I also direct that any and all inheritance, succession and estate taxes, State or Federal, that may be imposed by reason of my death, shall be paid by my Executors from my residuary trust estate created pursuant to the terms of Paragraph FOURTH and the sub-paragraphs thereunder, even though such taxes be based wholly or in part upon the value of property or interests not constituting a part of my estate (including life insurance, if any), and I direct that no contirbution be sought or required by or for the benefit of my estate, with respect to such payment of taxes.

SECOND: I give and bequeath all of my household furniture and furnishings, books, pictures, automobiles, jewelry, watches, silverware, wearing apparel, and all other articles of household or personal use or ornament, to my beloved wife, DOROTHY B. In the event that my said wife should predecease me, or survive me but die within five (5) months after my death, this bequest shall go instead to my son HENRY JOE WINTON.

THIRD: My Executors shall determine the gross value of my estate as of the date of my death and shall deduct therefrom the amount of my just debts, funeral expenses and costs and fees of administration. ITEM III

In the event that the death of my said wife, and my self shall occur simultaneously, or approximately so, or in the same common accident or calamity, or under any circumstances causing doubt as to which of us survives the other, then I give, devise and bequeath all of said rest and residue of my estate, absolutely and in fee simple, to my son, Alfred S. 1. Said Trustee shall receive and, in its sole discretion, hold all of the property and assets constituting my estate, whether such assets be of the kind and character in which corporate and other trustees may lawfully invest.

2. My said Trustee shall hold, manage and control such property, pay all taxes and other liens accruing thereon, control the income therefrom subject to the provisions hereof, and, for the protection of said trust estate or any asset thereof, institute and defend any and all causes of action and compromise and adjust all matters in dispute affecting said trust estate or any part thereof, with full power to execute releases and receipts, and all other approporiate or necessary papers, writings and contracts, all as it in its sole discretion, as Trustee, shall deem to be to the best interests of said trust, and to act in and about the trust estate as fully as I could do in my own proper person if I were living.

3. My said Trustee, in its sole discretion, may invest and reinvest funds of the trust in any bond, note, certificate, common or preferred stock, policy of life insurance or annuity contract covering the life of the trust beneficiary, or in any security or property, real and personal, at any time and from time to time, and in the manner and to the extent which my said Trustee shall deem for the best interests of said trust estate and said beneficiary, although such investment or reinvestment be not of the kind, character or amount then authorized for investment of trust funds. I, Harold V. Pedigo, of East Main Street, Brownsburg, in the County of Hendricks, State of Indiana, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, but mindful of the uncertainty of this life do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former Wills and codicils by me made.

Item I

I order and direct that my executor hereinafter named pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Item II

After the payment of such funeral expenses, and debts, I give, devise and bequeath all the property, real and personal, of every nature which I now have, may die possessed of, or may be entitled to, to my wife, Lucille O.Pedigo, to have and to hold forever, except however, the sum of One (1) Dollar which I bequeath to my daughter, Helen Jean Pedigo Davis.

Item III

I do hereby make, constitute and appoint my wife, Lucille O. Pedigo, sole executor of this my last will and testament, and it is my wish and I do hereby request, that she may not be compelled to give bond and security as such executrix, and that she may settle the estate in her own way, and sell any or all of the real or personal estate, at public or private sale, as she may think best, and pay the debts without being compelled to account to the probate or any other court.

Item IV

The foregoing provisions of this, my will, are to take effect and to be in force if and only if my wife, Lucille O. Pedigo, shall survive me, and if for a period of fifteen (15) days after my death she shall have knowledge of my death, shall be competent to make a will, and shall have reasonable opportunity to make her will if she should so desire. In determining such period of fifteen (15) days, the day on which she learns of my death is to be excluded. If my said wife, Lucille D. Pedigo, should not thus survive me and shall not have knowledge of my death competency to make a will, and a reasonable opportunity to make her Will for fifteen (15) days, as aforesaid, I then devise and bequeath my said property to my said wife and for her life and then as hereinafter provided.

Item V

I order and direct my executor, hereinafter named, to pay all my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my decease as conveniently may be.

Item VI

I order and direct that my mother, Bessie Brandenburg, be suffered and permitted to occupy and have the use of my house so long as she does occupy said house, located on Lot Number Five (5) in Parsons's Addition to the Town of Brownsburg, State of Indiana, and its contents for and during the full term of her natural life, and from and after her decease, I give devise and bequeath the same as follows: to my daughter, Helen Jean Pedigo Davis, for life and then to my grandchildren then living, in fee simple, absolute.

Item VII

After the payment of such debts and funeral expenses as provided and costs of administration, and with the exception of the property referred to in Item VI, I give, devise and bequeath two-thirds (2/3) of all my property, real and personal, of every nature which I now have, may die possessed of, or may be entitled to, to my daughter, Helen Jean Pedigo Davis to have and to hold forever.

