DECIDED AT CONFERENCE AT WABASH

The fifty-second annual meeting of the Indiana Academy of Science will meet at Central Normal College in November of 1936.

The invitation for this meeting was extended by Dean Steinbach, who attended the meeting last week-end, which was held at Wabash College. Other invitations were received from Purdue, Taylor, Ball State, and North Manchester.

Plans will be made to make this meeting one of the most outstanding which the Academy has ever known.

Mr. J. C. Nelson of Central Normal College also attended the meeting.

FOOTBALL SEASON CLOSES by

Coach S. H. Leitzman

Central Normal's Warriors closed their 1935 football season with a victory over Eastern Illinois 18-2.

The season's record was one defeat, three ties and three wins. The outstanding feature of the season was the splendid spirit on the part of the entire squad to cooperate and make the season a success.

For the first time in the history of the school four class presidents graced the squad: Ewing, reserve Q. Freshman President; Blanford, reserve Q. Sophomore President; Gullion, L.H. Junior President, and Fisher, L.E. Senior President.

The plunging of Albright was spectacular throughout the season and accounted for many of Normal's touchdowns.

Albright is a Senior and finishing his 4th year on Central Nor-

Y CABINET MEETS

The Y.W.C.A. and Y.M.C.A. met in the "Y" room Tuesday evening at seven o'clock. A short business meeting was held, and it was decided to have another meeting at the same time next week as there will be no more regular meetings this term.

Mr. John E. William B. S. '34, was elected to the Indiana Academy of Science at its recent meeting at Wabash.

FAIRMONT HIGH SCHOOL PLANS TO ORGANIZE A JR. KAPPA PI BETA CHAPTER

Mr. Richard Somers of Fairmont High School, Dayton, Ohio sent an interesting letter thanking us for the hospitality shown and benefits received from the Conference.

Mr. Somers was given an honorary degree in Kappa Pi Beta on Friday evening and has gone home with plans for organizing a Junior Kappa Pi Beta.

ARRIVED HOME SAFELY

Mrs. Milby of the Kentucky Female Orphanage School writes that they arrived home safely last Sunday afternoon. They all expressed a thanks for the grand time which they had and for the hospitality received.

She told of plans for carrying out some of the new ideas gotten at Conference and of a Thanksgiving breakfast and initiation service for the pledges.

I am anxious that you should be a good scholar, but I am more anxious that you should be a good clean man.

"BIG RICH" PRESENTED CHAPEL PROGRAM

Last Tuesday morning in Chapel, E. A. Richardson "Big Rich" gave a very interesting program.

Chapel opened with student and faculty announcements.

Following this Dr. Canary introduced "Big Rich." He very cleverly read several of his own compositions and ended his program by reading a very appropriate selection of James Whitcomb Riley's "When the Frost is on the Pumpkins and the Fodder's in the Shock." He gave a very good impression of the modern "35 streamlined 'hill billy'" in his last selection.

A.T.E. WILL HOLD DANCE

The Alpha Theta Epsilon sorority held their regular meeting Monday night at the home of Mrs. Shirley. Plans were completed for the dance to be held Friday evening November 15, in the Grid Room.

Music will be furnished by Goodwins Melody Aces.

MUSIC NOTES
Sawyer

The Band and orchestra are still working on new music. All instrumental players should get in on this treat of new music as some very fine numbers are included.

The Glee Clubs were organized and Helen Louise Thomas, was elected Business manager, and Mary Meeks, Social chairman.

The girls sextette is rendering two special numbers at the Methodist Church Monday night at 7:30.

The cantata has come and all members of the Glee Clubs are urged to be present at all rehearsals till it is given.

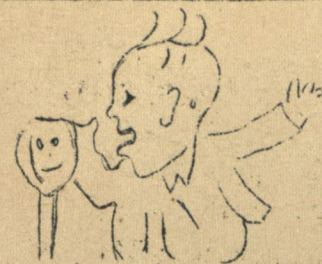

SIGMA LAMBDA PI TO HOLD FALL SPORT DANCE

The Sigma Lambda Pi Fraternity will hold a fall sport dance in the Social Grill room Saturday night Nov. 16 at eight o'clock.

Decorations, to resemble a football field and a basketball floor, will be planned by Gene Franklin.

On Friday night the Fraternity will hold formal initiation for the following pledges: Padgett, Lynch, Goff, Strahle, Davis, Rea, Templeton, Izenblotter, McBeth, and Widvey.

INDIANA'S POET LAUREATE

E. A. Richardson, professionally known as "Big Rich", of Evansville, was unanimously chosen Indiana's poet laureate at the joint meeting of the house of representatives and the senate of the seventy-sixth general assembly of Indiana at the Lincoln Day exercises at Indianapolis, February 12th, 1929.

Following the reading of his poem, "Lincoln, the Hoosier," the joint session passed a motion naming "Big Rich" poet laureate. The vote was unanimous and, remarks the Evansville Courier, "An Evansville man had been chosen to fill the place once held by the most famous of Hoosier poets, James Whitcomb Riley."

The poem which first established "Big Rich" as a poet is his famous "Alligator Grin". His poem, "Lincoln, the Hoosier" has been pronounced one of his best works. The majority of his poems are thoroughly Indian in style, color, sentiment and outlook, thereby displaying the characteristics and make-up of a typical and loyal Hoosier.

Cheer, courage and perseverance is the essence of his poetry. To please, amuse and inspire is his delight in vigorous and telling utterances. His humor is always one of his best and most loving qualities. His favorite original motto is:

"Let's trade grins-- Then be friends."

Lincoln, the Hoosier

Among the hills and valleys
That God has "chucked" with charm,
And blessed, caressed with nature
And sweet winds soft and warm,
There's something in the soil
That wraps around my heart
In Southern Indiana
Where Lincoln got his start.

