Hendricks County welcomes President

"Driving out to Danville, I felt like I was coming home. The countryside and neat homes reminded me of when I was growing up in Illinois," said President Ronald W. Reagan when he addressed a select group of county residents and area officials in the rotunda of the Hendricks County Courthouse Monday morning.

Certainly, the welcome for the President had all the trappings and sentimentality of a homecoming. People started arriving on the square and East Main Street shortly after 7 a.m. to stake out their spot for watching the President's arrival and departure.

By 8:30 a.m., the special guests began arriving and congregated on the north side of the courthouse to await their being checked off the list for entry to the rotunda. By 9:30, most of the special guests were inside, and got the word from the Secret Service about 10:15 that the President was on his way. The waiting time alternated between a high level of conversation to total silence when it seemed something was about to happen.

The people took their cue from the Secret Service personnel that dominated the outside of the rotunda. As their pace quickened, the crowd sensed the President was getting closer to Danville. About 25 vehicles were in the motorcade that sped out from the airport, with US 36 closed from I-465 to Danville as the Presidential motorcade headed toward Hendricks County.

Silence again prevailed about 10:45 a.m. as those who attended the closed session with the President came down to take their seats in the rotunda. A few moments later came the announcement:

"Ladies and Gentlemen, the President of the United States." President Reagan and Governor Orr entered the rotunda from the southeast corner to a standing and prolonged ovation, which stopped only long enough for Commissioner Herschel Gentry Jr. to introduce the President. In the closed meeting earlier, Commissioner Dick Himself

Sick jokester

Less than 30 minutes after the President left Danville, two "suspicious" objects were found, one on the north side of Mardell's on the corner of the square, and another in the alley between Mid State Bank and Taylor and Taylor.

The alley is across the street from where the President arrived and departed. A tent had been erected on the west side of the courthouse to the street, with another tent in the street, into which the President's car had arrived and remained parked while the President was in the courthouse.

Bomb disposal personnel were called and employees in the bank and adjoining building were evacuated.

The object in the alley was determined to be a box of chocolate candy, while the object next to Mardell's was taken to the high school parking lot where it was determined that it was a Coke can, containing a watch, and an antenna, all wrapped in tape.

Attached was a message, "You're doing a good job." Signed M. Poindexter.

TODD LICKLITER, Danville High School's new varsity basketball coach, outlined his program for members of the Danville Rotary Club as its noon luncheon last Thursday. Prior to coming to Danville, the 32-year-old coach was at

Town awards water loop contract

Construction of the new water main loop at the east end of town is expected to begin within the next two weeks, following the awarding of a contract by Danville Town Board at its July 6 meeting.

Frash Earth Work was the successful and low bidder, with a quote of $151,747, more than $50,000 below the engineer's estimate. Next low bidder was Eagle Valley with a quote of some $160,000.

Owners and operators of semi tractor trailer trucks and vehicles in excess of 11,000 lbs. will be prohibited from parking in residential areas as result of an Ordinance passed by the Board Monday night. The ordinance targets the large trucks, and includes provision that prohibits motors running for longer than 15 minutes. Delivery and utility vehicles are exempted. Violators may be fined up to $100, and ordered to pay tow-in charges if applicable.

In other business, the Board approved a petition to rezone property, just east of the Marathon Station on East Main Street on the south side of US 36, to General Business. Lee Comer represented Bob and Sharon Huse who plan to operate an automotive parts business on the site. Construction of the building should start within the next two weeks.

Terry Hiatt of the Danville Jaycees asked and was given permission for the organization to sponsor the annual Swap and Shot Days Oct. 10-11. Also approved was a petition for a street light near the cul-de-sac on Raintree Drive. John Atto said all residents in the immediate area favored a street light.

Park Commissioner Loris Thompson reported the swimming pool had its best June in its history, average 224 swimmers per day, and generating almost $12,000 in revenue. He said the pool was closed only 3 days in the first 32 days of the current swimming season.

Guido Borgnini, town engineer for HNTB, reported that Division II of the sewer rehabilitation project was 100 percent complete and that all paperwork and payment should be taken care of at the Board's August meeting. The Board also accepted more of the new equipment at the expanded wastewater treatment plant, which is "on time" and scheduled for completion in November.

Borgnini also called attention to blanks that need to be filled in on the town's sewer use ordinance, regarding fees and other numbers which had been omitted earlier. The complete ordinance, prepared by H.J. Umbaugh, will be ready for the Board at its Aug. meeting.

Police Jim Bennett reported the number of complaints being received has increased significantly since the town started operating its own dispatch 24-hours a day. The Chief said the department is getting the calls they should be getting, and that the public is more aware they can call local police. Chief Bennett urged residents to "let us know of suspected illegal activity; you don't have to give your name," so we can check it out.

Town Board President Norman Guiley announced the recent ISO concert would show a profit, despite having to be moved from the park to the high school gym. Guiley also announced that State Treasurer Marjorie O'Laughlin will be attending the Struttin' in the Park concert at Ellis Park July 18 to present Celebration '88 sign to the town. An architects drawing of the stage and the proposed roof will be available for the public to see at this concert. Completion of the amphitheater at the park is the community's Celebration '88 project.