Item VIII

With all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real,personal and mixed, wheresoever the same may be situated and of whatever the same may consist, I desire to create a trust fund for the benefit of my grandchildren living at the time of my death or born within the period from the time of my death until the eldest living grandchild reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years, and I hereby give, bequeath and devise to Helen Jean Pedigo Davis, in trust nevertheless, for the uses and purposes following,to-wit:

A. The Trustee will convert all of the said property into U.S. Government Bonds as soon as conveniently possible.

B. When each of my above said grandchildren graduates from High School or reaches the age of eighteen years, and until they reach the age of twenty-one (21) years they will be entitled to receive a partial distribution of said fund: not however, to exceed three-fourths (3/4) of their vested interest therein, for the following reason: if they wish to attend any institution of higher learning, then the Trustee will cause their tuition to be paid plus their living expenses, while thus attending such institution, not however, to exceed the sum of Twelve Hundred Dollars ($1200.00) for living expenses during any one year.

C. At the time the eldest child reaches the age of Twenty-one years, he or she will be given the balance of the distributive share to which he or she is entitled, and thereafter as each grandchild reaches the age of twenty-one (21) years, he or she will be given the balance of their respective distributive share. A receipt from each grandchild will release the Trustee from that part of this trust; provided however, that if any grandchild falling within this class becomes deceased before reaching the age of twenty-one (21) years, then their distributive share or the balance thereof, will revert into the corpus of the trust and be distributed among the remaining members of the class as above provided.

Item IX

If there be no member of the class entitled to receive payments under the trust created in Item VIII, then upon the death of my daughter, Helen Jean Pedigo Davis, herein named the Trustee, or as soon after as it can be determined that there is a failure of such class eligible to receive benefits or payments under this trust, the entire trust corpus and accrued income will be given to the issue share and share alike of the members of this class; provided however, if there be no such issue, then the said corpus and accrued income will go according to intestate law.

Item X

I hereby nominate and appoint Helen Jean Pedigo Davis as executrix of this my last Will and Testament.

The foregoing Will consisting of four (4) pages, including this page, at the bottom of each of which I have placed my initials. In testimony of the execution of this Will I hereto set my hand and affix my seal this 30 day of January, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred Fifty-three (1953) .

WILL

I, Edna K. Hollowell, of Danville, Hendricks County, Indiana, do hereby make, publish, and declare the following to be my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all other wills by me at any time heretofore made.

ITEM I

I direct my Executor to settle my estate as promptly as in his descretion may appear advisable and practical. In connection with such settlement, I direct my Executor to pay all of my legal debts, including all funeral and burial costs and expenses of my last illness, and the costs and expenses of administering and settling my estate.

ITEM II

I give, devise, and bequeath all of my property, of every kind and nature, to my husband, Robert Hollowell, if he be living.

ITEM III

If my said husband predecease me, then I give, devise, and bequeath one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the rest and residue of my estate to my daughter, Joyce Hollowell Miller, if she be living at the time of my death. If she be not living at the time of my death, then I give, devise, and bequeath said one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of the rest and residue of my estate to Arthur R. Blair, as Trustee, for the use and benefit of the child or children of said Joyce Hollowell Miller who are living at the time of my death. Said Trustee shall have full power and authority to manage and control said trust estate and to do all things in connection therewith that I might do if living. Said Trustee may pay to or expend for my said grandchildren such sums as he may deem reasonable and necessary for their maintenance, support, care, and education, including higher education. The powers given such Trustee may be executed without the approval of the Probate Court or any other court, nor shall it be necessary that any trust be opened for or in connection with the administration of this trust in any court, nor shall said Trustee be required to file any reports under the provision of any law of the State of Indiana now in force or which may hereafter be enacted. Said Trustee is directed to govern and apportion the distribution to or expenditure for said children in such manner that they will benefit as nearly equally from said trust as may expeditiously be done. In making such distribution or payment to or for my said grandchildren, the income of said trust shall be first used, and if that be not sufficient, then the principal or corpus of said trust shall be used. At the time of the graduation of the oldest of said children from college, or upon her arrival at the age of twenty-five (25) years, if there be sufficient funds available to distribute any sum to her, leaving sufficient funds or assets for the benefit of the remaining children to equalize them, such distribution may be made. Similar distributions may be made to each of my said grandchildren under the same facts and circumstances above set forth relative to my eldest grandchild. When my youngest grandchild has attained the age of twenty-five (25), this trust shall be terminated and final distribution made, if any assets at that time remain for distribution. In the making of all distributions, care shall be exercised to the end that on final termination of this trust each of my said grandchildren shall have benefited as nearly equally as may expeditiously be done.

