WARRIORS WILL FACE THE CARDINALS TOMORROW

Last Game of Season

The Warriors accompanied by the Central Normal College Band will go to Muncie tomorrow where they will meet the Ball State Cardinals in their last game for this season.

The Warriors are determined to complete their season Saturday with a win over the Ball State team. For the first time in three weeks, the squad may have full strength if injuries sustained by Redling, Balcerzak and Jackson continue to improve.

The band will go in full force to furnish encouragement and pep to the Warriors in an attempt to give them all the support possible.

JONES AND HUSTON WILL GO TO CONFERENCE

Miss Catherine Jones and Miss Mary Alice Huston will represent Central Normal College at the annual Teacher Training Conference to be held at DePauw University, Greencastle, Indiana on Friday and Saturday November 14 and 15. They will participate in the panel discussion for the sectional meetings of the Intermediate Grade and Foreign Language groups respectively. These discussions will be led by Mr. Ira Barker of the Danville Public school and Mrs. Edith Reese of Avon High School. Other sectional meetings will be led by critic teachers and student teachers from other teacher training institutions in the state. Mrs. Daisy M. Jones will attend the state meeting of Directors and Supervisors of student teaching in connection with this annual meeting.

EVENING CLASSES TO BE OFFERED

This evening at 7:00 in Science Hall, Mr. Jake Hannon of Purdue University will enroll those who are interested in defense training classes, which are being opened and directed at Danville at C.N.C.
(Cont. on p. 6)

KAPPA PI BETA WILL INITIATE

Banquet Will Begin at 6:30

Rose Marie Adams as toastmistress will call Kappa Pi Beta members, neophytes and guests to the eighth annual banquet at 6:30 tomorrow evening.

After the banquet active and honorary members will be initiated. The active members who will be initiated are: Ellen Humphreys, Marjorie Merrilees, Marie Detmer, and Joseph Merk. All the sponsors of papers which were judged outstanding in the rating by the National Duplicated Paper Association last year were elected to honorary membership and will be initiated either in person or by proxy.

The committee in charge of initiation consists of: Sage, Rose Marie Adams; Inner Guard, Randolph McClung; Grand Conductress, Betty Dove; Keeper of Archives, June Downen; Secretary, Catherine Jones; and Treasurer, Everett Green.

CENTRALIAN PAGES GO TO PRESS

All records have been broken by the Centralian Staff this year in an attempt to meet a large discount date of November 15. The representative of the Indianapolis Engraving Co. was in Danville Sunday afternoon and Editor Helen Smith sent back several pages ready to be made.

Others will be sent in before the final date. The printer has been secured and the staff is working to produce the best annual yet for Central Normal College.

The advertising staff promise unique methods of advertising which will be

SPECIAL ORCHESTRA WILL PLAY TONIGHT

Tarpy Thatcher's ten piece orchestra will play their only Mixer engagement of the year tonight. He has offered to play this engagement in order to give organizations an opportunity to know his orchestra.
Everyone is invited.

NDPA CONFERENCE DRAWS LARGE GROUP

Lambert, Mississippi, Farthest Delegates Reported

Miss Sarah Jane Lindsay, sponsor of The Lambert Flash of Lambert, Mississippi and the editor of that paper, will probably claim the honor of coming the farthest distance of any staff although registrations are in from delegates in Ohio and Illinois as well as Indiana.

The program will open at 8:00 when Paul Ritchie and Rose Marie Adams will start with registration.

Clinics will be held during the first two hours and at 10:00 all will gather for the general meeting from 10 to 12.

The Albaso Trio, accompanied by Wendell Mann, will open the general meeting and President Hunt will welcome the group. John E. Stempel, head of the journalism department, Miss Ruth K. Wyse of Pottsville, Ohio, and Homer Smith of Arsenal Technical High School of Indianapolis will be the speakers for the general meeting.

At 12:15 the group will assemble for the luncheon at which Randolph McClung, editor of the Crier, will be toastmaster. Dusty Miller, philosopher, lecturer, and humorist, will be the speaker. Dean R. L. Green, accompanied by Elizabeth Valentine, will lead in group songs.

During the afternoon the group will be divided from 1:30 to 2:15 according to type of publication and from 2:15 to 3:15 according to staff position.

At 3:30 the orchestra will start playing in the Grid Room for the Tea Dance.