Town Manager Gary Eakin said the new street lights at the intersection of US 36 and East Main Street at the east edge of town should be up within two or three weeks. The project has been delayed because of changes in plans by the State Highway Department, and obtaining the break-away poles required.

Eakin also said the Town plans to take care of all property owners who requested new sidewalks this past year. Repairs on the town's warning sirens will cost an estimated $3,000, according to Eakin, while a new siren would cost $12,000-$13,000.

It started a week ago Monday with an announcement that Danville "likely" to be on the President's itinerary when he came to Indianapolis to address the delegates of the National Association of Counties convention. Monday was a holiday and the courthouse was closed, but county officials and members of the Presidential advance team were on the job to begin plans for the President's visit to Hendricks County.

Although visible signs of preparations, so far as the public was concerned, didn't show up until Thursday or Friday, a lot of behind-the-scenes preparations were underway.

The three County Commissioners were the designated "local" contact for the President's visit, and to them fell the task of deciding who would be among the 75-100 invited to

CHIROPRACTIC OUTLOOK

By Dr. Shawn R. Benzinger

WHAT TYPE OF SPRAIN?

Many people are confused by the terms "first-degree" or "second-degree" sprain. Sprains are categorized by the degree of injury. In a first-degree sprain, a ligament has been stretched but not torn. The joint may be slightly swollen and tender. A second-degree sprain occurs when a ligament is partially torn, and the area is moderately swollen, tender, and often bruised. With a third-degree sprain, the ligaments are completely torn, with a great deal of swelling, tenderness, and bruising.

It's helpful to have your chiropractor take a look at the sprain, even if it seems to be a mild one. Some first-degree sprains need to be strapped or splinted. With second-degree sprains, it becomes increasingly likely that you'll need to immobilize the joint. A third-degree sprain must be rigidly immobilized with a cast or bandage until it heals.

PAST AND FUTURE concerns of the Indiana General Assembly were discussed by State Representative Sam Turpin at a Town Meeting in the Hendricks County REMC last Wednesday evening. The small turn-out heard Turpin review his areas of concern during the past session of the ## Council to review '88 budgets

Budget matters were the primary topic for the Hendricks County Council last week as plans for budget hearings were finalized. The Council will consider the 1988 proposed budgets of the various county offices and departments Aug. 24, 25, and 26, with finalization Aug. 31, Sept. 1 and 2.

A letter from Cummins Mental Health Board asked the Council to consider including $425,000 in the budget, as the 25 percent local share of the new community health center, recently funded by the State.

County Assessor Lydia Gibbs asked the Council about the per diem rate for Township Assessors and Trustees during the reassessment program. The Council approved a $25 per diem for a minimum of 4 hours, with a maximum of 20 per diem days. The assessors and trustees will be checking and to verify work of the contract assessing firm.

The Council deferred action on a request to create a County Aviation Commission by asking for a study of the appropriate statutes and to report on the definitions. Rick Myers moved that Gary Wood be retained to review the statutes.

The Council denied the request from the Prosecutor's office for a full-time employee for the 4-H program. It was suggested the request be a part of the office's 1988 budget.

Also denied was a request from Probation Director Steve Schmalz, who wanted to buy a personal computer for $2500, using Probation User fees. Action on the matter failed by a vote of 3-2.

Hi, I'm Dr. Steven C. Mangas, Doctor of Chiropractic. Perhaps gentleness in chiropractic is a new concept to you. It was to me before I began six years of college training necessary for my doctorate degree. During those years I

Thanks, Mr. President

President Reagan's visit to Hendricks County Monday evoked some mixed emotions, however, we should consider it an honor to have this nation's President, any President, spend some time on our home turf.

Why was Danville selected for a visit? Perhaps it just came to the top of a list of potential sites for the President's "town-hall-type" meeting with local officials.

In one sense, the President's visit to the courthouse was not a "public" appearance. Sure, those who lined the street for the passing of the motorcade, got a glimpse of the Man from the White House, they didn't get an opportunity to see him "up close and in person" as they say on the tube.

Another factor overlooked by some is that the President's visit is controlled by the Secret Service, not local officials. Our County Commissioners and others were involved in the planning and arrangements, but the advance people from the White House had "line veto powers," to nix or approve any suggestion that went beyond the proscribed procedure and protocol.

One of the most difficult tasks that faced the County Commissioners was that of providing the list of some 75 to 100 people who would be invited to hear and see the president in the courthouse rotunda. Within the scope of the purpose of the President's visit, would you have wanted to make out the list?

No doubt, President Reagan took advantage of an opportunity to promote his Economic Bill of Rights. We can only hope the President listened to the words of concern expressed by local officials.

History was made and recorded in Hendricks County Monday, July 13 - a day that will be remembered by many who will tell their grandchildren about the day the President of the United States visited their county and home town.

Thanks, for the memories, Mr. President.