ITEM IV

If my said husband shall have predeceased me, then the other one-half ($\frac{1}{2}$) of my estate available for distribution shall be distributed as follows:

1. I give, devise, and bequeath to ARTHUR R. BLAIR, in trust the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00), for the use and benefit of my grandson, ROBERT THEODORE KULKA, son of my daughter, JANET HOLLOWELL KULKA. If at the time of my death my daughter, Janet Hollowell Kulka, have a child or children in addition to said Robert Theodore Kulka, which are born of her body, then I give, devise, and bequeath to said Arthur R. Blair, in trust, an additional sum of Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) for each such child or children living at my death, for the use and benefit of such additional child or children, under the same terms and conditions. The purpose of this trust is primarily for the higher education, including college education, of Robert Theodore Kulka and any other children of my daughter, Janet Hollowell Kulka, who may be living at my death. Said trustee shall have full power and authority to manage and control said trust estate, and to do all things in connection therewith that I might do if living. Said Trustee may pay to or expend for my said grandchildren, child or children of Janet Hollowell Kulka, such sums as he may deem reasonable and necessary for their higher education. By higher education as used in this Will is meant education beyond that of normal high school education. However, if in the discretion of said Trustee he deems it advisable he may pay to or expend for such grandchild or grandchildren (born of Janet Hollowell Kulka such sums as he may deem reasonable and necessary for his or their support, care, and education other than higher education. The powers given such Trustee may be executed without the approval of the Probate Court or any other court, nor shall it be necessary that trust be opened for or in connection with the administration of this trust in any court, nor shall said trustee be required to file any reports under the provision of any law of the State of Indiana now in force or which may hereafter be enacted. Said Trustee is directed to govern and apportion the distribution to or expenditure for said children in such a manner that they will benefit as nearly equally from said trust as may expeditiously be done. In making such distribution or payment to or for my said grandchild or grandchildren (born of Janet Hollowell Kulka), the income of said trust shall be first used, and if that be not sufficient, then the principal or corpus or said trust shall be used. At the time of the graduation of the oldest of said children from college, or upon his arrival at the age of twenty-five (25) years, if there be sufficient funds available to distribute any sum to him, leaving sufficient funds or assets for the benefit of any remaining children to equalize them, such distribution may be made. Similar distribution may be made to each of my said grandchildren, under the same facts and circumstances above set forth relative to my eldest grandchild. When my youngest grandchild(born of Janet Hollowell Kulka) has attained the age of twenty-five (25) years, this trust shall be terminated and final distribution made, if any assets at that time remain for distribution. In the making of all distributions, care shall be exercised to the end that on final termination of this trust each of my said grandchildren shall have benefited as nearly equally as may expeditiously be done.

All of the rest and remainder of said one-half (½) of my estate not above devised and bequeathed to Arthur R. Blair, in trust for the child or children of my daughter, Janet Hollowell Kulka, I give, devise, and bequeath to my said daughter, Janet Hollowell Kulka, if she be living.

Should ROBERT THEODORE KULKA, my grandson, be not living at my death, then the Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00) devised and bequeathed to Arthur R. Blair, in trust for him, shall go and be distributed to my daughter, Janet Hollowell Kulka, if she be living. Also, if said Robert Theodore Kulka be living at my death, and said trust come into existence, but he die before said trust terminates, then any assets in said trust shall be distributed to my daughter, JANET HOLLOWELL KULKA, if she be living. Should any trust come into existence for the use and benefit of any other child of children of my said daughter, Janet Hollowell Kulka, and such child or children die before the termination of such trust, then any sum or assets in said trust or trusts shall be paid and distributed to my daughter, JANET HOLLOWELL KULKA, if she be living.

ITEM V

If my daughter, Janet Hollowell Kulka, be not living at the time of my death, then the provisions in Item IV of this Will shall be without effect, and all of said one-half (½) of the rest and residue of my estate I give, devise, and bequeath to ARTHUR R. BLAIR, in trust, for the use and benefit of the child or children of Janet Hollowell Kulka living at my death. Said Trustee shall have full power and authority to manage and control said trust estate and to do all things in connection therewith that I might do if living. Said Trustee may pay to or expend for my said grandchild or grandchildren such sums as he may deem reasonable and necessary for their maintenance, support, care and education, including higher education. The powers given such Trustee may be executed without the approval of the Probate Court or any other court, nor shall it be necessary that any trust be opened for or in connection with the administration of this trust in any court, nor shall said Trustee be required to file any reports under the provision of any law of the State of Indiana now in force or which may hereafter be enacted. Said Trustee is directed to govern and apportion the distribution or expenditure for said children in such a manner that they will benefit as nearly equally from said trust as may expeditiously be done. In making such distribution or payment to or for my said grandchild or grandchildren, the income of said trust shall be first used, and if that be not sufficient, then the principal or corpus of said trust shall be used. At the time of the graduation of the oldest of said children from college, or upon his arrival at the age of twenty-five (25) years, if there be sufficient funds available to distribute any sum to him, leaving sufficient funds or assets for the benefit of any remaining children to equalize them, such distribution may be made. Similar distribution may be made to each of my said grandchildren, under the same facts and circumstances above set forth relative to my eldest grandchild. When my youngest grandchild (born of Janet Hollowell Kulka) has attained the age of twenty-five (25), this trust shall be terminated and final distribution made, if any assets at that time remain for distribution. In the making of all distributions care shall be exercised to the end that on final termination of this trust, each of my said grandchildren shall have benefited as nearly equally as may expeditiously be done.

