AIMS

As a Church College, Canterbury is committed to Christian Education. It is the outgrowth of the conviction of the many Episcopalians who helped found conviction of the many Episcopalians who helped found it that there is a great need in modern education for the kind of religious, moral and secular training which develops young men and women who can play a genu-ine, constructive role during the critical times of the present and future:

The aims of Canterbury are three-fold:

1. The development of graduates who have an understanding of Christian spiritual values which will give their lives meaning and direction.

2. The development of graduates who have ac-quired a secular education which will aid them to obtain positions in their chosen fields, or to pursue more advanced study.

3. A fine education, in the total sense of the term, for young men and women in pleasant surroundings. CANTERBURY SEEKS TO FOSTER A POSITIVE WAY OF LIFE.

In a recent editorial regarding Canterbury, a sig-nificant newspaper made this statement: "While larger universities and colleges are overflowing, this school joins the strong group in Indiana offering advantages of more intimate student contacts with the faculty."

Another publication has this to say: "It is the smaller institutions, free from the trammels of politics and mass inhibitions, built upon moral standards and de-voted to rounding out character as well as knowledge, intimate in its associations, that deserves and wel-comes the support, however small, of those able to lend such support through worthy memorials."

CANTERBURY IS COMMITTED TO LIBERAL EDUCATION AND THE TRUTH.

ADVANTAGES

In contrast to the majority of institutions of higher education, Canterbury is irrevocably directed toward making Christian Education a living thing, toward un-remitting emphasis on morality, and toward the de-velopment among her students of a positive way of thighing and living thinking and living.

Canterbury offers the following advantages:

- 1. Small classes with individualized instruction.
- 2. A democratic spirit among faculty and students. 3. The cultural values deriving from a liberal edu- cation. 4. The nurture and care of the spiritual life.
- 5. The truth and freedom of a private college.
- CANTERBURY BELIEVES IN INDIVIDUAL AS AGAINST MASS EDUCATION.

LOCATION AND CAMPUS

Canterbury College is located in Danville twenty miles west of Indianapolis on U. S. Highway No. 36. It may be reached either by hourly bus service from Indianapolis or by the Big Four route of the New York Central Railroad.

By virtue of the college's proximity to Indianapolis, students may take advantage of the many cultural and other cpportunities found in a large urban center. The location of the college in a small community pro-vides the added advantages of a friendly, non-indus-trial locale as the ideal center for daily life, study and recreation.

A complete, intimate campus on a rustic tract of nine acres lends emphasis to the closely-knit, individualized philosophy of education which prevails. All students know and are known by their fellow classmates and their instructors.

CANTERBURY COMBINES METROPOLITAN AND SMALL COMMUNITY ADVANTAGES.

YOUR STAKE IN CANTERBURY

In a democracy the citizens believe in a system of free enterprise and individual initiative.

The private college is an example, in the field of The private college is an example, in the field of higher education, of our system of free enterprise. The small, private colleges of our country have furnished leaders of all fields in our nation out of all proportion to their size and enrollment. The freedom and security of our country is safe only so long as this freedom of educational enterprise is maintained.

If you were seeking a rare and exquisitely made gift, would you go to the huge department store or to the small gift shop? Similarly, we of Canterbury be-lieve that genuinely fine education can be found at its best on the small college campus.

CANTERBURY IS A SYMBOL OF THE EDUCATION OUR FOUNDING FATHERS SPONSORED.

YOU CAN HELP CANTERBURY

Do you believe that a fine Church college will strengthen not only education, but the Church as well?

Your answer to this question cannot but be in the affirmative, and your reaction to it must be one of desiring to aid in the growth of your college.

The Canterbury Founders Association, made up of The Canterbury Founders Association, made up of leaders in business and the professions under the di-rection of Willis B. Conner, Jr., Chairman, was estab-lished as a result of the wide-spread interest of Church people and others interested in the future of the college college.

The opportunity is given by the Association to those who wish to lend their financial support and thereby become official Founders of the college. A plan was set up whereby each person who contributes one hundred dollars or more will become a Founder. His name will be inscribed on a permanent memorial plaque to be erected at the college; he will receive an official certificate of membership in the Association and a membership card entitling the bearer to free admission to all public activities of the college.

PURPOSE OF THE COLLEGE

Canterbury College is the outgrowth of the single-minded belief of the many Episcopalians who founded it that there is a great need in modern education for the kind of religious, moral and secular training which develops individuals who can play a genuine constructive role in one of the very critical periods of this country. These founders frankly faced the issue that many colleges and universities are providing only "book learning," and are failing to educate the entire human being with a real understanding of the important part religion and morality play in his future life. They were further motivated to found an Episcopal college which would be unique: Canterbury College is the only co-educational Episcopal college in the United States. Thus it was felt that, in establishing Canterbury College, the parents of both young men and young women might send their children to a liberal arts college with true Christian standards and be confident that they would not suffer neglect of the many factors which combine to produce a genuinely educated person.

The unanimous feeling of all those who helped to establish Canterbury College was that the ultimate goal of a well-rounded education could not be attained as long as the college remained a teacher-training institution. Hence, it was decided to change not only the name, but also the entire character of the college. America has long given lip service to the liberal arts college as the ideal type of educational institution. Present indications are that the current convictions of outstanding educators throughout the country in favor of a liberal arts education are leading to a re-birth of this kind of education. Firm in their support of these convictions and in their belief in Christian education as well, the founders of Canterbury College have established these tenets:

- 1. The development of graduates who have acquired a secular education which will aid them to obtain positions in their chosen field, or to pursue more advanced study.
- 2. The development of graduates who have an understanding of Christian spiritual values which will give their lives meaning and sub-

LOCATION AND HISTORY

Canterbury College is located at Danville, Indiana, the seat of Hendricks County, twenty miles west of Indianapolis, on U. S. Highway No. 36. The college is readily accessible by bus or automobil

In March of 1946 a group of Episcopalians became interested in the possibility of establishing a co-educational liberal arts college affiliated with the Episcopal Church. The present president of Canterbury College had previously been authorized by the Board of Trustees of Central Normal College to further negotiations which, it was hoped, would lead to the full control of that institution by the Church. The movement spread rapidly and soon gained the favor and enthusiasm of the Rt. Reverend R. A. Kirchhoffer, Bishop of the Indianapolis Diocese, and the Rt. Reverend Reginald Mallett, Bishop of the Northern Indiana Diocese. Following repeated interviews and meetings, a dinner was held on April 22, 1946, at the Columbia Club in Indianapolis. During this dinner meeting, attended by over one hundred representative clergymen and laymen of the Episcopal Church, the "college project," as it became known, was presented and a resolution referring it to the two state conventions of the Church was unanimously adopted.

On May 1, 1946, the convention of the Indianapolis Diocese, in session at Evansville, Indiana, unanimously approved the assumption of control of the college by a board of trustees made up of members of the Episcopal Church, provided that similar action be taken by the Northern Diocese. The convention of the latter diocese made the control of Canterbury College, then unnamed, a fact by approving the action of the other convention on May 8, 1946. Hence, this latter date may be regarded as the birth date of Canterbury College, although the actual transfer of control was not effected until July 8, 1946.

The college, formerly known as Central Normal College, traces its history back to 1829, when the Hendricks County Seminary was established at Danville. The name Central Normal College was not adopted, however, until the year 1878, when a group of Danville citizens subscribed $10,000 with which they purchased the buildings and grounds of the old Seminary.

Fraternity Recognized The Chi Sigma fraternity were formerly recognized in the Canterbury Campus Monday night in a letter received from the Greek council, the inceived from the Greek council, the in-ter-fraternity and sorority council. C. C. Webster, Coach Henry Miller and Dr. Jack McClain were chosen as the fraternity's advisors. At the next meeting of the frater-nity, meddles, placence and fraternity, paddles, placques and fraternity pins will be presented to the members. Word has been received from the National Headquarters in Chicago, that Canterbury College is one of the eleven colleges on the preferred list for Sigma Chi membership.