It's your Fair, too

Entertainment and special events may grab the spotlight, but it's Hendricks County's 4-H'ers and their projects who are the real stars of the annual 4-H Fair, scheduled to open Friday and continue through the following Friday, July 24.

The annual Fair provides a showcase for the hard work and accomplishments of our county's youth, who are involved in the 4-H program that develops contributing citizens of the future. Be it a bull or a beehive, an apron or a cookie, a bug or a pin or a finely-stitched gown, the various projects of our 4-H'ers will be on display during the Fair. The variety of projects, and the versatility of these young people provide assurance for those who are concerned about the future.

Some 4-H purists are concerned that too much attention is being devoted to the entertainment and special events during the Fair, at the expense of the 4-H program.

They feel that it is a "4-H Fair" and not a "County Fair," by design, if not in fact.

The Fair Board is faced with the dilemma of promoting the 4-H program by including special events that will attract more people to the Fair. There's a good chance that some first-timers will show up if they are drawn by the entertainment, whereas, the animals and various projects are not deemed worthy of their attention and time.

If you've never been to the Hendricks County 4-H Fair, this coming week offers you opportunity to learn more about 4-H while joining in the fun at the fairgrounds.

Hendricks County residents can take pride in our 4-H'ers and the annual Fair, which is the first step for our youth to take toward competing at the Indiana State Fair next month.

Take your own step, and visit the fairgrounds July 17-24 - it's your Fair, too.

Our country-our future: Contribution of the Framers of Our Constitution

EDITOR'S NOTE: The following remarks were delivered by Hendricks Circuit Court Judge Jeffrey V. Boles on the courthouse square in Danville to commemorate the July 4 Holiday and the 200th year of our Constitution.

On this day, 200 years ago, the summer heat raged in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. The Constitutional Convention had adjourned for July 3rd and 4th, so that the Delegates could go and try to find a cool place to relax. From May to September there were only five days of cool weather. In the searing heat of a Philadelphia summer, the great experiment of power in the people was born. Fourth of July Celebrations were in their infancy. Philadelphia sweated and celebrated.

200 Years Ago
The infant states of the Confederacy found themselves facing a crisis of confusion on the brink of failure. Farmers in Massachusetts had been in open rebellion because the State had not paid its war debts and money speculators were getting rich. A depression gripped the Country. Debtors were sent to jail. In only 11 years, the population of the Country had nearly doubled. There was no power to raise badly needed money for public works. Spain was raiding Florida and Georgia. Nine states had their own navies. All States negotiated their own foreign policy. One-half of the states printed their own money. There was no Court to decide disputes between states. The States could not defend themselves. You could not navigate the common waters of our land.

No Country in the World had ever had an executive chosen by and responsive to the needs of the people.

The Call Went Out

The call went out to meet in Philadelphia, beginning May 14th, 1787, and save a slipping nation. One clear intent of the Fifty-Five Fathers of our Constitution was that each generation of Americans should pursue its destiny as free men. Only The Brave Are Free

The greatest statesmen ever assembled met to fix the destiny of a free people. Gouverneur Morris wrote "We the people of

Battin' the Breeze with bob pearcy

GRANDPA GRIT always says: "When politics dictates to government the tail is wagging the dog."

FROM THE BOBservation Post at 1351 on the 18th day, there's a blue sky with some white and off-white clouds and 80 humid and climbing degrees...A light breeze shaking hands with the leaves...Lemmie on his post to wave at the early walkers...The row of Old Glory on Main sure looks good...An in-and-out crowd attending the July 4th celebration on the square...And no more holidays until Labor Day...The long, hot summer...A better day for swimming than mowing...Still a dandy day out there.

AS WORD OF THE President's pending visit to Danville spread, the pace quickened last week. The courthouse became a beehive of buzzing as more and more details of the President's visit became known. Because this week's issue was basically wrapped-up, personal comments and observations about President Reagan's visit to the Hendricks County Seat and my hometown will have to wait until next week.

A STRANGER IN TOWN on July 3, might have thought the Town was trying to paint the street with the patriotic colors of red, white and blue, especially since there were a lot of white stripes. I don't know if it was the mix, or what, but the white paint used to mark the parking lanes and crosswalks just didn't dry on schedule. What the cars didn't track, people did. Courthouse custodians frantically posted signs and put down heavy paper at the entrances to catch the paint tracked in by employees. The corner of Main and Washington really had more than its quota of white paint, transplanted by tires.

BEFORE JUDGE JEFF BOLES started his speech at Danville's Old Fashioned Fourth, he commented that the master of ceremonies, Rev. John Roof of the Episcopal Church, had assured him that it wouldn't rain until after he finished his speech. We don't know who did what, but about 5-10 minutes after the Judge concluded his remarks, some drops of rain started falling.

TELEVISION COMMERCIALS really do perform a useful purpose. After all, when you have loose false teeth, a commercial tells you what to use; if your stomach is growling, you can find out how to growl back and get relief, and when it comes to pain, you really have a wide variety from which to choose a pain-killer. What is really scary is the fact that there are commercials for so many aches and pains you haven't had yet. Think about it...do they know something we don't?