HEAR DR. BARTLETT

Dr. Edward Bartlett who is Dean of the College of Religion at DePauw University will speak at the Student Christian Association on "Life to Match This Hour."

Dr. Bartlett is an outstanding speaker and one of the leaders in religious and civil thought in the state.

IT'S UP TO YOU

Take a personal invoice. Are you making use of your opportunities and getting the best out of life? Ask yourself, "Are my character traits up to par? Am I well liked?" To be fair to yourself the answer should be 'yes'. If you are undesirable, others can avoid you; but you can't get away from yourself. Every person is most interested in himself. We should do a little exploring to see how much personality wealth we have and how valuable it is to us. Do not all of us take too much for granted? Our health is often considered as a matter of course--yet it is far more valuable than gold. Develop your personality and be an asset to the world. No one else can do it for you; it is squarely up to you. --Received by N.D.P.A. and taken from The Echo of Plymouth, Iowa.

DOES YOUR MIND BETRAY YOU?

"Language is the dress of thought; every time you speak, your mind is on parade."

Have you noticed the poster, MIND ON PARADE, while gazing around during English class? If you concentrate on it, you will find more than pink words on white card board.

Every time one utters a sentence, people have a view of what occupies the space under his hat. If one would only stop to think that he is judged by the things he says, he would be careful never to lower his speech standards.

Is your parade one that everyone enjoys watching? --Received by N.D.P.A. and taken from THE MARIAN of Sterling, Illinois.

DO YOU TAKE ADVANTAGE OF YOUR CHANCES?

While some people wait for an opportunity to be made for them, there are a few people who make their own opportunities. The people who come under the latter group are the ones you will find at the top of the ladder. Why not make your own opportunity, and succeed?

EXCERPTS FROM A FRESHMAN'S DIARY

Monday Dear Diary--Well, it's raining out today. Mother sent me some money to buy some overshoes with. I thought I'd save some money and so I bought some second-handed composition books with the money. Nancy says she won't buy them because they aren't used any more. I have no overshoes now! Well, I didn't want to wear them anyway. (Incidentally, I got my feet wet). I got a letter from home. Dad has decided he will think seriously about the Tax.

Tuesday Made my 7 o'clock class o.k. I think I'm catching cold from getting my feet wet. We had a test today in composition. Gee, I bet I didn't make anything.

Wednesday I hear I flunked the test I had yesterday. Oh darn it, anyway. Composition teacher wouldn't approve of "darn", I bet. I got another letter from home. Dad says he's sending money for a Tax. I'm sure glad! Christina was in the library tonight. I almost stopped at her table to study, but I lost my nerve on the "last stop."

Thursday Cut my 7 o'clock. I feel awful. My room-mate says I'd better go to the doctor, but I don't think I will. She couldn't do anything for it, anyhow. I didn't even see Christina at all today. Disappointing fact!!

Friday Roommate made me go to see Dr. Morgan today. My knees knocked! Maybe she isn't so dumb--anyway, and I feel a lot better. Wish I was going home today. No! I won't get homesick!

Saturday Oh diary! I saw Christina up town today and we were in the "10¢" store and were both waiting to be waited on. Well, we had to talk. I asked her for a date for tonight! What's more, diary, she accepted!

P.S. After the date! Successful?
 Answer: Yes. Oh-h-h! Diary!!!

Sunday Went to Church. Christina was there and she spoke to me. I ate dinner up town, but she wasn't in Housman's when I was. Snucks!

Be seeing you!

HOSTS AND HOSTS ES

For the luncheon tomorrow noon are: Catherine Jones, Marjorie Merrilees, Viola Williamson, Earl Conner, Earl Hudson, Brack Schenk, Rose Marie Adams, Helen Smith, and Paul Ritchie, Members of Crier Staff.

Seniors who are interested in taking the National Examinations in order to qualify for superior positions in the teaching field may get further information by consulting Dr. Hightower.

These examinations are held annually. They may be taken in Gary Indiana. The first day for submitting applications is Saturday, November 9, 1941. This should be of interest to college and university students who are preparing to be teachers and who are seeking positions here or elsewhere.

ALPHA MU FRATERNITY IS

The Alpha Mu Fraternity was winner of the annual S.C.A. stunt night last Tuesday evening. Second Place went to the Psi Chi Sorority and third place to the Band. A placque will be awarded to the winner at chapel sometime in the near future.