CHI SIGMAS RECOGNIZED IN GREEK COUNCIL

The Chi Sigma fraternity received formal written recognition last night from the Inter-Fraternity-Sorority Counsel. This recognition entitles the new fraternity to be represented on the counsel meetings

A charter member plaque vill soon appear in the hall of the Administration Building. The fellows have formed an inter-collegiate basket ball team and played against the Spartans last night in the college gymnasium. The powerful team is composed of the following: Joe Tomes, Bob Pease, Earl Capper, Paul Taylor, Jack Jones, Fred Jurisch, Frank Miller.

GROUP PETITIONFOR NATIONAL SIGNA CHI

A group of 40 men on Canterbury Campus have peti-tioned for a charter to the National Sigma Chi fraternity. A period of probation supervised by the Butler chapter ..will continue for from six to nine months.

The founders of this group will be weighed on the basis of personality, scholarship, fraternity service, and campus activities by the other five Indiana Sigma Chi chapter presidents.

The Monday meeting was postponed until Tuesday evening, Dec. 10, at 6:15 The meeting will be held in the Commerce Room.

New "Frat" Organized

A new fraternity made its appear-ance on the Canterbury campus Mon-day night, under the name of Chi S gma. This group of men has form-ed the new fraternity for the purpose of petitioning the national headquart-ers of the Sigma Chi fraternity for membership. Dr. Jack McClain, a member of Sigma Chi fraternity at Michigan State, spoke to the group on the background and traditions of Sigma Chi. He also assisted in organizing the local group. Pro tem officers elected were: Neil Hagan, president; Bill Herring, vice president; James Reed, secretary; Earl Capper, treasurer; Robert Pearcy, reporter and publicity; Fred Ju-risch and John Dooley, Sergeants-at-Arms; and Jim Johnson, chaplain. These officers will become permanent when the constitution is approved. The officers, acting as the constitution committee, met Tuesday even-ing and wrote the new constitution, which is ready for approval at the next meeting.

SEASON'S END—Canterbury's basketball team finished its season with a triumph over Indiana Central in Danville Wednesday night, and Canterbury students decided to celebrate a successful campaign in time-honored collegiate custom—by burning a few things. That's why the bonfire above. Coach Glen Johnston and his team were guests at the impromptu rally.

CHI SIGMAS SPONSOR TORCH PARADE

C. Covert Webster received a placque and paddle from the Chi Sigma organization in appreciation of his advisership.

Final plans were made Monday evening for the torch parade held before the Indiana Central game as an expression of appreciation for the basket ball team.

Students were invited to participate in this occasion by carrying torches provided for the occasion.

Plans were made for the coach and varsity men to give speaahes.

Warriors End Season With Another Victory

Following a torch parade and pep session, sponsored by the Chi Sigma fraternity, Canterbury chalked up two basketball victories last evening, the varsity team nipping Indiana Central 58 to 51, and the Freshmen topping Central's Junior Varsity 43 to 37. Earlier in the evening Canterbury's Womens Athletic squad lost to the Indiana Central girls to the tune of 24 to 17.

Chi Sigma will present a trophy to the winners of the current intra-mural basketball tourney. The trophy is to be engraved and passed on annually to the winners of this tournament.

FRATER IT BACKS TORCH PARADE

Each student will be riven a torch if he assenbles with the other college students Wednesday night at 6 in front of the college gymasium. The parade will be led by the yell leaders to the town square where coach Johnson and assistant coach Miller will introduce the Canterbury varsity basketball squad. Following this, there will be two college yells and the group will return to the college gymnasium to witness the final ball game between Canterbury and Indiana Central, Pictures will be taken and the proofs will be submitted to the Indianapolis papers,

With student cooperation the successful bashetball season may be closed jubilantly.

The Chi Signa Fraternity is sponsoring this torch parade.

GULST SPEAKS TO CHI SIGMAS

Mr. Sturgeon of Indianapolis addressed the 34 members of the Chi Sigma Fraternity Monday night. Mr. Sturgeon former Sigma Chi, talked about the possibilities of the local fraternity going national. A "Spring Project" which will affect every student on the campus was proposed and the group will soon take action,

John Hollenbach was elected Pledge Captain and he is to submit pledge rules and eligibilites to the members soon.

Mr. Porter was another guest of the fraternity Monday night. Fraternity pictures were taken two weeks ago and Mr. Porter presented a large framed picture to the group.

Chi Sigs seem to have rounded up the cream of the crop of pledges, numerically, academically, and otherways.

ONI SIGNA SHONTER WILL BE THURSDAY

At 7:00 pp this Thursday evening, the Chi Sigma Fraternity, will hold its smoker in the Reception loom. All men who are unorganized are invited to attend. A stag session will be held along with refreshments for all. President Meal ... Hagen will give a short talk about the functions of the Fraternity and its ideals. Last Honday night the Chi Sigmaheld their meeting and gave our their Fraternity pins to honorary members. The committees were appointed for he smoker which is held or potential pledges.

Chi Sigma Pledges

At a candlelight ceremony Monday night, the 32 charter mmebers of the Chi Sigma fraternity conducted the fraternity's ritual and signed the constitution. The Chi Sigma fraternity was formed last September with hopes of establishing a national frate:nity on the Canterbury campus. Previous to the fraternity's constitution ceremo-nies, the following men were given their pledgeships; William Shuck, Richard Warman, Paul Webb, Robert Ebbinghause, Jack Adams, James Ambrose, William Casady, Thomas Cox, Clarence Johns, Vincent Haviza, Robert Williams, Norman Davis, William Tool, Noel Peters, Ray Burch, William Schleifer, Paul Hurst, Victor Buente Frank Hanson, Jack Land, and Earl Davis.

CHI SIGMAS PLEDGES SIGN CONSTITUTION

A candlelit ceremony was the setting for the signing of the 'Chi Sigma's constitution Monday night. The 32 charter members of the fraternity participated in the fraternity's ritual. Following the impressive ritual, the constitution was signed by all the mombers.

Provious to the ceremonies, 14 pledges were accepted into the fraternity. Fourteen non-organized men attended the fraternity's smoker held in the Recreation Room last Thursday. Smoker and food were prepared by the East Side Cafe.

Following an introduction by president Hagen, the fourtdon pledges were sworn in and presented with pledge pins.

The non-organized men accepted for pledgship were as follows:

William J. Shuck, Richard D. Warman, Paul E. Webb, Robert L. Ebbinghaus, Jack D. Adams, James R. Ambrose, William J. Cassady, Thomas W. Cox, Clarence E. Johns, Vincent L. Haviza, Robert L. Williams, Norman L. Davis, William L. Tocl, and Noel A. Poters.

Warmans Warblers (Chi Sig pledges) still have four more Munday nite serenades on their list -if their voices hold out can we take it?

Fraternity Serenade

For the first time on the Canterbury campus, male voices serenaded girls in the Psi Chi house and Adams Hall. Twenty members and 15 pledges of the Chi Sigma fraternity sang to the coeds who in turn returned the complimert. The singing tour followed a meeting of the fraternity at which time plans were made and committees appointed for the Sweetheart dance to be held on May 23. At the dance the Chi Sigma Sweetheart will be chosen from among the girls escorted by fraternity members.

Lopsided Square

Once upon a time Columbus proved that the world was round and not flat. Now the Chi Sigma fraternity pledges are trying to prove to the people of Danville that their public square isn't square after all. They have been measuring it with hot dogs and find that the total length of the four sides is 2,312 1-3 hot dogs. The disconcerting result of the pledge duty is that the south side of the square measures 596 hot dogs and the north side is 642.