IRT PATRONS can look forward to another exciting season on stage, starting with "Inherit The Wind," Oct. 21-Nov. 14. Based on the historic Monkey Trials in 1925, two lawyers go at it in this drama. During the cold days of winter, "Frankenstein" will open Dec. 2 and remain for the holidays until Dec. 27. Things heat up Jan. 6 when "A Streetcar Named Desire" opens for a run until Jan. 30. "The Cocktail Party" will be on stage Feb. 10-March 5, followed by "The Misanthrope." Moliere's satire March 16-April 10. Closing out the season will be Moss Hart's "Light Up The Sky," April 20-May 14.

A PAT-ON-THE-BACK for Circuit Court Judge Jeff Boles in tossing out the case of an inmate who sued the Department of Corrections for not giving him good time credit on his sentence. The Judge said the case was baseless and frivolous and ordered Jeffrey Watson, who served as his own attorney, to pay the DOC $750 for attorney fees and court costs of $600. It's a known fact that a lot of frivolous cases get too far and cost the taxpayers too much money, and shouldn't have been accepted in the first place. Chalk one up for Judge Boles.

IS THIS COUNTRY'S national pastime becoming fighting or is it still baseball...or should we rename it baseball? The Cubs and Padres really had a slugfest last week. Before the game ended, five players hit the showers early. The action started in the third when a Cub batter got a ball-in-the-face pitch to empty both benches. The Cubs lost two pitchers in later action when the ball was on the wrong side of the plate, and in one case, the batter. Take me out to the brawlgame....

GETTING GEARED UP for President's Reagan's visit to Danville revived memories of early Presidential visits to our area. I can remember standing with the press corps behind a snowfence at the airport and almost freezing before President Nixon landed in Air Force One. By the time he shook all of our hands, they were too cold to give much response.

THE FASCINATING PART of a Presidential visit is the groundwork and detail that is involved. Nothing is left to chance and even the President sometimes has to bow to the judgement of the Secret Service. Watching that Special Service work is fascinating in itself. When President Carter was in Indy, his protectors moved him along the hand-shaking line at a more rapid pace than he desired. As I recall, the President won, for a little while.

IF YOU WERE SUDDENLY informed you could ask the President one question, what would it be?

AND IN CLOSING....The great thing about America is that you can disagree with a President, but still proudly proclaim that he is Your President.

NUTRITION

It's almost impossible for consumers to distinguish fact from fiction when it comes to nutrition because so many people claim to be experts. In addition, despite growing interest in good nutrition, some food fallacies get passed on from generation to generation.

Check your nutrition awareness with our little true-or-false quiz:

- * Eggs with brown shells are more natural and more nutritious than white-shelled eggs. True or false? Egg shell color is determined by the breed of hen. It is not related to nutritional value.
- * Margarine contains fewer calories than butter. True or false? Serving for serving, margarine contains the same number of calories as butter.
- * Rare meats are more nutritious than those cooked medium or well done. True or false? When cooked at moderate temperature, the same cut of meat has essentially the same nutrient content whether rare, medium or well done. Excessively high heat, however, damages foods' nutrient value.
- * Toasted bread has fewer calories than untoasted bread. True or false? Toasting or cooking food does not reduce the calorie content.
- * Potato peels contain more vitamins than the white flesh inside the potato. True or false? Potato peels have some nutrient value but they do not compare to the rich interior.

You probably knew that all of the answers to the above questions were false. As you undoubtedly know the only true place to shop for savings, quality, selection and service is Jesse's.

Avon may change site

Following a report on preliminary site studies for the proposed elementary school, Avon School Board backed off earlier plans to construct the new facility west of the Middle School.

Representatives of Everett I Brown Company told school board members July 6 that studies of the Middle School site indicated limitations so far as parking, driveway and playground area, as well as possible future expansion.

The Board directed the architect to further study the feasibility of a sewer line access from the corporation's West Morris Street property, should that location prove to be a better site for a new facility. The Board earlier decided against an optional site south of the high school because of limited parking and need to relocate the football practice field.

The architect's report that 17-acre site at Morris Street and Dan Jones Road would require an estimated $125,000 to upgrade the sewer system in that area.

Earlier in the meeting, Michael Adamson was elected President of the School Board during its annual reorganization. Lloyd Acton was elected Vice-President, with George Meyer as Secretary. The Board established the first and third Monday of each month as regular meeting days, with exception of the first Monday in Sept., the Labor Day Holiday. That meeting will be Sept. 8.

In other reorganization matters, Lloyd Acton was named delegate to the ISBA. Mildred Wilson was reappointed Corporation Treasurer, with Carolyn Radican as Deputy Treasurer.

In personnel matters, the Board approved the employment of six new teachers:

Jill Byers, who taught at Speedway for nine years, Spanish/Special Education.

Jo Presnell, former teacher at Indiana Girls School and Roncalli, English;

Mary Duke, Science, coming from seven years at Perry Township and three years at Germantown;

Beth Ann Cunningham, first-year teacher from Purdue, physical education and assistant track coach;

Stacy Williamson, first year teacher from IU, Social Studies/English; and Lisa Richardson, first-year teacher from Miami University, German (half-time).