The speaker for S.C.A. on Tuesday, November 11, will be Dean Edward Bartlett of DePauw. He will speak on "Life To Hatch This Hour" plus brief forum. This meeting will be held in the reception room at 7:15.

ARMISTICE DAY PROGRAM AT CONVOCATION

Plans are being made to make the convocation program next Tuesday one which will honor Armistice Day since Tuesday is November 11, according to an announcement by Dr. Edwin Barlow Evans, who is chairman of the Convocation Com.

ALPHA THETA EPSILON

The problem: Three young men each had a sign pinned on his back, which had either a circle or a cross upon it. The first one to determine correctly what he had on his back was to receive the only "A" in the class. Each was to knock on the desk when he saw the first cross.

Solution: The winner saw two crosses. He knew that B and C had each seen a cross. If A had had a circle on his back, B or C would have known that they had a cross, and hence would have reported, but since they did not report, they were undecided and hence A had a cross.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

The Alpha Theta Epsilon Sorority announces the engagement of one of its members, Liss Ruth Hunter, to Mr. C. Chester Whitted of Bedford, Indiana.

A meeting of the Centralian Advertising Committee will be held Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. in Room 1 of Science Hall.

ALPHA MU KAPPA ENDS FIRST WEEK OF INITIATION

A.M.K. members and pledges enjoyed good sport at the meeting Monday evening in Room 1. The pledges performed several duties quite accurately and "took the wood" like regular fellows. A story was read to the members and pledges which proved amusing to all, particularly Frank Meltzer and Zane McCoskey. The pledges all had very lovely escorts home from the meeting. On Tuesday evening the Alpha Mu Kappa and pledges performed an operation to win first prize at Stunt Night.

PSI CHI OMEGA INITIATE HONORARY MEMBERS

The Psi Chi Omega Sorority held Services at 6:30 at the House for their new honorary members, Mrs. Elder, Mrs. Miller, and Dr. Morgan. The sorority wishes to welcome these new members. At 6:45, pledge service was held for Margaret Winklepleck. Cookies and cider were served as refreshments. The Psi Chi's held their meeting at 7:00. Plans for the dance are being carried out.

A special pledge meeting was called Monday noon and certain duties were assigned them.

ZETA SIGS COMPLETE DANCE PLANS

The Zeta Sigs completed the plans for their dance to be held on Nov. 29 at the meeting last Tuesday night. Three committees were appointed, namely: decorations: R. Forsythe, G. Wiley, and B. West; Tickets: B. Falls, R. Burton, and F. Richards; orchestra: B. Dollens, J. Fox, and E. Bywaters. Philip Martin was nominated to the post of pledge manager while "Bud" Conrad was elected by his fellow pledges to be their pledge captain.

During the course of the evening, pledges were searching the town for articles such as: mousetraps, flies, cockroaches, and other articles too numerous to mention. Big brothers were assigned to those lowly pledges and they now have their shoes shined. Pictures were taken of the proceedings to be placed in the Zeta Sigma scrap book, so when these pledges become alumni, they can return and live those enjoyable instances over again.

There has been some comment around school that Zeta Sigma is tough. They admit that they are tough but whoever heard of anyone being ushered into a fraternity with kid gloves. They may be a little too tough, but their national council insists that they work out those who are weak.

ALPHA THETA EPSILON CHILI SUPPER

The Alpha Theta Epsilon Sorority met in Room 5 at 7:30 Monday evening. The President appointed the following committees for the chili supper November 26. Ticket committee-- Betty Meyers and Loraine Deere; Decorating--Nellie McVay, Catherine Jones, Patty Summers, Harriet Baughn, Virginia Ashton, Virginia Wilson, and Beulah Woolsey, Chairman; Entertainment--Lenore McCannack, Jane Cones, and Helen Dalton; Good--Margaret Matthews, Chairman Catherine Robinson, Laura Susdorf, Juanita Ruck, Rose Marie Adams, Betty Kyburz, Martha Rudolph, Ruth Hunter, Eleanor West, Louise Davis, and Virginia Ashton.

Robert Reynolds and his orchestra from Terre Haute will furnish the music for the Alpha Theta-Delta Sigma dance December 5. The sororities voted the dance to be open.

CALTRIGONIAN CIRCLE

The Caltrigonian Circle will meet in Room 1 of the Science Hall Wednesday Evening. At this meeting the various proofs of the Pythagorean Theory will be given by Richard Evans, Ivan Blung, Richard Tanselle, and Robert Lynam.