ITEM VI

If my Executor or my estate pays or may be required to pay any Federal Estate or Succession Taxes under any present law or law hereafter enacted upon or with respect to any property required to be included in my gross estate for Federal Estate Tax purposes, the amount of the tax so paid, or payable, shall be equitably apportioned and prorated among the persons receiving property as a result of my death; provided, however, that no such Federal Taxes shall be prorated to or charged against my husband or any property received by him under my Will or going to him as a result of my death, whether the same passes under this Will, by operation of law, through insurance contracts, or otherwise.

ITEM VII

If at the time of my death neither my daughter, JOYCE HOLLOWELL MILLER, be living, nor any children born of her body, then the one-half (½) of my estate given to Joyce Hollowell Miller if she be living, and if not, in trust for her children, shall be added to the one-half (½) of my estate disposed of under Items IV and V of this Will, whichever is applicable.

ITEM VIII

If my daughter, JANET HOLLOWELL KULKA, be not living at my death, and there be no children living born of her body, then the one-half (½) of my estate which has been devised and bequeathed to said Janet Hollowell Kulka and in trust for her children shall become a part of and be added to the one-half (½) of my estate devised and bequeathed to my daughter, Joyce "ollowell Miller, or in trust for hier children under Item III of this Will.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF BALLARD B JOHNSON

W I L L

I, Ballard B. Johnson, Rural Route #2, Brownsburg, Hendricks County, State of Indiana, being of sound mind and disposing memory do make, publish and declare this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making null and void all other last wills and codicils by me made heretofore.

ITEM I

FIRST, I order and direct that my executor or executors, as the case may be, hereinafter named, shall pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my death as shall be found convenient.

ITEM II

SECOND, after the payment of such debts and funeral expenses, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, personal, real and mixed to my youngest son, Ernest C. Johnson, to have and to hold forever. At the time that I make this bequest to my youngest son, Ernest C. Johnson, of all of my property which I own at the time of my death, I am not unmindful of my other sons and granddaughter, but I make this will as above revealed, because of the fact that Ernest C. Johnson, my youngest son, has remained with me on the farm and it is through his efforts and loyalty that I have been able to accumulate the worldly goods which I now own. And I also bequeath all of my property to Ernest C. Johnson because of the fact that I have already made suitable provisions for my other children and grandchildren by purchasing a certain farm in Hendricks County, in which I have conveyed the fee simple title to all of my children, including Ernest C. Johnson and my grandchild, Mary A. Johnson, which conveyance I believe fairly and equitably provides a sufficient bequest for all of my children and my grandchild except Ernest C. Johnson.

ITEM III

THIRD, I do hereby make, constitute and appoint Hal Johnson, of 208 South Center Street, Plainfield Indiana, as executor of this, my last will and testament. But in the event said Hal Johnson is unable, for any reason, to serve as executor of this my last will and testament, I then appoint James Pallard, Rural Route # 1, Bridgeport, Indiana.

ITEM IV

FOURTH, I do hereby request that the executor above appointed select as his attorney, J. Gordon Gibbs, in the settlement of my estate.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 20th day of February, in the year of our Lord, 1951.

First, I order and direct that my executor, here after named, shall pay all my just debts and expenses as soon after my death as shall be convenient.

I am not unmindful of my daughter, Marie or any of my other relatives or members of my family. On the other hand, I feel I have rendered many services, gifts and kindnesses to them during my life time and that all of them are able to financially and physically care for themselves. On the other hand, my wife has cared for me in sickness and in health and has been a good wife. For these reasons, and many other reasons, I want my wife to have all my property at the time of my death.

I, Leo G. Hutchens, R. R. #2, Danville, Hendricks County, State of Indiana, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this my last will and testament hereby revoking and making null and void all other last wills and codicils made by me heretofore.

ITEM I

First, I order and direct that my executor, hereinafter named,shall pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my death as shall be found convenient.