Board members approved the administration's recommendation to add three days to the teacher contracts, new to Avon, effective this fall. The extra days will be used during the school year for extended orientation and integration of new teachers into the staff and community.

Lower Elementary Principal Jane Wright submitted a two-year study of the Kindergarten program, and the Board approved the student handbooks for the 1987-88 school year. Superintendent Dr. Tom Terry reported on a study of student transiency, which reflect an increasing number of students moving in and out of the school district. This past school year, more than 16 percent of the enrollment either moved in or out of the schools.

In other action, the Board approved a GED for James Eugene Day.

Collective bargaining was discussed during an executive session, with a bargaining session scheduled July 14 with teachers. Next regular meeting will be July 20 at 7 p.m.

Issues crime alert

The Hendricks County Sheriff's Department is issuing a Crime Alert for persons living in an area bounded by I-74 north to 86th Street, and from SR 267 to 500 East in the wake of several nighttime burglaries and stolen vehicles recovered.

During the past week several burglaries have been reported in this area, and they are occurring during the late night and early morning hours. The burglars are known to be wearing tennis shoes, and have been kicking open entry doors to garages. In some cases items of small value have been taken, and in others nothing was taken. Also in this area 2 stolen cars have been recovered.

Citizens are encouraged to report suspicious persons or vehicles to the Sheriff's Department at 745-6464.

Deputies believe that juveniles are involved in the break-ins. In one burglary 3 firearms were taken from the residence while the homeowner was gone between the hours of 2 a.m. and 5 a.m.

"A TOUCH OF CLASS"

"Would you like me to check under the hood?" Those words bring immediate suspicion to most motorists. "This turkey's trying to sell me a quart of oil!"

Not so at the GAS HOUSE USA. If you have your own in the trunk we'll be happy to pour it in for you. Our professional and courteous personnel are merely trying to forestall mechanical problems with your car.

You may notice that as all your windows are being cleaned and your tires visually checked, this is not a run of the mill service station. Full service here means more than just holding the gasoline nozzle. We spend the day tightening V-belts, battery cables and hose clamps as a free service to our customers. Through a domino effect, a loose alternator belt, in addition to ruining itself, can wipe out your alternator, battery and starter. A low tire will overheat and rip itself to shreds.

Our "Touch Of Class" motto doesn't stop at the gasoline island either. If it's service you need, you can relax in our comfortable lounge while competent mechanics look after your automobile. The soft music, hot coffee and tea or cold drinks, telephone, magazines, TV, newspapers, snack counter and immaculate restrooms are designed for your convenience.

Our fuels come directly from Rock Island Refinery in Indianapolis and are blended to the finest quality. You will find the price to be considerably less than the large interstate full service outlets and we carry our own charge accounts.

BAND UNIFORMS were out-of-style for the Marching Cadets of Cascade High School when they entertained in Amo's annual parade last Saturday afternoon. Despite the heat, the Cadets gave the crowd its money's worth - as

Judge objects to being stopped

Indiana State Police and Hendricks County Sheriff's Department has been asked to submit a written report on operation of a sobriety roadblock that stopped Hendricks Superior Court Judge Larry Hesson near Plainfield.

Hesson was not charged, or suspected of drinking, when stopped on US 40 at Six Points Road, the judge argued that he was illegally stopped.

Circuit Court Judge

Jeffrey Boles asked for the reports after 10 drivers, charged with drunken driving after being stopped at the roadblocks, appeared in court last week. The 10 cases, as well as others made in recent years, have been filed in Circuit, rather than Superior Court II because of Hesson's stand on roadblocks.

Acting State Police Superintendent Larry D. Furnas, who was at the roadblock, said the incident with Judge Hesson was brief and that Hesson's behavior was not unruly.

Ironically, the prolonged challenge to roadblocks began at the same intersection in 1984 when Ray A. Garcia of Plainfield was arrested for drunken driving. Earlier this year, the U.S. Supreme Court upheld the use of police roadblocks to catch drunk drivers.

During the holiday weekend, State and local police arrested 133 drivers on alcohol-related charges throughout the state.

Calling apple pie bakers

Thelma Hunter, Announce contest special events chairman for the Hendricks County 4-H Fair, announces the third annual Apple Pie Contest to be at this year's fair.

The apples for the contest, Lodi Transparent, will be provided by Davis Orchards, Clayton. Cash prizes of $25, $15, and $10 from Davis Orchards will be awarded to bakers of the pies rated first, second and third by a tasting panel of three judges. A plaque from the 4-H Fair Board will be awarded for the first-place pie.

The rules are:

*Pie bakers must live in Hendricks County.

*Pie bakers must be age 10 or older.

*Pie must be in an 8" or 9" metal pie pan.

*Pies must be made from the apples provided at entry time and must be bake-in-the-crust. Crust must be made-from-scratch.

*Recipes must be provided with each pie as a reference during judging.