RAZZ BANQUET AND ROPE PULL MAY 15

A compination, of events will be held next Thursday May:15, at the Park.

Promptly at eleven o'clock the Tug of War will be held over the creek between the Zeta Sigma and Chi Sigma fraternities.

While this is taking place, the girls will be preparing a picnic dinner in the shelter house.

At twelve the girls will serve dinner and the program will be planned by the Kappa Pi Beta fraternity in the nature of a "Razz" event.

Persons in charge of the event are presidents of the social organizations and members of Kappa Pi

SWEETHEART DANCE FRIDAY

Final arrangements were made at the meeting of the Chi Sigma's Monday night for the Sweetheart Dance Friday night. Extensive decorations, white linen on reserved tables, and white coats for waiters are promised. The Sweetheart will have her picture and write-up printed in state papers. Tickets are available on the campus at the booth provided for that purpose. The first one hundred tickets (couples only) will be assured reserved tables.

Greek Council Elects

The Greek Council organization of Canterbury College met Tuesday evening and elected a new president for the coming year. Neal Hagen, president of the Chi Sigma Fraternity was elected for the office. Mr. Hagen assumed his new duties immediately and served for the remainder of the semester.

CHI SIGMA ELECTED GREEK COUNCIL HEAD

At the meeting of the Greek Council organization last Tuesday, Neal Hagen, president of the Chi Sigma Fraternity was elected to head the Greek Council. Mr. Hagen will serve for the remainder of the semester, during which time the Greek Council constitution is being adopted.

CHI SIGMA

Two major attractions were undertaken by the active members of the Chi Sigma Fraternity last Monday night. The first, a semi-formal dance, is to take place in the gymnasium on Friday night, May 23. A well known orchestra is being sought, elaborate decorations are to be furnished, and the "sweetheart" will be honored. (All college personnel are cordially invited to attend this vervacious spectacle.)

The second feature of interest to all who are in any way interested in mysticism, is the sponsoring of a well - known magician. The gentleman, including his cast of five members, will present an hour and a half show of spectacular entertainment. The magician performed this week at the Univer-Kentucky. sity of Previous to that, he has performed before other students of Indiana colleges; always he was greeted warmly and, by his amazing performance, was, in every case, signed for a return engagement. (It is related, from thos who have seen the show, that his wife is made to disappear before your very eyes. ghosts walk through the crowd ... not only a rabbit, but an elephant is pulled from a hat).

Tickets for these two major campus attractions will soon be available.

The entire group of fifteen pledges and a great quantity of activiess serenaded the ladies at the Dorm and the Psi Chi house after the meeting-approximately 10:30--Monday evening. Dick Warman was elected by the group of pledges as president of the Pledge Class. It was through the successful efforts of the pledges (and activies) that the ladies, at both residences did respond most admirably -Thanks co-eds! We'll be back next Monday at 10:30.

CHI SIGMA NEWS

Appointed "Master of Cermonies," Mr. J. Reed will with the assistance of various pledges, represent the Chi Sigma Fraternity on Stunt Night. These fellows have practiced laboriously on what is expected to be a successful act.

Members of the fraternity enthusiastically decided to accept the Zeta Sigam challenge of rope pull over the Tiber River. The tentative date is set for Thursday, May 15, and will probably be given during convocation hour. "The college cafeteria should notice a tremendous increase in sales, for the members of both fraternities are striving to weigh as much as possible.

"The Stardusters," a well known dance orchestra consisting of eight pieces and a lady vocalist, from Indianapolis, has been hired to play at the "Sweetheart Dance," May 23 (Friday).

Again, the members of the Chi Sigma Fraternity are grateful to the "Ladies" of the Psi Chi house and Adams Hall for their return serenade Monday night. The first Chi Sigma pledge class is living up to the high moral standards, and creative ideas for which the fraternity stands.

No one was happier than Jim Reed's future wife Dol ores Strebler of Chicago when she was chosen as the sweetheart of Chi Sigma. She was presented with a beautiful loving cup and a dozen American Beauty Red Roses.

Table 24 could have been named Tuxedo Junction. Bill Casady, Jim Jones and Jim Bryant all turned out in stiff collars, etc. Further on down the floor "Nick" Nicholds and Buzz Hargrave were noted strutting around in full dress.

Rilus Hill celebrated a birthday. Happy birthday was played for him and he blushed like a schoolboy??

Bill Stoner had his recent marriage announced and danced a number alone with his lovely bride----they shor grow um purty down in Looyville.

So - many of the girls looked beautiful in their formals that we can't single anyone out for mention but--it was a vast improve ment over the bobbysox and overall routine.

It seems that Earl Capper's wife forgot her form al and had to improvise one from drape material.No one know it and she looked ver nice indeed.

Special mention should go to the boys that swallowed their pride and did such a bang up job of wait ing on tables. Our hats are eff to Dick Warman--Bill Tool and Bill Reynold, Other workers who rate a round of applause were Key Fred Jurisch, Jake Johns, Vince Haviza, Fred Dugle, and Jack Lane.

It seems that three or four poison ivy bushes had to be taken from the hall early in the day. Must be a couple city slickers in the crowd.

Tottie Walton sang a num ber at the request of Dr. Cumings and brought down the house. Her escort Bill Herring was all smiles for the envening!

THE SWEETHEART DANCE: Amid soft lights, sweet music, and beautiful decorations the Chi Sigma gang held their first annual "Sweetheart Dance" in the gym last Fri. nite ... High lite of this dance was the election of Jim Redd's gal from Chi. as the Frat Sweetheart --- hear she is going to become Mrs. Reed ... Bill Stoner announced his marriage to his long time sweetheart ... Rod Hill got his birthday all celebrated real pretty like Many of the guys brought in their gals from home to show them off ... Taylor and Snider came in with their two home towners .Bob Courtney and Jim Johnston brought in Depauw's representives New couples showded up in the form of Ginny Tincher and the Bonsett Boy ... Swackhamer went to Lafayette to bring in his loved one Tottie and Bill Herring came in to help the party along...The following went to Nap'town 'to ge t their quail--Bill Shuck Kenny Baird, Ed McArter, and Jimmy Bryant. Ray Hamilton got himself all fixed up with a Shortridge gal by Frank Milican -- They drove a Long Cadilac that made all our old Fords look sick ... New campus couples included Jones-Vandervert & Marion White-Ann Shanner (that was a surprize) and Webster and Una Beard. .. Congrats go to the Chi Sigs for a swell shindig.

IDEALS & PURPOSES

A body of men associated for their common interest, business, and pleasure is the Chi Sigma Brotherhood. The fraternity was organized chiefly to promote friendship and welfare among the members, and between the members and other Canterbury students.

As new as Canterbury College itself is the Chi Sigma Fraternity, organized in 1946. Like the college on which campus it was formed, the fraternity upholds high moral and scholastic standing, and promotes the general welfare of fellow men.

Striving to become national, this united group of outstanding students has been extremely active. Working hand-in-hand with the college administration, the Chi Sigmas energetically endeavor to promote the standing of the school of liberal arts.

CHI SIGMA PINS NE" ADVISORS

Monday evening, November 17, 1947 President Hagen pinned Mr. Crane and Mr. Carson as new advisors to the Chi Sigma Fraternity. The new advisors were warmly greeted by the brotherhood which has been without a faculty advisor since early in the year.

Final plans were made for the semi-formal "Turkey Flutter" to be held Saturday night in the gym. Tickets are on sale and reservations are being taken.

Decorations this .year are under the direction of James Reed and he has promised a surprise that may surpass the beautiful surroundings of the gardenlike effect of the Sweetheart Dance.

·CHI SIGMA NEWS:

Plans were made Monday evening for a seni-formal dance to be held Nov. 22.