ITEM II

Second, after the payment of such debts and funeral expenses,I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, personal, real and mixed which I may have or die possessed of or be entitled to at the time of my death, as follows, to-wit: to my wife, Gladys (Doty) Hutchens, I give one-third of all my property, to have and to hold forever in addition to giving her all of my shares of stock in the Hendricks County Co-op. To my son, Ralph Hutchens, I give one-tenth of all my net estate after the above mentioned expenses and bequests have been paid; to Walter R. Hutchens, I also give one-tenth of my net estate after all of the above mentioned expenses and bequests have been paid and I give all of the rest of my property to my daughter, Charlotte E. Hutchens, to my son, Kenneth R. Hutchens and to my daughter, Marguerite J. Griswold, to have and to hold forever, share and share alike.

I am not unmindful of the fact that the one-tenth of my net estate which I have herein devised to Ralph and to Walter is a lesser amount than I have herein given to Charlotte E., Kenneth R. and Marguerite, J. Griswold, but at the same time, I am taking into consideration the prior benefits and expenditures and gifts which I have previously rendered and made to Ralph and to Walter, which amounts, in my opinion, constitute a full value of the difference between the amounts which I have given to Charlotte E., Kenneth R. and Marguerite J. Griswold. For those reasons, it is my opinion that I am treating all of my children equally.

Third, I hereby name J. Gordon Gibbs as the executor of this my last will and testament and I further order and direct that he liquidate all of my assets as soon after my death as shall be found convenient and divide my estate in accordance with the terms herin set out.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 25th day of September, 1959.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF BERTHA M. JAMES

I, Bertha M. James, of the City of Altamont, in the County of Effingham and State of Illinois, being of sound mind, memory and understanding, do hereby make, declare and publish this, my last will and testament, hereby revoking all former Wills by me heretofore made.

1. It is my will and that all my just debts, if there be any, and my funeral expenses be paid.

2. It is my wish that certain of my household articles be given to each of my children as I have set forth on a separate paper, bearing even date herewith, which paper I am signing at the same time I am signing this Will, and I request that the articles listed on said paper be not sold, but be given to the children as therein indicated.

3. It is my will, and I hereby so direct that all the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal and mixed, whatsoever and wheresoever located, to be converted into cash as soon as conveniently may be after my decease, and for that purpose I hereby authorize and empower my executor, hereinafter named, to sell and dispose of all the real estate at public or private sale, for such price or prices, and on such terms and conditions as seem best to him, and to grant and convey said real estate to the purchaser or purchasers thereof, in a full and large a manner as I myself could do if living, and do hereby direct and empower him to execute, acknowledge and deliver to the purchaser of purchasers thereof good and sufficient deeds of conveyance; provided however, that my executor shall not be required to sell said real estate until the expiration of one year after my decease, unless in his judgment the real estate should be sold sooner.

I further direct that after all of my property under this clause have been converted into cash, that my executor make the following disposition of said cash:

A. He shall pay the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars to my daughter, Irene Wilson.

B. He shall pay the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars to my daughter, Doris Almond.

C. He shall pay the sum of Five Hundred ($500.00) Dollars to my son, Richard James.

D. He shall pay the sum of Two Hundred ($200.00) Dollars to my daughter, Annalee Evans.

E. After the claims against my estate and administration expenses and the payments provided for in paragraphs A, B, C, and D of this Clause 3 have been paid, then the remainder of the cash shall be divided equally among my children Irene Wilson, Doris Almond, Richard James, Annalee Evans, Mildred Denny, Lucille Sanders, Marjorie Schroeder, Georgiana Budde, Marthagene Devore, Lois Osborne and Virginia Lou Bruner.

LASTLY: I hereby nominate and appoint Walter C. Klitzing, an attorney at law, of Altamont, Illinois, executor of this, my last will and testament.

I wish to state here why I made the provisions in paragraphs A, B, C and D of clause 3 of this Will for my children Irene Wilson, Doris Almond, Richard James and Annalee Evans to receive bequests therein provided for. I did this because they paid the expenses of the nursing care of my husband and their father during his last illness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF I HAVE HEREUNTO set my hand and seal this 4th day of June, A. D. 1959.

I, Margaret Nordyke Strohm, a resident of Hendricks County, State of Indiana, make and and declare this to be my last will and testament, hereby enumerating and publishing the following articles testamentary:

ARTICLE I

Revocation of Previous Wills and Codicils.

I revoke all wills and codicils thereto heretofore executed by me.

ARTICLE II

Administration of Estate.

Section 1. Settlement of Estate - Payment of Debts.

I direct my executor to settle my estate as promptly as in his discretion may appear advisable in consonance with a maximum realization from the assets of my estate. In connection with such settlement, I direct my executor to pay all of my just debts, including all funeral and burial costs and expenses of my last illness, the costs and expenses of administering and settling my estate, and the balance due upon any subscription made by me.