Special Notice for Boys: Emilie Domsic has moved in the Psi Chi House so rapid progress is anticipated. For further notice see Emilie Domsic.

We discovered a certain little quotation on the wall of the Coffee Cup: Quote, "Melancholy" and above it were the names of Frieda Pope and Tom Isaacs. Tender, wasn't it, or is it?

So Jennie Bush thinks she has Peaches sewed up, eh?

It sure is tough that Bob Shaw is quarantined. Better watch out, Shaw on Sadie Hawkins day, for we hear that a certain girl is taking track lessons to trip you. (May we suggest that it might be M.M.?)

Who is that girl supposedly engaged that Earl Davis has been seen with quite a few times? Careful, Earl. Murder is committed for less than this.

The love bug has surely bitten Noel King. Anyway he seems to like to study at the library more than usual, and especially if Marjorie McNamara is there

HOT!

We have been wondering where Earl Bywaters' frat pin was. Now we know! It is being worn by Helen Parker.

What is this we hear about a case between Matthews and Burgess?

The COFFEE After the Party-Drop In CUP

Just why did Phyllis Stewart move to the Psi Chi House? Was it because she really wanted to be near her sorority sisters or does she have a crush on the front sofa???

Just what does this "No, no, no" business mean that the Housman Gang is yelling at a couple of co-eds? Why don't you let the rest of the campus in on your little secret?

Louise Ballinger walked Joe Burgess home Monday night, but she wouldn't let him walk her home. Why?

Also in that business of walking people home was Mary Alice Miller, who walked Kenny Jordan (and heaven knows how many more) home from fraternity meeting. This is very bad, because Lenny is Brack's little brother, and that might lead to further complications.

Ellen Humphreys was really worried the other day when she thought that the letter from that Georgia guy had been steamed open.

Carl Stewart and Charles Scudder have both forsaken Ellen Humphreys, Carl now devoting his attentions to Pat Summers and Charles to Harriet Baughn. Too bad, Ellen.

Is Garten really as interested in Snyder's weekly life as she seems to be?

Why did Esther Patton have one of those Hangovers Thursday morning???

There's some question as to whether M. Winklepleck went to Indianapolis to see her aunt or the one-and-only.

Richard Tanselle has finally got a female admirer. We won't mention her name here because they are both very bashful. Now all we need is a sweetie for Otto Byers.

So long till next week. Ye ed.

Evansville 15 CNC 7

Last Saturday the Purple Warriors lost their fourth game of the season to Evansville College.

The field was wet and slippery and both teams had to play conservative ball the whole game, neither team was able to break lose and really play fast ball.

In the first half of the game the Evansville eleven forced the Warriors to give a pair of touchdowns, but were unable to kick but one of the extra points.

In the last quarter the Warriors took to the air and went over the line for a touchdown but failed in the try for the extra point.

Next Saturday, the Warriors travel to Ball State for their last game of the season. Ball State is in the upper bracket in the conference so the Warriors are expecting tough competition.

A few of the boys are on the crippled list but most of them will be able to play.

The probable line up for Ball State and CNC follows:

Bibler	E.	Falls
Baldwin	E.	Pilarski
Noel	T.	Younger
Cole	T.	Bailey
Froidt	G.	Warren
Miller	G.	Isaacs
Langas	C.	Markowich

W. A. A. ELECTS OFFICERS

The Women's Athletic Association met Thursday night at 7:00 to elect officers for the coming year and to initiate several new members.

Mary Catherine Dinsmore was elected President; Anne Yacuk, vice president; Eudora Ellis, Secretary-treasurer; Opal Williamson, point captain; and Virginia Wilson, Crier reporter.

New members who were initiated were Maxine Cole, Mary Alice Miller, Mary Byers, Virginia Wilson, Cosette Nichols, Florence Fasbinder, and Maxie Simerly.

The organization wishes to invite all girls interested in any type of athletics to join them. The gymnasium will be opened each Thursday night at 7:00 and the business meeting will be held at 7:30.

GRAD BRINGS STAFF BACK

Peggy McCoun, 1941 brought back members of the staff of the school paper of Zionsville last night to see the methods used in publishing the Crier.