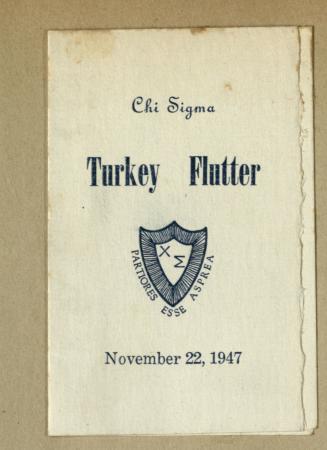

Honor roll certificates were presented to Earl Capper, Floyd Heller, James Jones, Howard Key, Edmund Schneider, George Sennhauser, William Tool, Robert Williams, William Casady and Neel Hagen for the spring semester. Additional certificates for the summer semester were presented to Howard Key, Edmund Schneider, Fred Jurisch, Arthur Taylor and Robert Williams.

Chi Sigma Fraternity plans to bring Kreko, the magician, back to Canterbury at an early date. Those who 'attended "last years' performance will remember the almost impossible feats he performed.

New Faculty advisors were nominated.

BARRACKS BRAEZE

The twenty-five members of the Chi Sigma (22-16) pledge class received the third LFCTURE Monday evening in Hargrave Hall. At this time all 'black-marks were removed and paddles signed and inspected. Each pledge was thoroughly tested on his knowledge of fraternal life, based largely on the first and second sessions. The official Canterbury Co'lege key will be available to Canterbury students next Monday. This key will be sold in the college Bookstore and the Recreational center at a price moderate to all. The key is described as possessing a knight's head on the top, an open book for the body on which the college seal is imprinted and a staff below signifying knowledge.

It is another project of Chi Sigma to sponsor a magician, well known to those who enjoyed his performance last spring. Murdock the Great is to appear in the college Auditorium in April....you will be hearing much more about him.

RUN 'ER UP—Canterbury College students, shown running their school flag up the Butler University flag pole, won't agree but Butler officials claim most of their student body didn't even know the flag was put up yesterday morning. The Canterbury group sneaked the flag up the pole about 1 o'clock and it was removed by a janitor before students came to class. Butler will play Canterbury tonight at the Fieldhouse.

Brother Sennhouser addressed the committee-men at a special meeting Wednesday afternoon at 12:30. At this time extensive plans were laid for the outstanding future activities on the Canterbury campus.

BARRACKS BREEZE

Jim Reed and a crew Chi Sigs have been sawing; hammering and painting for the past two weeks making decorations for the Chi Sigs Sweetheart dance. Jim promises everyone they will never recognize the gymnasium as such.

If all of you have been wondering about the pounding or sawing, with a few unprintable words as hammer meets thumb, coming from the second floor of the library building, it's not a scafold for hanging wayward students ----- No, it's Brother Jim Reed working on his first engineering job for the coming SWEETHEART DANCE.

Last Monday night further plans were made and it looks like it is going to be a gala affair ---- New decorations, New ideas, etc. will dress up the gym to welcome in the spring season at Canterbury.

After the meeting the brothers on the basketball team met the Alpha Mu fraternity on the hardwood and rang up one of the highest scores in the Inter-Fraternity League this year or any other year. When the final sound of the buzzer was heard, the score was: Chi Sigma 71, Alpha Mu. 30.

With the business and play completed for another day, Chi Sigma adjourned to their quarters to prepare for the bigger and better fraternity life.

More pounding, more painting, more plans' is the current theme for the Chi Sigmas this week.

The band has been picked and its going to be Bob Barton who has been playing for a number of dances at Indiana University, Purdue, and DePauw.

Brother Sennhouser has most of the other details well under control and we are all quite sure the 17th of April will be a night to Remember.

The decorations will be along the same plan as last year with a number of additions. One which will attract a lot of attention will be the "Sweetheart Arch"----Be sure to look for it men, and you too women! After all, it is Leap Year !!

The brothers of Chi Sigma met last Monday night for a short business meeting and the ritual was read to welcome three new active members--Dan Akers, Dorian Fletcher, and Bill Scott.

After the formal meeting refreshments were served in the fraternity chambers A very successful informal get-together was held last Thursday night. Various interesting topics of present day college life were discussed and refreshments again were served to the Chi Sigma and their guests. Choral singing around an open fire ended the evening's activities.

The Chi Sigma Fraternity held its weekly meeting last Monday night.

After. a formal discussion about the business at hand a rather informal gathering was held on the banks of the River Tiber.

One of the brothers had found the girl of his dreams and to put a little attachment to her he had given his pin so all might know.

According to sub-by-lay number 1948, when this is done by any brother he will be tossed into the River Tiber.

Chaplin or not a chaplinanyway the best of luck to brother Jim Jones and Kitty Howell.

It might be added that one brother in his excitement also found himsolf, with his pin still pinned to his shirt, chest high in water.

Let's be more careful next time Fletch. 22-16

After a short business meeting last Monday night, the Chi Sigma Fraternity met the Zeta Sigma Nu Fraternity in what might well be called a comedy of errors--actually it was a softball game with the Chi Sigmas coming out on the top by a 4 to 1 measure.

A good time was had by all--let's have more of that inter-fraternity competition--it builds a good fellowship between rival fraternitites and develops sportsmanship.

With but a few meetings left this year the thoughts are--turning to the coming election of officers--We should see a little campaigning on and around campus.

By the way Pete, we'll be looking for you Monday night. Bring a towel.

After a short business meeting, during which the nominations of officers of Chi Sigma was carried out, the SOFT BALL ARTISTS of Chi Sigma met the Alpha Mu's and came out on top 28-8. But the following Tuesday night, they were on the short end of the score when they lost to the Zeta Sig's 15 to 9.

This Thursday at 12 Noon is the Razz Banquet-with the Rope Pull between the Chi Sigma and Zeta Sigma Fraternities preceding it. Be there- it will be a lot of fun for everyone.

The pledges are still very much on the Ball. Perhaps you saw them measuring the distance from one corner of the Square past the Royal & East Side to the Bank. It was not with a yardstick, but a Hot Dog with matches for light. If there is anyone interested in the distance in Hot Dogs, see one of them. The Chi Sigma Sweetheart Dance was a bigger success than even the Chi Sigs hoped for. Jim Reed was largely responsible for the beautiful decorations.

After a short business meeting, during which the nominations of officers of Chi Sigma was carried out, the SOFT BALL ARTISTS of Chi Sigma met the Alpha Mu's and came out on top 28-8. But the following Tuesday night, they were on the short end of the score when they lost to the Zeta Sig's 15 to 9.