The world has heard of Lincoln,
His greatness, and his worth,
His honesty and judgment,
His seriousness and mirth.
The fourteen years of struggle
In Hoosierdom impart
That Southern Indiana
Is where he got his start.

Those years were in the making
Of his strong mind and form,
Here's where he learned to battle
Life's hardships, strife and storm.
'Twas here his family circle
Was sadly torn apart,
In southern Indiana
Where Lincoln got his start.

Here on a knoll wood covered
His "angel mother's" grave;
A place of sacred reverence
Of one so good and brave.
Soon a towering monument,
A work of modern art,
Will stand in Indiana
Where Lincoln got his start.

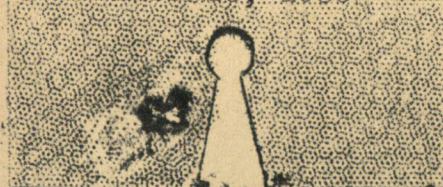

The great emancipator
With Hoosier heart and soul
By open fireplace study
Acquired the greatest goal.
The sparks and leaping blazes
Like "Old Glory" unfurled
By virtue of his greatness
Throw beams around the world.

The atmosphere is fervent
With memories of his ways
And deeds which were implanted
That won eternal praise.
One seems to feel his presence
More piercing than a dart
In southern Indiana
Where Lincoln got his start.

Cured O' Braggin'

"I see yer son is home from school,"
Said Hiram unto Cyrus,
"An' wuz his larnin' a success,
Er sich as allus tire us"?

"Yes, Hiram," said Cy with a smile,
"The way his tongue's a-waggin'
I'd say his larnin' 's a success.
Hit cured his ma o' braggin'."

'Tis rumored that Imogene McCloud would like to chew the ears of a certain little girl from Kentucky.
Do you all know who she mean?

Noble Benbow dislocated three vertebra Saturday night while craning his neck to watch his girl dancing with Snap Weaver. Too bad Noble.

Just like "Old Man River" the Sprague-Parker romance goes on forever.

We're still wondering what it was that Helen Baker started to say in English class Tuesday morning.

There must be a very effective spy system in order at C. N. C. Its funny how some people can tell the exact time everyone else gets home.

If you don't like the scandal we use, you should read what we refuse.

It would seem that the reward for teaching some of the Sigma Lambda Pi's to dance is a bid to their fraternity dance.

Will wonders never cease? Someone saw Helen Baker sitting out a dance.

Irene Sutherlin and Kieth Bond really seem to have a bad case. Have you ever seen them together in the library?

The postman wants to know how letters from Pikeville and Walton got here so soon after the Conference.

We wonder if Lois Riddle ever found out if a mustache tickles.

Does Sherman Lomen realize the County Clerk's office hours are from 8:00 till 5:00. What is the attraction Sherman?

Can someone tell me why Wallace always is seated at the front table in the library every noon hour.

Please put contributions to the Keyhole in the mailbox in the library.

LOVE IN A GARDEN

Do you carrot all for me?

My heart beats for you
With your cherry lips,
and peach complexion Rash hair and turnip nose,
Eyes as blue as gentions.

My love is as strong as an onion,
And soft as a squash,
If we cantaloupe, lettuce marry.
Weed make a good pair.

The conscientious student finds that he frequently has difficulty in choosing the correct word. We as college students make every possible effort to improve our English. There are many books that will aid in our improvement. I shall mention only a few of them. Those mentioned are available in our College Library.

The Dictionary is one of the greatest books ever printed. The habit of using it to ascertain the exact meaning of words, should be formed by all students. Good choice of words is one of the distinguishing marks of a scholar.

The choice of Synonyms is also very important. Become acquainted with at least one of the following: Crabb: English Synonyms; Roget: Thesaurus of English Words and Synonyms; Hartrampf: Vocabulary.

There are several good books on the use of particular words in the Library. When in doubt consult one of them and thereafter

Fullback.

Williams and Wallace newcomers on the squad turned in a fine years preformance with many long runs resulting in touchdowns.

Fisher played a bang
up game at left end, while Lattimer, a former fullback, took up the responsibility of right tackle and handled the position to 100% efficiency.

Smith, veteran senior guard, filled the team with spirit and led the line in offense and defense.

Franklin, Senior center, finished the season with physical handicaps but gave a good account of himself the entire year.

Hendryx, Senior quarterback, took charge of things at the first of the year, running the team in a splendid manner as well as making some long runs himself.

Laramore, Senior reserve guard, put out his usual conscientious efforts to make the 1935 edition the best that Normal has had in years.

Morris, a Soph. held a regular guard position, playing a great game from whistle to whistle.

Martin, a now comer
on the squad, played left tackle the entire year with few gains
made through his territory.

Roudobush, a Soph.
end, learned football from the stump and gave a good account of himself in that position.

Jones, a Freshman,
who has never played football, showed great possibilities, and bids fair to take over the shoes of Albright next fall.

Ballard, a reserve
halfback, displayed his usual fight when injected into the game and could always be depended upon to turn it on.

Rogan, a Senior reserve tackle, throw his hat into the ring early in the season, and made himself into a reserve tackle who could be depended upon to hold up the wall of defense.

Pike, a Soph. center
relieved Franklin,
turning in a good game
and dropping in the backfield to do some spare kicking.

The fellows that are left to the squad show promises of making themselves into another veteran team. Much credit is due to the reserves for sticking out the entire season always threatening to replace one of the varsity. Central Normal can well feel proud of this bunch of boys, as they are gentlemen, scholars, and fighters to a man.

SIDELINES

The end of a very successful season with a record of three wins
one loss, and three ties. Congratulations Warriors!

From all reports
Lattimer must have