To enter the contest, interested pie-bakers must come to the Fair Office, next to the Indoor Arena, at 2 p.m., Wednesday, July 22. The contest is limited to 30 entries. If more than 30 are there, a drawing will be held to determine entrants. Each will fill out an entry blank and will receive one peck of apples. Judging of the 30 pies will be at 12:30 p.m., Friday, July 24, in the auditorium of the Community Center, 4-H Fairgrounds, east of Danville.

Any questions may be directed to Janet Krumme, Extension Agent-Home Economics at 745-9260.

Town awards water loop contract

Construction of the new water main loop at the east edge of town is expected to begin within the next two weeks, following the awarding of a contract by Danville Town Board at its July 6 meeting.

Frash Earth Work was the successful and low bidder, with a quote of $151,747, more than $50,000 below the engineer's estimate. Next low bidder was Eagle Valley with a quote of some $160,000.

Owners and operators of semi tractor trailer trucks and vehicles in excess of 11,000 lbs. will be prohibited from parking in residential areas as result of an Ordinance passed by the Board Monday night. The ordinance targets the large trucks, and includes provision that prohibits motors running for longer than 15 minutes. Delivery and utility vehicles are exempted. Violators may be fined up to $100, and ordered to pay tow-in charges if applicable.

In other business, the Board approved a petition to rezoned property, just east of the Marathon Station on East Main Street on the south side of US 36, to General Business. Lee Comer represented Bob and Sharon Huse who plan to operate an automotive parts business on the site. Construction of the building should start within the next two weeks.

Terry Hiatt of the Danville Jaycees asked and was given permission for the organization to sponsor the annual Swap and Shot Days Oct. 10-11. Also approved was a petition for a street light near the cul-de-sac on Raintree Drive. John Atto said all residents in the immediate area favored a street light.

Park Commissioner Lorin Thompson reported the swimming pool had its best June in its history, average 224 swimmers per day, and generating almost $12,000 in revenue. He said the pool was closed only 3 days in the first 32 days of the current swimming season.

Guido Borgnini, town engineer for HNTB, reported that Division II of the sewer rehabilitation project was 100 percent complete and that all paperwork and payment should be taken care of at the Board's August meeting. The Board also accepted more of the new equipment at the expanded wastewater treatment plant, which is "on time" and scheduled for completion in November.

Borgnini also called attention to blanks that need to be filled in on the town's sewer use ordinance, regarding fees and other numbers which had been omitted earlier. The complete ordinance, prepared by H.J. Umbaugh, will be ready for the Board at its Aug. meeting.

Police Jim Bennett reported the number of complaints being received has increased significantly since the town started operating its own dispatch 24-hours a day. The Chief said the department is getting the calls they should be getting, and that the public is more aware they can call local police. Chief Bennett urged residents to "let us know of suspected illegal activity; you don't have to give your name," so we can check it out."

Town Board President Norman Guiley announced the recent ISO concert would show a profit, despite having to be moved from the park to the high school gym. Guiley also announced that State Treasurer Marjorie O'Laughlin will be attending the Struttin' in the Park concert at Ellis Park July 18 to present Celebration '88 sign to the Town. An architects drawing of the stage and the proposed roof will be available for the public to see at this concert. Completion of the amphitheater at the park is the community's Celebration '88 project.

Town Manager Gary Eakin said the new street lights at the intersection of US 36 and East Main Street at the east edge of town should be up within two or three weeks. The project has been delayed because of changes in plans by the State Highway Department, and obtaining the break-away poles required.

Eakin also said the Town plans to take care of all property owners who requested new sidewalks this past year. Repairs on the town's warning sirens will cost an estimated $3,000, according to Eakin, while a new siren would cost $12,000-$13,000.

Monday was a holiday and the courthouse was closed, but county officials and members of the Presidential advance team were on the job to begin plans for the President's visit to Hendricks County.

Although visible signs of preparations, so far as the public was concerned, didn't show up until Thursday or Friday, a lot of behind-the-scenes preparations were underway.

The three County Commissioners were the designated "local" contact for the President's visit, and to them fell the task of deciding who would be among the 75-100 invited to

Carpet Corner

BOB & SHIRLEY COHEN

MINOR CARPET REPAIRS

There are a number of minor repairs which anyone can perform themselves to keep their carpeting from showing many of the effects of wear and tear. The following tips should prove helpful to those who are handy around the house, as well as the not-so-handy.

CRUSHED SPOTS. Dents in carpets can be minimized but not prevented by using coasters under narrow furniture legs. To restore dents when they occur, hold a steaming steam iron just above them and moisten the pile. Don't touch the iron to the carpet. Then brush the area.

SPROUTS. These are loose ends of pile that protrude above the carpet surface. Don't pull them out. Just trim off with scissors.

BURNS. If the fibers are not charred too deeply, snip off the tops and apply a vinegar-detergent solution to remove the brown color remaining. If the hole is deep, clip the burned fibers out completely. Pull clean fibers from a scrap of carpet; thread these into a needle and push them through the carpet backing in the area of the hole. Glue these to the backing with rubber cement or white glue.

the United States, " and a new day dawned. But at this time, "The People" were little more than the Fifty-Five Fathers.