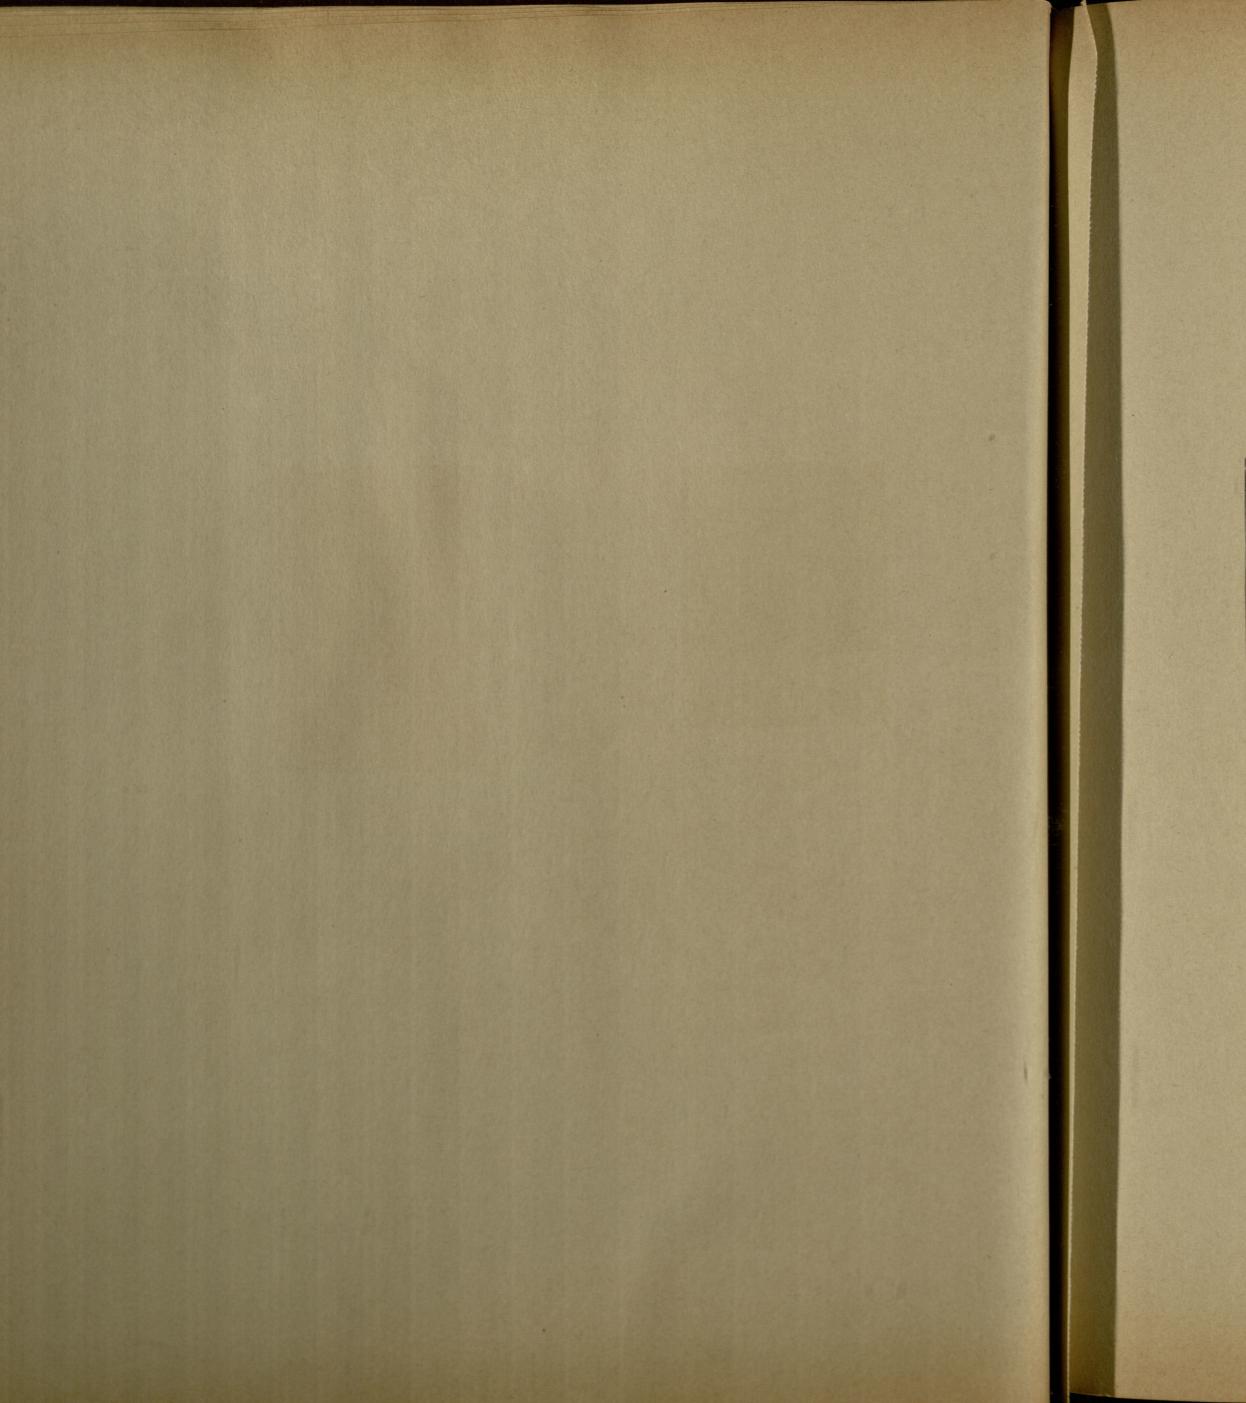

This Thursday at 12 Noon is the Razz Banquet-with the Rope Pull between the Chi Sigma and Zeta Sigma Fraternities preceding it. Be there- it will be a lot of fun for everyone.

The pledges are still very much on the Ball. Perhaps you saw them measuring the distance from one corner of the Square past the Royal & East Side to the Bank. It was not with a yardstick, but a Hot Dog with matches for light. If there is anyone interested in the distance in Hot Dogs, see one of them.

CHI SIGMA FRATERNITY At the November-first meeting, plans were made for the initiation of Rudy Miller and for a social meeting on our next meeting night, November 8. The past two weeks have pro-duced a "new look" in the Fra-ternity Clubroom, which we ex-pect to have completed by No-vember 20. We are looking for-ward to having the Fraternity alumni back on that date for the Annual Thanksgiving Dance. The alumni secretary, Ralph White, would appreciate being notified of any change in address of Fraternity alumni since last year.

HARVEST MOON BALL With decorations of corn stalks, pumpkins, yellow and brown repe paper, the Chi Sigma Fra-ternity again made the gym over into a beautiful, ballroom for the annual Thanksgiving dance last Saturday evening. The theme of the dance was carried out by a huge yellow harvest moon at the west end of the dance floor. The chaperons for the dance were Professor Carson and Pro-fessor and Mrs. Crane. The dance started at 9:00 p.m. and lasted till 12:30 with the music for dancing furnished by Charlie Bowers and the Wilson-airs. During the intermission the Alpha Mu Kappa turkey raffle was held.

It won't be long now till that "week of reckoning" will be at hand. Yes, pledging of prospective fraternity men is over. It only remains for pledge duties to be fulfilled and formal initiations conducted.

The Chi Sigma Fraternity held its semi-annual smoker on Tuesday, the 30th of November, and it's doubtful that any of those attending will forget that delicious dinner—almost like Mom's own! Of course, the fact that it was served by the fairer sex of our college helped tremendously.

The smoker was held at the American Legion Post, and the Chi Sigma Fraternity was host to some forty-odd unorganized men, the majority of whom were freshmen.

Also pledged to the Chi Sigma were John Morgan, Corpus Christi, Texas; Alvin Newell, Wildwood, New York; Charles Traill, Frederick, Maryland; Donald Vison, Stilesville, Indiana; Stephen Yarling, Danville, Indiana; and William Carruthers, Newton, Massachusetts.

CHI SIG'S MARCH OF DIMES

By Eric Bauts

As part of their hell week, the Chi Sigma pledges collected $52.29 for the March of Dimes.

On Monday, February 7, the Chi Sigma pledges appeared on campus dressed in the costume of the typical American bum and gave notice, thereby, that hell week was underway. The costumes were complete even to milk bottles and other containers in which pledges collected dona-tions from the generous people on campus. The impression was given that the donations were to aid the pledges in their own finance, but it was later discovered that the total collection was to go to the March of Dimes to help the fight against infantile paralysis. The usual penalty of "assuming the position" was inflicted upon the pledge collecting the least money, and all donors were asked to sign a slip of paper with his or her name on it to prove that contributions came from varied sources. The total proceeds of the milk bottle campaign reached $24.11. Feeling that this was too small a sum, the pledges hit upon the idea of passing a blanket at the De-Pauw-Canterbury game. From this the pledges rasied $28.18, bringing the grand total to be turned over to the March of Dimes to $52.29.

