford '27.

Emory Lambert	Student Manager

"BUTTER" HILL—FORWARD

"Butter" was our swift man. He was small and so fast that opponents found it very difficult to keep track of him, and to prevent him from getting through the line with the ball and then a sure basket.

"GIBBSIE" GIBBS—FORWARD

"Gibbsie" was ever good natured. He was one of our staunch and fast workers. We are expecting wonders from him in the next two years.

"BILL" PRUITT—CENTER

One more year to go. A handy man with the ball. Always count on "Bill" to come through when needed. "Bill" acted as captain most of the year.

"JUG" SHIELDS—GUARD

"Jug" helped to make a firm defense which opponents found difficult to break. He also made several long spectacular shots.

MAX RYNERSON "RHINEY"—GUARD

Max could certainly get and hold on to the ball in defense. It is often thought a good player must show up by making goals, but that isn't always the big idea.

"CLODDY" WOODEN—GUARD

"Cloddy" has served C. H. S. well in basket ball for three years. On account of an injury to his knee he was unable to play in the last few games, which was sure tough luck, this being his last year.

"DICK" MITCHELL—FORWARD

"Dick," our fast little scrapper, sure kept the visitors getting out of his way. Two more years yet.

LAWRENCE WOODS "WOODSIE"—CENTER

"Woodsie," altho sly and timid around school, sure fooled everyone on the basket ball floor. Two more years.

"TOMMY" THOMPSON—FORWARD

"Tommy" is only a Freshie, but he's going strong. He should make a real record in the next three years.

"CHETTER" BURNS—GUARD

This is Chester's first year. He has stood by the team through thick and thin and he is keyed up to show his stuff next year.

JOKES

Bill Pruitt: "What do you use on your hair, Emory?"

Emory: "Crisco. I don't have to get a hair cut now."

Bill: "Howssat?"

Emory: "Well, isn't that shortening?"

Lawrence: "How did you get all that ink on your face, Howard?"

Howard Gibbs: "Oh, I was writing a story about a Ford and it was so realistic my fountain pen backfired and threw ink all over me."

Mr. Pierpont, in History class: "Goldie, what was George Washington noted for?"

Goldie: "His memory."

Pierpont: "Why, Goldie, what makes you think his memory was so great?"

Goldie: "They erected a monument to it."

"That's nothing," said Butler Hill as Mr. Arnold marked him down a zero.

Those Alcoholic Blues

Ten thousand Jews were making booze,
Without the state's permission,
To meet the needs of a million Swedes,
Who voted for Prohibition.

Marion Joyce: "What became of that tin lizzie of yours?"

Jewel: "I tied the dog to it the other day and a cat came by."

"I call my boy friend 'Duke' 'cause he's no 'Count.'"

Mr. Wright, in English class: "A man was working on a river bank and he suddenly fell in. He could not swim and would be in danger of drowning. Picture the scene. The man's sudden fall, the cry for help, his wife, knowing his peril and hearing his cries, rushes immediately to the bank. Why does she rush to the bank?"

"To draw his insurance money," exclaimed Edith Mitchel.

"Where did you get that black eye, Raymond?"

"Oh, I was chasin' Max Rynerson."

"What of that?"

Raymond Little: "I caught him."

Poor on the Trigger

A hay seed from Brown county led his overgrown son into a country schoolhouse.

"I want you to give this here boy of mine some larnin'." he announced.

"What's your bill of fare?"

"Our curriculum, sir," corrected the school-master, "embraces Geography, Arithmetic, Trigonometry—"

"That'll do," interrupted the father, "that'll do. Load him up well with triggernometry. He's the only poor shot in the family."

Eighty-five

Mariam Stone: "Did you say that fellow died a natural death?"
Margaret Anderson: "Oh, yes, he got run over by a Ford."

A Freshman was attending a basketball game for the first time. She suddenly spied a C on one of the player's suits. She asked of her girl friend, "What does that 'C' stand for—'Captain'?"

"Are you normal?"
"Why, sure."
"Do you light your cigarette with your right hand?"
"Yep."
"Your not normal then. Most people use a match."

Mr. Arnold, in Physical Geography: "Charles, name something necessary for life."

Charles Swindler: "Er—"
Mr. A.: "Correct. Now name a food rich in fats."
Charles: "But—er—"
Mr. A.: "Very good, Charles; very good."