Those who accompanied her were: Jean Brian, Patty Gault, Freda Quick, Hilda Shelburne, Dorothy Askron, Howard Holstead, George Lohman, Henry Hodver, and Meredith Turley.

ADVERTISING COMMITTEE FOR CENTRALIAN ANNOUNCED

Editor Helen Smith and Business Manager Meredith Payne have announced the following advertising staff: Louise Davis, Thad Cramer, Kenneth Kickerson, Bob Downey, Francis Goodnight, Betty Dove, Roberta Walter, Earl Conner, Mary Alice Houston, Max Johnson, Catherine Jones, Noel King, Randolph McClung, Edward Pilarski, William Hatliff, Lloyd Shroyer, Mary Steinman Arthur Wells, and Viola Williamson

MUSIC

MUSIC NEWS

The Band took their first trip last Saturday, when they went to Brazil. This Saturday they are going to march at Ball State. Next Monday night, they are going to play a concert in Chapel Hall at the American Legion Program for Armistice Day.

The representatives of the band, Glenn King, Marion McGhehey, Frank Meltzer, and Wendell Mann, took third place at the S.C.A. Stunt Night last Tuesday. The Boy's Chorus also put on a skit for Stunt Night.

Miss Gaston attended a meeting of the Mu Phi Epsilon, an honorary musical sorority, Tuesday night.

The Girl's Sextette sang at the Clayton Parent-Teacher Association Thursday night.

Anita Breitweiser is going to sing at the Christian Church Sunday. Mrs. Wilson will accompany her on the violin, and Mrs. Miles at the organ.

Wedding bells!!! Wedding bells!!! A former member of the Music Department, Lillian Anderson is being married Friday evening. Miss Gaston is furnishing the "necessary" music.

The Music Department is afraid that it is going to lose another member of the Department next term. Glenn King hears Uncle Sam calling.

A.W.S COUNCIL MEMBERS ELECTED

At the meeting of the Association of Women Students Tuesday morning the Juniors and Seniors elected council members. The Juniors elected Opal Williamson and Laura Ruschhaupt and the Seniors elected Bertha Ellen Christie and Helen Smith. Other members of the council are: Ellen Humphreys, Freshman and Rose Marie Adams, Sophomore.

MISS HENDRICKS SPEAKS TO ART CLUB

At the November meeting of the Art Club, held Wednesday night at the Hill-top Tea Room, Miss Stella Hendricks instructed the group in the drawing of objects from nature. The talk was illustrated by means of original works by Miss Hendricks, and with a series of drawings and color prints.

Immediately preceding the discussion an informal photograph of the group was taken by the Centralian photographer.

Those in attendance were: Mary Esther Martin, Helen Smith, Lenore McCammack, John Long, Cecil Havens, Wayne Campbell, Kenneth Sutherland, James Wilson, and guests, Dr. Whitney and Miss Hendricks.

COLLEGE MEDLEY

INDIANA DAILY STUDENT

"Ef she kin ketch a man, he's hern". That is the theme of the annual Sadie Hawkins day celebrations all over the country. Although the day is usually set for Nov. 8, it will be celebrated one day early on the campus this year in order not to conflict with the expected exodus to the Northwestern-Indiana game.

THE ELMHURST ADVANCE

The latest craze brought to Elmhurst in the line of confections is the Cho-Cho a delicious malted milk bar coated with chocolate. The wrappers on the bars may be sent to the company and with a certain number, prizes are obtained.

DELTA SIGS INITIATE SUNDAY

The Delta Sigma Kappa sorority met in the Reception Room at noon Sunday for a formal luncheon inspection and initiation following.

Mrs. Dorothy Darrance, the Delta Sigma Kappa National Supreme President was the honored guest for the occasion. She was presented with a corsage of the sorority colors. Formal initiation was given for Miss Lois Blair of Danville, Josephine May of Ellettsville, and Ila Hahn of Winamac, an off-campus member. The reception room was decorated with flowers and candles for the formal atmosphere effect.

In the afternoon a business session was held in which all reports of the proceedings of our sorority were inspected by Mrs. Darrance. The sorority was congratulated for its accomplishments thus far in the term. A Christmas luncheon was planned for the 7th of December at the home of Alice Markland, of Avon. Plans were further made for the Delta Sigma Alpha Theta dance for the 5th of December. Ending the meeting Mrs. Darrance asked for more good work and a greater attendance as a goal for all present.