Chi Sigs Hold Mixer In Grid Room Feb. 7 After De Pauw Game

With the playing of some of the top recordings of the day, the Canterbury gals and guys enjoyed two hours of after-the-game dancing. This shindig was held in the Grid Room, Monday evening, February 7th, after that breath-taking Canterbury-DePauw game.

The Dugout (on other occasions known as the Grid Room) was lined on three sides with tables and on the fourth side with an itinerary stag line. Lighting was darkly carried out with wall lamps and candles on the tables.

The Chi Sigs sponsored the mixer with their pledges manning the work details. "Hub" Frey and "Little Tex" Morgan ran the needle around the records while Bartenders Bauts, Trail and Branam served the thirsts of the dancers.

About all the same old couples were seen dancing—together, that is. The only deviation from the "engaged, or pinned, or goingsteady" couples was the Bischoff-Bischoff dance team. These brother-sister acts usually go over big.

Kenney Noe and Pat, a new twosome on campus, stepped off a few dances. George Greenway and "Tex" Nichols, partners-incrime, were, as usual, giving all the girls (escorted or not) a break.

A ray of hope was bestowed upon the stag line when a "swarm of honeys" from the North Salem high school migrated to the Dugout. (A drone is the male of the honeybee. It has no sting and gathers no honey??) Miss Ginger Schadt and Miss

Radio Station WEEP Inaugurated in Convo By Chi Sig Pledges

Canterbury College now has a radio station. At least that's what the Chi Sigma Fraternity led the student body to believe at Con-vocation last Wednesday. The official name of the station is Station WEEP, which broadcasts over a wave length of seven and one-half yards or four hundred and ten gas meters. Coming before the "mike" first was Jack Morgan, the announcer of station WEEP. Canterbury's new "Don Wilson" of the air then introduced the day's program. All the entertainers are members of the Cowlimp County Civic Club.

First on the program was "Mr. Sarah Sackem," or better known to the students as Charlie Trail, to the students as Charife Trail, who gave us hints on kitchen and household problems as well as the care and handling of children. Next on the program was sta-tion WEEP's only musical por-tion of the program, "Monty Hill and Erma," better known as Bob Andress and Dick Branam. These two boys of the "velvet throat" gave their version of "Tramp, Tramp, Tramp, the Boys Are Marching."

a bad boy. Continuing the program, Sta-tion WEEP presented Cowlimp County's own poetic genius, "Mr. Patrick Parks," or Tony Ponce who recited the old Italian poem entitled "Rocked in the Cradle of the Dean" the Deep.'

After a short pause came the county's famous elocutionist, "Mr. Ella Cushion," or rather as he is known to his friends—Hub Frey.

For the home gardeners in the audience, Mr. Reginald Regal gave his ideas on a perfect garden. Gus Bauts had some fine ideas but not practical. Last, but far from least, on the program was Mr. Pepelevitch giv-ing a short moral story. Mr. Pepelevitch or rather Dick Cook told why it isn't as easy to fool little girls today as it was years ago.

Closing the program, the whole group of entertainers, who were really the Chi Sigma Pledges doing a little of the hell week activities, joined together in singing the fraternity song.

Three more games were played off Friday night. In the first game, the Banzies had a hard time snuffing out the "much out of shape" Chi Sigma "Bs". The game end-ed in favor of the Banzies 29-24. The life of a photographer! This week the Chi Sigma fraternity at Canterbury College pulled a joke on their pledges by having them in the local cooler for a few minutes. Charles Featherngill, the shutterbug, was called upon to photograph the pledges while they were behind bars. Mr. Featherngill stepped inside a cell to get "that" one and only shot and, bingo-he was locked up with the rest of the crowd. Sheriff Bayliss realized the situation and let Charlie out, but he got his picture anyway.

As a climax to "Hell Week', the Chi Sigma Fraternity held their formal initiation on Sunday, February 12. The pledges met with the actives at 2:00 p.m. in front of the library building, and from there on they were in the hands of the actives. Initiation services were held in the fraternity chambers and in the Chapel.

Nine men were taken in by the Fraternity after having completed all the requirements of the organization. Those initiated were: Hub Frey, sophomore from Dayton, Ohio; Dick Branon, freshman from Bloomington; Jack Brown, freshman from Noblesville, Indiana; Alvin Newell, freshman from Wildwood, New Jersey; Tony Ponce, freshman from New York; Gus Bouts, freshman from New York; Jerry Davis, freshman from Noblesville, Indiana; Richard Cook, freshman from Noblesville; and Bill Carruthers, freshman from Newton, Massachusetts.

At their regular Monday evenings the Fraternity made plans for the coming Sweetheart Dance, which it will sponsor on the 7 of May.

May. Committees were appointed by Fred Jurisch, who is now President of the organization. Mr. Jurisch is filling the spot left vacant by Mr. Casady while the latter is on a two weeks leave of absence.

Instead of their regular meeting, the Chi Sigma Fraternity held a dinner meeting on Monday, March 7. The dinner was held above the OK Restaurant, with Kenny Baird supplying the food After the dinner two films were shown to the group, the first being "Football Highlights of 1948" an dthe second a short on hockey. Both were well received by the fraternity, and Fred Jurisch, acting president, stated that we would make it a regular practice to have movies at the dinner meetings to be held in the future.

After the movies the business meeting was held. Plans for the forthcoming "Sweetheart Dance" were discussed. Plans for the directions and the program were made and committees were appointed to look into the plans made.

After hearing Fr. Eby speak in convocation on March 9, the fraternity decided to give Fr. Eby the books that they have collected last year in their book drive. They have over 2,000 books which they are only too happy to send to Fr. Eby, if they will help him in any way to establish the libraries that he states are so badly needed in British Guiana.

ROPE PULL

ROPE PULL Tomorrow afternoon the Chi Sigma Fraternity and the Zeta Sigma Fraternity will once again meet on opposite sides of the Ti-ber River to determine who is really the strongest. This year a new rivalry is starting, that between the Pi Alpha's and the Alpha Mu's. May the best fraternity remain the dry fraternity. All students and faculty mem-bers are invited to attend these events, and also the picnic which will take place immediately fol-lowing the rope pull.

Chi Sigma Fraternity c/o Don Akers 1530 Seward, Apt. 303 Detroit 6, Michigan

Dear Dan:

I want to express our sincere thanks to you and to the Chi Sigma Fraternity for their gift of $25.00 to the Memorial Hall Academic Building fund. This subscription has been listed in your honor and credit has been given the class of 1947.

I am glad to be able to tell you that we have just completed a very successful Commencement at which a ceremonial ground breaking was witnessed by a large crowd. The fund is growing daily and has now reached $110,000.00 in contributions and pledges. This together with the insurance money gives us $175,000.00 toward our $250,000.00 goal.

Our architect is working on the final plans and we hope to get under way with construction sometime in the fall. The present plan is to have the building ready to dedicate at Commencement 1950 and ready for occupancy in the fall of 1950.