"Pop. Where was Babe Ruth born?"
"I don't know, I'm sure."
"Where was Jack Dempsey born?"
"I don't know that, either."
"Say, Pop, I wish you would buy me a history of our country."

Teacher: "What is the meaning of the word 'matrimony,' Robert?"
Robert: "Please, miss, my father says it isn't a word; it's a sentence."

Miss Edmonson: "I wonder if Mr. Wright meant anything by it?"
Mr. Newkirk: "By what?"
Miss Edmonson: "He advertised a lecture on 'Fools' and when I bought a ticket it was marked 'Admit One'."

Grace F.: "That fresh guy said that maybe I was good looking once." Can you imagine that?"
Martha Bacon: "No, I can't."

Cloddy, to his dear one: "I always kiss the stamps on your letters because I know your lips have touched them."
Rosa: "And to think I dampen them on Fido's nose."

Mrs.: "Why did you give that waiter such a large tip. Don't you know you can't afford it?"
Mr.: "But, my dear, just look at this overcoat he gave me."

Lyle: "For two cents I'd kiss you."
His friend, yelling to her parents in the adjoining room: "Hey, dad, have you got change for a nickel?"

Mr. Arnold: "Can you tell me what a hypocrite is?"
Dick M.: "A guy that goes to Latin class with a smile on his face."

Lula: "Inez, do you know why they call the girls in Stilesville Easter eggs?"

Inez: "No. Why?"
Lula: "They are Hard-boiled and Hand-painted."

Bob Ross: "These shoes are so tight, I'll have to wear them a couple of times before I can get them on."

John Elmore: "I got 0 in Bible this morning."
Marion: "Honestly?"
John: "Oh, no not honestly, but I got it just the same."

Helen Vire: "I know a guy that's so narrow minded, his ears rub together."

Mary Belle: "That's nothing. I know a guy that's so skinny, he could sit on a dime and nine cents would show."

Burk M. to Lillian: "Lillian, will you marry me?"
Lillian: "No, but I'll always admire you for your choice."

Miss Fritts in English class: "Of course, there are always two sides to every question."

Geneva K.: "Yes, and there's two sides to a sheet of fly paper, but it makes a lot of difference which one is chosen."

Mr. Pierpont: "How many shirts can you get out of a yard?"
Mr. Newkirk: "That depends on whose yard I get in."

Mr. Wright: "James, who was Pandora?"
James: "Why, a butterfly."

Raymond Blunk says: "If love is blind and lovers cannot see, why in the deuce can't some girl love me?"

Charles Niemyer was in the habit of getting to school late. Mr. Wright called him to the office and asked him the cause of this. The boy replied, "Why in the name of sense did they put that sign 'School, Slow' up for? I run all the way to school until I get to the sign. About this time the bell rings. I have to walk slow and I'm late. I tell you something ought to be done."

Butler Hill: "Vivian, if I stole a kiss from you, what kind of larceny would it be?"

Vivian, enthusiastically: "Ah, that would be Grand."

"Where did the car hit this man?" asked the lawyer questioning the physician at the trial.

"At the junction of the Clorsal and Cervical vertebrae," replied the doctor.

The foreman of the jury got up and said: "I've lived in these parts for nigh on to fifty years and know every cross road, but I never heard of this place. Durned if I don't calculate this is a made up case."

Greetings to the Class of 1927

"We think that we are here,
To laugh, and love and lift;
And not to war and strife.
Yes: to love our fellowman
And serve him all we can.
This, and only this, makes life."

REMINISCENCE

*Memory brightens o'er the past,
As when the sun concealed
Behind some cloud that near us hangs,
Shines on a distant field.*
—LONGFELLOW

Perhaps it is well that human nature deplores the present and glorifies the past. In idle moments it is comforting to permit the mind to shine back on distant fields of pleasant experiences

Thus, this memory book will serve you and prove the source of real future pleasure. For Stafford combines these elements with the artistry, the quality and the workmanship which entitle it to bear the phrase ...

FAREWELL

Here's to you, dear Clayton High;
Your memory we'll always treasure.
We Seniors leave you with regret,
But we'll remember you with pleasure.

Inside your walls and campus 'round
We've formed many a friendship dear,
And though we part, we'll ne'er forget
The joyous hours spent here.

Our Superintendent's beyond reproach;
Our teachers staunch and true.
So it's with regret, dear Clayton High
That we say farewell to you.

—Ford '27.