The Meeting
The Fifty-Five Fathers began gathering inside the Pennsylvania State House with its windows tightly sealed. They would meet from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m., Monday thru Saturday, from May 14th, 1787 to September 17, 1787. All wore buckles of silver below the knee and stockings of imported silk. The doors were guarded, workman shoveled loose dirt in the street to quiet the clatter of hooves and carriages. The meetings operated under a strict rule of secrecy imposed by George Washington, because as he said "Gossip and misunderstanding can easily ruin all the work we have to do." Not even family members could know what was going on.

Robert Morris nominated George Washington to preside over the Convention. George Washington sat the Convention from a chair with a golden rising sun in its back. The Father of our Country would speak only once during the four sweltering months of the Convention. He did frown or smile as the speakers pleased or upset him. He had a hard time making himself heard, because of his ill fitting wooden false teeth.

An old and feeble Benjamin Franklin arrived in a sedan carried by four convicts. He would not speak at all during the Convention. He spoke through an assistant. When a dispute between the Delegates broke out, Franklin brought the Delegates a bottle with a two-headed snake preserved in it and asked "What would happen if one head decided to go one way and the other another?" The Delegates settled their dispute.

James Madison, the Father of our Constitution, by special permission, was seated at the front of the hall and took notes. It is from these notes that we have the most accurate view of the Convention.

Edmond Randolph, of Virginia, proposed a national government of three branches, Executive, Legislative, and Judicial.

join the President in the courthouse Monday morning. In addition to addressing those in the rotunda, the officials were advised the President would have a "private" time with the Commissioners and County Council members prior to his rotunda visit.

Business firms were aware of the upcoming President visit when they were contacted by Secret Service personnel as they checked out the community to assure a safe visit for the President. Buildings around the square, roofs, and access were all a part of the routine.

Emergency plans were developed, including hospital personnel to cover all contingencies.

Town officials found themselves looking for more than 4 miles of rope and 100 barrels of water to be used in crowd control. Saturday, crews moved into the west side of the square to set up a tent from the west door of the courthouse to the street, connecting with another tent, into which the Presidential car would park upon arrival.

Inside the courthouse, crews were busy Friday building elevated areas in the rotunda, erecting curtains to close off the rotunda and other areas of the courthouse. The Town had a head start on the preparations, with the new American flags lining Main Street - flags that had been posted Flag Day and remained in place until the Fourth of July celebration. Rain delayed removal of the flags for storage on schedule.

Telephone crews moved into town Friday, setting up special communication lines to the courthouse. They were joined by visiting newsmen who sought opinions from local residents about the President's upcoming visit.

Area residents agreed with Danville Town Manager Gary Eakin who was quoted as saying, "This doesn't happen every day."

CHRISTY ALBERT

Albert qualifies

Christy Albert, daughter of Mike and Carol Albert of Brownsburg, Indiana, has qualified to attend the Long Course Senior National Swim Finals in Clovis, California, July 27-31. She qualified for the Senior Nationals at the Senior Circuit Meet at the I.U. Natatorium, July 2-5. This time standard for nationals is established by using the top sixteen swimmers times in the nation last year. The 100 backstroke Senior National standard is 1:07:39. Albert's time was 1:07:08.

Albert is a High School All-American swimmer and was ranked 19th in the nation in the 100 backstroke her sophomore year. She is considered one of Indiana's best swimmers.

To earn these honors, Albert had a second and a third place finish in the 100 backstroke in state competition in 1985-1986. She was all-state in the 100 backstroke and the 200 individual medley.

Prior to this year, she attended three Junior National swim meets. The last meet in Orlando, Florida, last April, Albert placed ninth in the 100 backstroke and 13th in the 200 backstroke. The competition featured swimmers from all over the United States. She will co-captain the 1987 Brownsburg High School Swim Team coached by Linda Horn. She was selected by her team as the most valuable swimmer in both her freshman and sophomore years. In addition she holds six of eleven school records. She has been named All-Conference, all-county, and all-sectional swimmer in the 100 backstroke and the 200 IM for the last two years. Albert also has competed at the state level in the freestyle relay in 1985 and medley relay in 1986.

Swimming year round doesn't leave much time for other activities but, she has maintained a B plus average in college preparatory classes. She was also selected to attend the Hugh O'Brian Leadership conference this summer and recommended for inclusion in Who's Who Among American High School Students.

Albert will represent her USS swim club "Swim Indy" coached by Steve Maxwell at the Nationals. She will be a junior when school starts this fall.

Judge orders inmate to pay fees

An inmate at the Indiana Youth Center has been ordered to pay $1,350 in attorney fees and court costs by Hendricks Circuit Court Judge Jeffrey V. Boles for filing a "baseless, groundless and frivolous" lawsuit.

Jeffrey Watson, 31, who is serving a 12-year sentence on a 1984 conviction for arson and burglary in Indianapolis, filed action last December claiming the Department of Corrections improperly denied him good time credit on his sentence.