With kind regards,

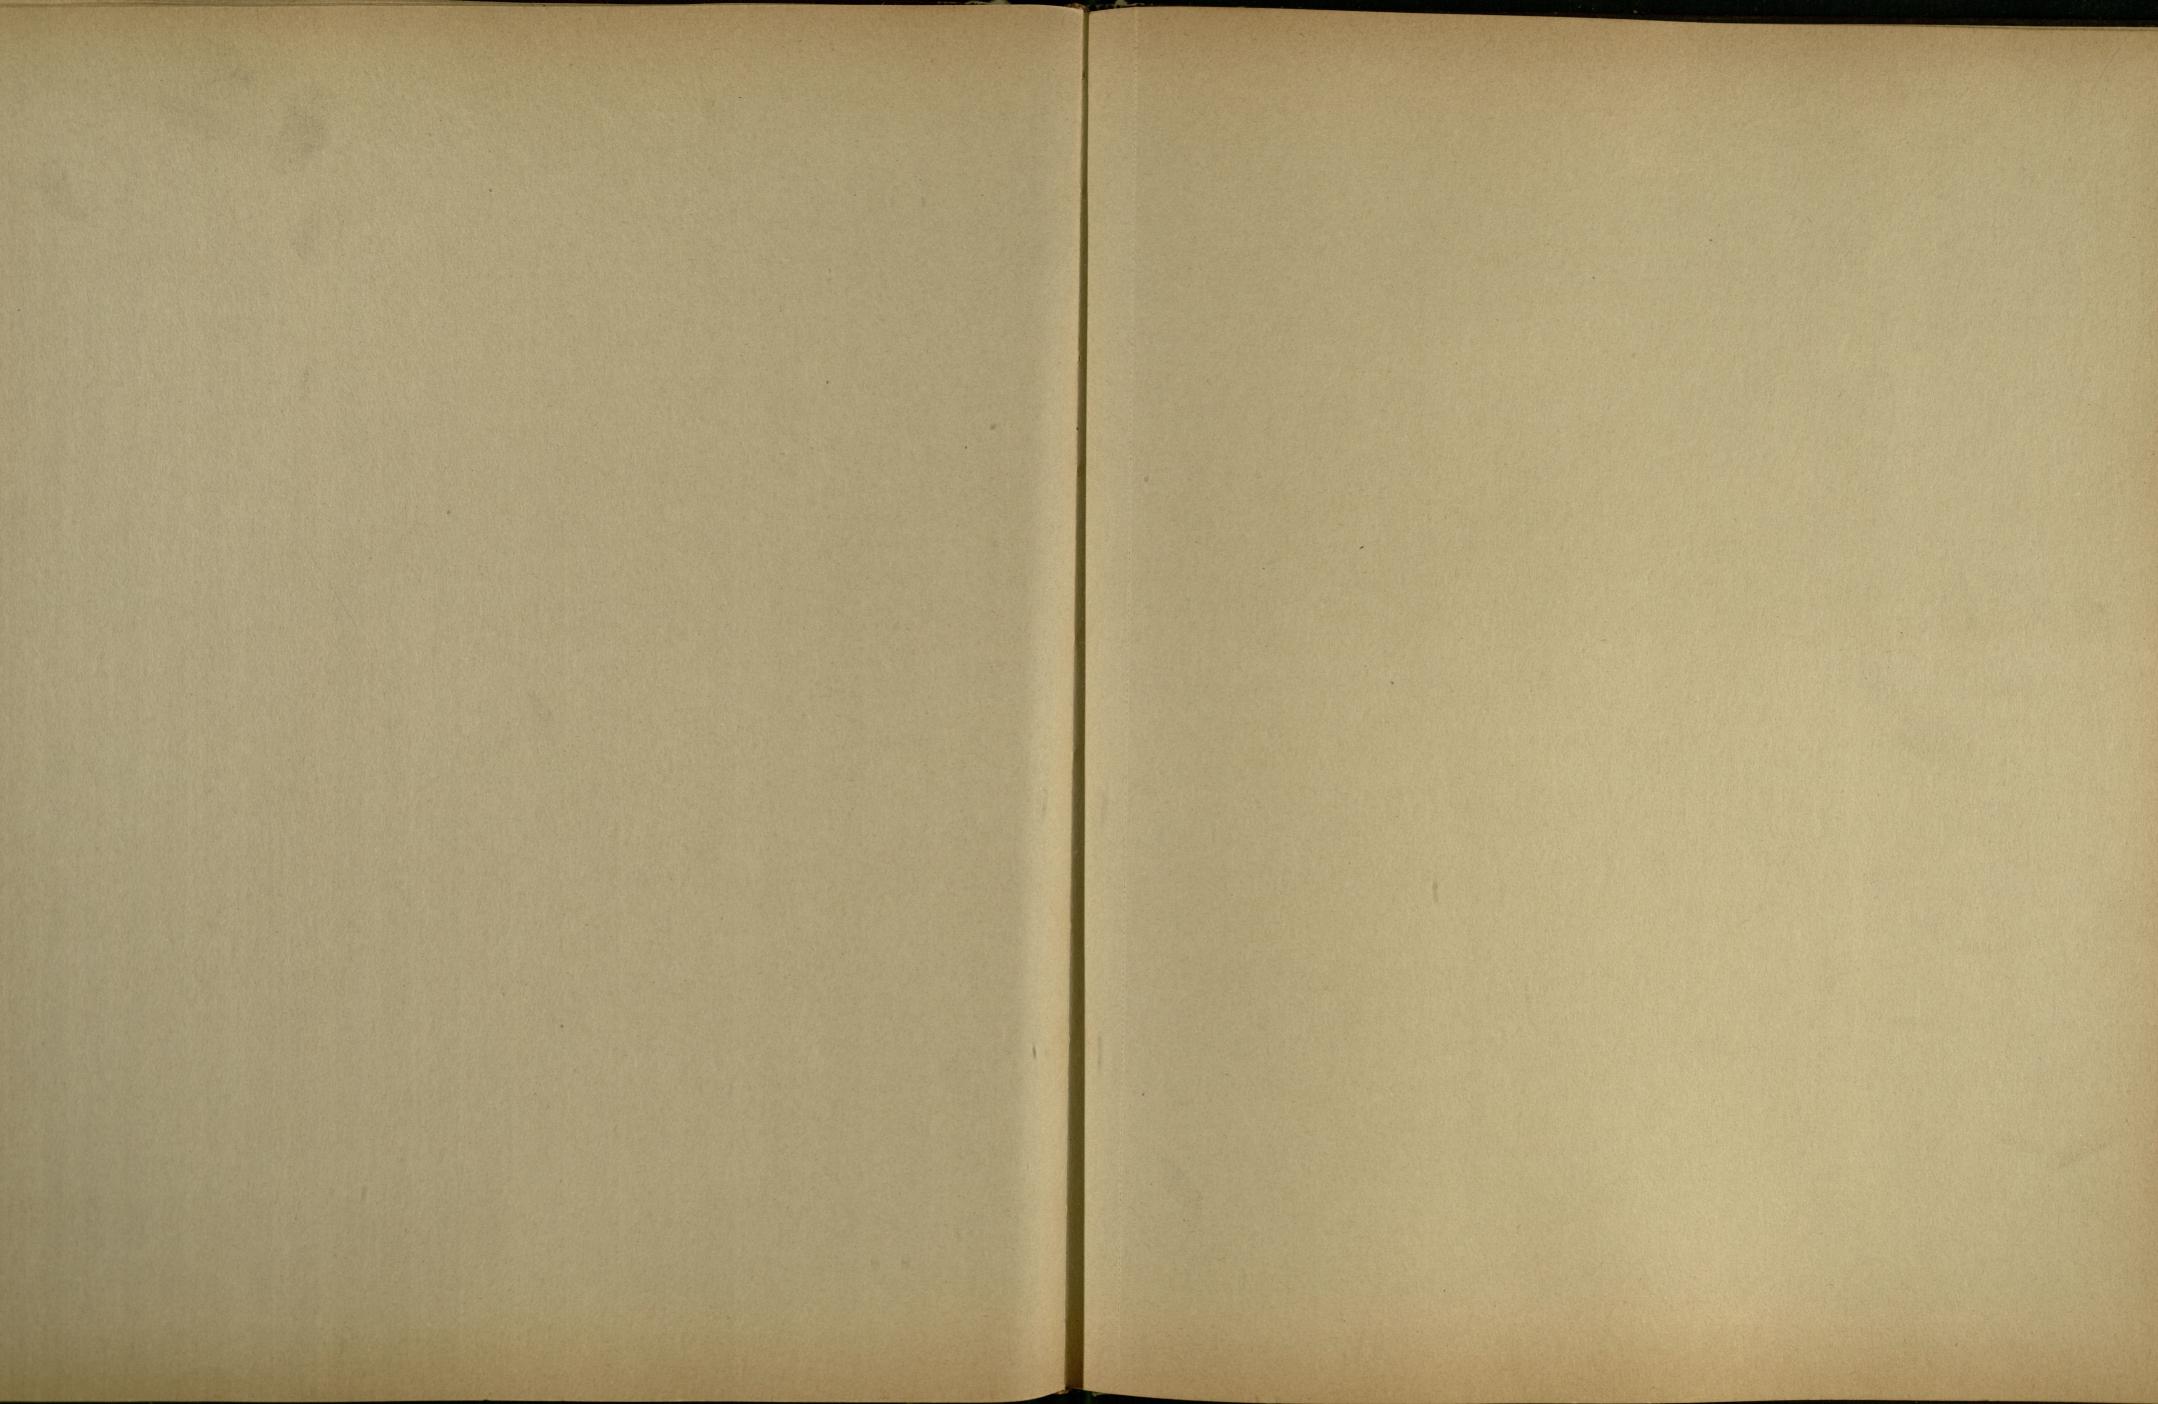

Sincerely yours,

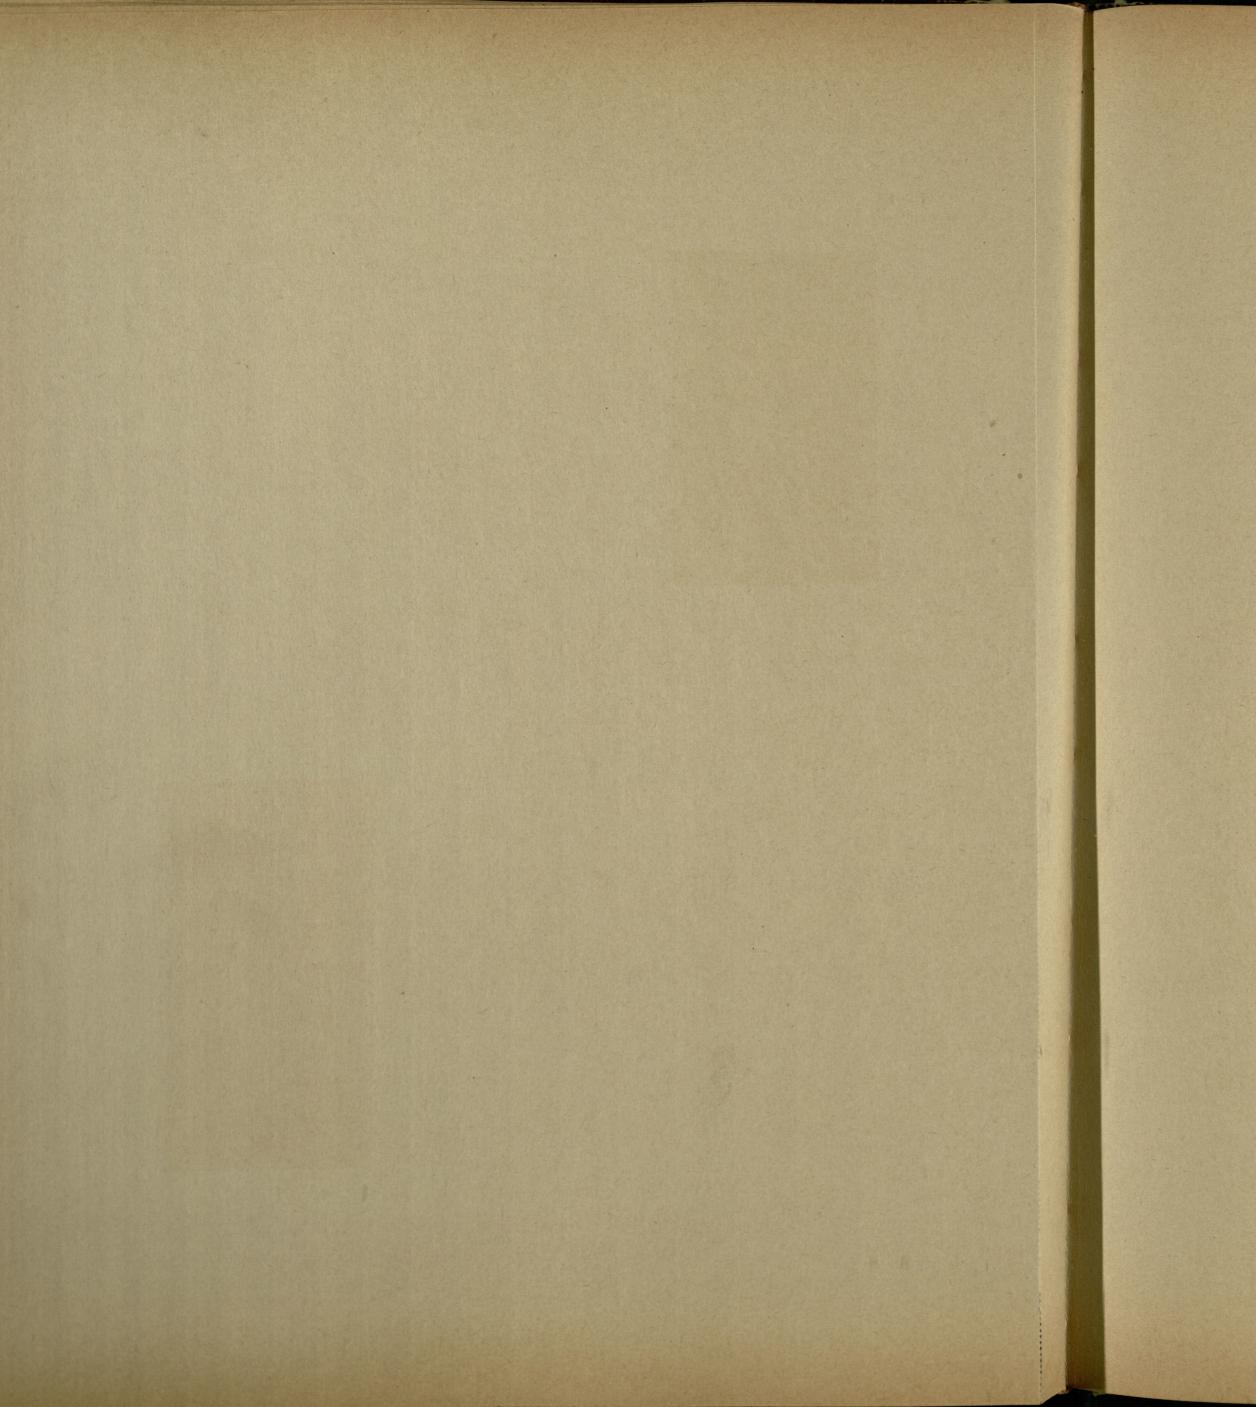

Soutor BURRETT B. BOUTON

On Tuesday, November 2, the Chi Sigma Fraternity held their fourth annual Smoker for prospective pledges.

The affair this year was held in the American Legion Post Home on South Cross Street with approximately 35 active members and 60 guests present.

Informal talk was the main diversion of the evening. Different members of the fraternity gave their own views on fraternity life. Although informal in nature, the Smoker constituted a fine program for the evening. At the conclusion of the talk, a delicious spaghetti and meatball dinner was served. This feast was engineered by Gus Bauts,

Norm MacLaury and Herb Bischoff. Movies of sports thrills gave the evening a good finale. Final plans have been made for the acceptance of men into pledgeship with the fraternity.