Section 2. Payment of Death Taxes.

I direct my executor to pay all estate, inheritance and succession or other taxes, whether state or federal, which may be assessed as the result of my death out of my general estate as part of the expenses of administration thereof.

ARTICLE III

Powers of Executor

Section 1. General Powers.

I give unto my executor full and complete power to complete any and all contracts made by me during my life for the sale of real estate, including the execution and delivery of deeds for the real estate so sold upon full payment of the purchase price, to sell, at private sale, and lease, mortgage, exchange or otherwise dispose of, all or any part of the property in my estate, real or personal, upon such terms as my executor deems advisable, including the power to execute deeds, proxies, assignments and any other instruments relating to the assets constituting my estate, or to retain any such property in his sole discretion, for ultimate distribution or later disposition pursuant hereto, and to compromise, settle or abandon any claims in favor of or against my estate, and in general to do all things which my executor deems necessary or advisable in the proper and efficient administration of my estate; provided however , that the powers and authority herein granted and conveyed to my executor shall not be construed as any limitation upon the powers of my executor but shall be in addition to the powers conferred upon him by law. Anything to the contrary herein notwithstanding, I direct, if it shall prove necessary or expedient in the opinion of my executor to sell any property of my estate of any purpose, that, before such property is offered to others, my said husband shall have the opportunity to purchase said property at its appraised value as shown by the inventory of my estate filed in connection with the administration thereof.

Section 2. Exercise of Powers

All such powers bestowed on my executor may be exercised without first obtaining approval of any court in the premises. However, it is not intended by this subsection to deny the jurisdiction of any court in respect to any controversy involving my estate.

Section 3. Applicability of Powers to Successor Fiduciaries.

All powers bestowed on my executor by Sections 1 and 2 of this Article shall be applicable to any executor, successor executor or administrator with the will annexed of this will to the same extent as they are made expressly applicable to my executor.

ARTICLE IV

Provision Respecting Jointly Held Property

In the event that, at the time of my death, I am the joint owner, co-owner or owner of any real estate, of a bank account, or a government bond, or of any security or instrument of indebtedness, whether issued by a private corporation, by a government or governmental agency, or by an individual, which is registered or issued in my name and that of another person or persons as tenants by the entirety or as joint tenants with the right of survivorship, or which is shown in writing to be payable to either the co-owner or named survivor on my death, I give devise and bequeath, absolutely and forever, all of my right, title and interest in such real estate, bank account, government bond, security, or instrument of indebtedness to the surviving joint owner or co-owner thereof, or to the one apparently entitled thereto upon my death. It is my understanding that my right, title or interest in any such real estate, bank account, government bond, security or instrument of indebtedness will, by operation of law upon my death, vest in or pass to such surviving joint owner or co-owner thereof or other survivor apparently entitled thereto. Nevertheless, I make these provisions in this Article IV in order to eliminate any doubt or question as to the right of any such surviving joint owner or co-owner or other person to succeed to the full possession and ownership of such real estate, bank account, government bond, security, or instrument of indebtedness, upon my death, and to provide for the possible contingency of an ineffective attempt to create a joint tenancy or estate by the entirety.

ARTICLE V.

Devise and Bequest of Residuary Estate.

All the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, both real and personal, of whatsoever kind and wheresoever located, which I may own or have the right to dispose of at the time of my death, I give, devise and bequeath to my beloved husband, Frank W. Strohm, absolutely, if he survives me by the period of thirty (30) days. Should he not survive me by such period of thirty (30) days, then to my children me surviving, equally, share and share alike, and the issue of any deceased child, such issue taking the share the parent would have taken if living.

ARTICLE VI

Section 1. Appointment

I constitute and appoint my said husband, Frank W. Strohm, as executor of this, my last will and testament.

Section 2. Bond.

Having been fully advised with respect to the provisions of our present laws of Indiana regarding bonds required of executors and executrixes, I direct, nevertheless, that my executor named herein be permitted to serve without bond, if possible, and if this is not possible, that such bond be fixed at the lowest amount possible under the practice of the court having jurisdiction of my estate, and I hereby bind my heirs and legatees to the approval of any bond so authorized.

ITEM TWO.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF ADRIAN R. McCLAIN

W I L L

I, Adrian R. McClain, R. R. #1, Danville, Indiana, being of sound and disposing mind and memory, do hereby make, declare and publish this, as my last will and testament, hereby revolking and making null and void all other wills, codicils or other instruments of testamentory character by me made heretofore.

