 1972

James William Walls

Only son of Moses Walls and Mary Polly Parks

The Walls are of Irish descent.

Moses and his brother James and sisters Susan, Polly Ann and Nancy emigrated from Wilks County, North Carolina to Hendricks County, Indiana in the early part of the nineteenth century.

Moses died on his farm near Pittsboro when his son James was a small child. The Mother then moved to Vermillion County, Ill. where she reared her large family of girls and one boy.

It was in Illinois that James wed Sophronia Ann Butler and to this union were born five children, two of whom died in infancy. The Mother died when Van Shelburn was about two years old. John, the second son, was taken by a family who later moved to Kansas. There John lived until he was about Twenty years of age when he again joined the family circle.

James second wife was Cynthia Ann Bloomfield and to this were born five children, two of whom died in infancy. The Mother died when David Thomas was a Small baby.

James third wife was Eliza Ann <sup>ELKINS</sup> Kefauver and to this union also were born five children all of whom died in infancy. By a former marriage Eliza Ann had two children --- Francis Mari<sub>o</sub> w and Mollie Mae.

In 1883 James moved his family from Illinois to Indiana and spent the remainder of his life in that state residing near Indianapolis.

James was born July 25, 1848 and died of Smallpox July 4, 1917.

From that time until her death October 10, 1928 Eliza Ann made her home with her daughter, Mollie.