Judge Boles dismissed the action by Watson, who served as his own attorney.

Watson was ordered to pay $750 in legal fees to the Department of Corrections and court costs of $600.

In his opinion, Judge Boles wrote: "Courts and attorneys alike must act to stop and stop effectively the continuing tide of baseless and patently frivolous litigation that now clogs our courts... No society can be healthy and effective if all disputes are drawn into the legal process."

Church to present missionary film

Sunday night, July 19 at 6 p.m. the film entitled "To Russia with Love" will be shown at the Light and Life Free Methodist church, Rd. 100 S just East of Dan Jones Rd.

This challenging motion picture depicts the ministry of Underground Evangelism, a missionary outreach to Christians in Communist lands. Secret arrangements were made in advance for a photographer to capture a revealing glimpse of the "underground" church at worship.

Closed churches, the low-classed conditions and the persecution of Christians living under the brutal oppression of state atheism, churches enduring terrible hardships yet increasing in membership... these are but a few of the facts uncovered by To Russia With Love.

Although this was a tremendously difficult project the result was some of the finest behind-the-scenes filming ever done.

Pastor Charles E. Chestnut and the congregation at Light and Life church invites the public to view this stirring documentary film. A free-will offering will be received. Other services to which everyone is invited are the Sunday School at 9:30 a.m.; and the Morning Worship at 10:30 a.m.

Homemakers meet

The Young Moderns Extension Homemakers club met July 2, at the North Salem Park for their annual salad supper and meeting. There were 16 members and one guest present. The new President Sue Hatfield opened the meeting and the Pledge and creed were recited.

Hatfield gave a report on the annual Home and Family conference which she attended at Purdue in June. Roll call was answered by telling of your favorite vacation. Plans were discussed for the club State Fair exhibit. The new program books were passed out and plans for the coming year were discussed.

The door prize was won by Judy Barker. The next meeting will be a swimming party.

Plan reunion

The 59th Annual PRITCHETT Family reunion will be Sunday, July 19 at the Hendricks County R.E.M.C. building on County Road 500 E and Old US 36.

You must exit at 525 E or Prestwick Road to get to the R.E.M.C. building on old 36. It is two and a half miles west of Avon or five miles east of Danville across from Indiana Public Service on the north side (look for the "PRITCHETT BANNER.")

The Maggie Malone touch will give you hundreds of tips for finishing in just a few hours those projects that now take you weeks.

- You'll be amazed how easy it is to pick up so many shortcuts for every step from cutting and piecing (strip, Seminole, unit, English) to all phases of quilting, applique and patchwork.
- You'll find time-savers for both hand and machine work, including ingenious ways to do machine-stitch patterns with elegance most quilts say can only be done by hand.
- You'll get ideas for both beginning and advanced projects, including tiny, intricate patterns you always thought were too time-consuming.
- You'll love the Maggie Malone shortcuts to dozens of your favorite patterns, including Double Wedding Ring, Cathedral Windows, Spider Web, plus many more.
- You can even learn to piece the ever-popular Lone Star quilt, with its nearly 400 separate diamond pieces, in only 20 hours—instead of the months most quilts need!

Beautiful designs, including 8 pages of gorgeous full-color, along with easy-to-follow diagrams and illustrations, make this an irresistible buy for anyone who loves to quilt.

These professional tips and tricks will make this book the most valuable addition to your quilting library—for hand and machine quilting alike.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

"I wish," said a preacher, "that we could package religion in spray cans. It would be more popular." Maybe, for some prefer their religion in "short bursts." They're a little too bad to be good, so they'd like a "shot" every now and then just to be respectable, but not too religious.

There are many who'd like to make use of their religion only when they're "under pressure." They turn to God in their pain, but they turn from Him in their pleasure. Many pastors would like a "hair-spray-can religion" for the "hard-to-hold" members so they'd "keep their religion in place all day."

But the Lord will do that for you, if you'll turn your life over to Him.

Why don't you do it now?

WORD of GOD

Seek The Lord

I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offense, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me early.

Hosea 5:15

Open new business

Lee and Joyce Lawyer, Brownsburg, will begin a new business venture on Wednesday, July 20 West Main Street, in Brownsburg. Joyce, who will manage "Youthful You" invites everyone to experience a new concept in exercising.

Exercise tables designed to tone and trim all parts of the body are used. Designed as physical therapy machines for people unable to exercise correctly themselves, it is only necessary to lie on the tables in a precise position and the machines will do the exercising for you. Only eight minutes is spent on each of the six toning tables. No more guess work, special clothing, or showers are needed.

This concept offers a stress free, non strenuous type of weight reduction for both men and women through the use of professionally designed equipment.

Call 852-2226 or stop by for a free demonstration of the ultimate in exercising and toning of your body.

THE MAD RUSSIAN, Igor Zatkoff will meet Dick the Bruiser when wrestling returns to the Hendricks County Fair Sunday evening, July 19, beginning at 8 p.m. Tickets for the event are available from Fair Board Directors and at the Extension office at the fairgrounds, Danville.