1. First, I direct that all of my just debts and funeral expenses be paid as soon as convenient after my death.

2. Second, after the payment of such debts and expenses, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, real, personal and mixed, of every nature which I may die ceased of, possessed of or to which I may be entitled at the time of my death, whereever the same may be located, as follows, to-wit: To my beloved wife, Nellie McClain, I give a 1/3 interest in all of my real estate and to Alfred T. McClain and to Adrian P. McClain I give each a 1/3 interest in my real estate and direct that said real estate, whereever the same may be located, be divided so that my beloved wife retains our present home and the buildings appurtenant thereto, along with additional land sufficient to equal her 1/3. The remaining 2/3 interest in my real estate shall be divided between Alfred T. McClain and Adrian P. McClain equally share and share alike. If the heirs, above mentioned are unable to satisfactorially divide the real estate between said heirs then I direct that each of the heirs select one disinterested representative who shall arrive at a division of the property as above requested, and their deceision shall be final and binding upon all of the heirs. Should my beloved wife predecease me then I give, devise and bequeath all of my real estate to my two sons, above mentioned share and share alike. To my beloved wife I give, devise and bequeath all of my personal property and all of my mixed property, if there be any, to have and to hold forever. All of my farm tools located on my farm are entirely owned by me except that my son, Alfred T. McClain owns a 1/2 interest in the tractor mower. Although my son Alfred T. McClain and his wife and childred occupy a part of my home, I owe to them no moneys, claims, or other obligations growing out of said relationship or for any other cause which dates back more than the month of my death since we at all times balance our grocery account on a fity-fifty basis at the end of each month and all other expenses which I incur with them, such as compensation which I give to them for any of the work about the farm is paid immediately upon the completion of said word.

3. I further provide that should I pre-decease my beloved wife, Nellie McClain, that my son, Adrian P. McClain, serve as guardian of my wife.

4. Fourth, I direct that my son Adrian P. McClain, act as executor of this my last will and testament.

5. I direct that J. Gordon Gibbs, my attorney, shall act as attorney for my executor, Adrian P. McClain, in the administration of my estate.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto, affixed my hand and seal this 20th day of August 1952.

CODICIL TO THE LAST WILL & TESTAMENT OF ALPHA B ALLEE

I, Alpha B. Allee, a resident of Stilesville, Hendricks County, Indiana, being of sound mind and disposing memory and having heretofore executed my Last Will and Testament, bearing the date of June 11, 1934, and having executed a codicil thereto on April 3, 1936, and having executed a second codicil thereto on March 4, 1946 and having executed a third codicil thereto on October 1, 1946 and having executed a fourth codicil thereto on January 12, 1950 do make and declare this to be my fifth codicil thereto.

Item One. I wish to add these further statements. I realize that if this whole will were written over that it would make a more simple will. However, because of my advanced age and because the will speaks the truth as to how I want my property divided, I will not re-write the will.

Item Two. In order to clear any doubt that might arise after my death, I wish to instruct my children and grandchildren that I have worked long and faithfully in the care and support of my children and grandchildren and attempting at all times to equalize my gifts to all of them because my love is that of a mother and grandmother to all of them. It was my wish and pleasure that my granddaughter, Betty Showmeyer, made her home with me during her school days. I received great pleasure and comfort from her during the time she lived with me and she does not owe me or my estate any money for the period of time she was with me.

Item Three. I have read and re-read my Last Will and Testament and the Codicils attached thereto, including the last Codicil of January 12, 1950, and I feel that my will and codicils express my desires as to the way I wish my property distributed and as to those who I wish to settle my estate and act as attorneys. I feel that I have made a fair distribution of what I may have to give to each child and grandchild.

Witness my hand and seal this 13th day of July, 1959.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOHN MORTON COLEMAN FILED April 3, 1963

I, John Morton Coleman, of R.R., Danville, Hendricks County, State of Indiana, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publish and declare this as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making null and void all other will and codicils made by me heretofore.

ITEM I

First, I order and direct that my executor, hereinafter named, shall pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my death as shall be found convenient.

ITEM II

Second, after the payment of my debts and funeral expenses, I give, devise and bequeath all of my property, personal, real and mixed, which I now have or may be entitled to at the time of my death as follows, to-wit: to my son, Herschel D. Coleman, I give One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to have and to hold forever. All taxes in connection with the One Thousand Dollar ($1,000.00) bequest to my son, Herschel, shall be paid out of the estate so that said One Thousand Dollars will be entirely clear of all deductions for taxes or otherwise.

I give, devise and bequeath all of the rest and residue of my property, both real, tangible and intangible personal, to my wife, Rosie Speedy Coleman, to have and to hold forever. In view of the fact that all of the real estate in which I have any interest, at this time, is held by me and my wife as tenants by the entireties, any reference which I have made in my Will to real estate must apply only to real estate acquired after the date of this Will, if any. Although I have devised in my Will, only One Thousand Dollars ($1,000.00) to my son, Herschel, I feel that, in the past, I have made many gifts and done many benefits for him which, in all, will greatly exceed any bequests which I am herein giving to my wife. In addition thereto, my son is young and in good health and engaged in a profitable business, whereas, my wife has no source of income and will be in need of all of my assets with which to provide for herself and support herself if she is fortunate enough to live a reasonable period of time after my death.

ITEM III

Third, I constitute and appoint as executor of this, my last will and testament, my attorney, J. Gordon Gibbs, of Danville, Indiana.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 7th day of January, 1961.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF SARAH MARTHA CLAWSON FILED June 5,1963

I, Sarah Martha Clawson, being of sound mind and disposing memory, do make, publich and declare this, as my last will and testament, hereby revoking and making null and void all other wills and codicils made by me heretofore.

ITEM I

First, I order and direct that my executor, hereinafter named, shall pay all of my just debts and funeral expenses as soon after my death as shall be found convenient.

ITEM II

Second, after the payment of such debts and funeral expenses, I hereby give, devise and bequeath to my son, Guy C. Clawson, all of my property, real, personal and mixed, which I now have or which I may die possessed of or be entitled to, to have and to hold forever, except that I give to my daughter of Indianapolis, Indiana, One ($1.00) Dollar.

I am not unmindful of my daughter and it is not my intention to offend or hurt my daughter. The reason why I have given all of my property to my son with the exception of One ($1.00) Dollar is because he has styed with me and stayed by me and assisted me for many years when I was greatly in need of his attention. For that reason, I feel that he has earned all of the assets which I will die possessed of and in fact, I feel that he will have actually earned more than I am possibly able to leave to him.

ITEM III

Third, I hereby nominate and appoint J. Gordon Gibbs, my attorney, as the executor of this, my Last Will and Testament.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto subscribed my name this 5th day of February,1959.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF MARTHA H. KING Filed July 11, 1963

WILL

I, MARTHA H. KING, of Danville, Hendricks County, Indiana, hereby make, publish and declare this my Last Will and Testament, hereby revoking any and all former Wills and Codicils at any time heretofore made by me.

ARTICLE I

Administration of Estate

Section 1.

Settlement of Estate-Payment of Debts. I direct my Executor to settle my estate as promptly as in his discretion may appear advisable and practical. In connection with such settlement, I direct my Executor to pay all of my just debts, including all funeral/burial and costs and expenses of my last illness, and the costs and expenses of administering and settling my estate.

Section 2.

Payment of Death and Succession Taxes. If my Executor or my estate pays or may be required to pay any Federal estate or succession taxes under any present law or law hereinafter enacted upon or with respect to any property required to be included in my gross estate for Federal Estate Tax purposes, the amount of the tax so paid or payable shall be equitably apportioned and prorated among the persons receiving property as a result of my death. The term "property" as used herein shall include insurance and all interest of any kind in property of any kind or character, without regard to whether the same passes under this Will, by operation of law, through insurance contracts, or otherwise, In making such proration, allowance shall be made for any exemptions granted by the Act imposing the tax and for any deductions allowed by such Act for the purpose of arriving at the value of the net estate. No such Federal taxes shall be prorated to or charged against my surviving husband or any property received by him under my Will, or going to him as a result of my death. In making such apportionment, the value placed upon the respective pieces and items of property for Federal Estate Tax purposes shall be used.

All inheritance taxes or succession taxes which my Executor pays or may be required to pay under the laws of Indiana or any State shall be charged to and deducted from the bequest or legacy to the respective legatees or beneficiaries in the amounts as such tax is imposed by the law of such state, using the exemptions, deductions, and tax rate provided for by such state law. In lieu of such deduction by the Executor, the legatee, devisee, or beneficiary may pay or furnish to the Executor sufficient funds to pay such tax.

Section 3.

Powers of Executor. I hereby authorize and empower any Executor of my estate named in this Will, and no other except as hereinafter provided, in his, her, or their absolute discretion, in any manner, to any extent, upon any terms and without the aid, order, or consent of any Court, insofar as permitted by law, to do any and all things necessary for the complete management and administration of my property and estate as fully as I could do if living, including but not restricted to the following:

To enter into obligations, including leases and mortgages of real estate, for any length of time they may deem advisable, and to sell, convey, exchange, transfer, assign, mortgage, pledge, lease, improve, rent, invest or reinvest, without being limited to legal or statutory investments for fiduciaries, and to otherwise encumber, manage, and dispose of the whole or any part of my real, personal, or mixed property or estate; to settle, compromise, arbitrate, and adjust any and all claims, charges, debts and demands whatsoever in favor of or against my estate; to execute and deliver any proper legal instruments; to borrow money and give security therefor; to renew existing obligations; to divide and distribute to any persons entitled thereto any property in cash or kind, and any Executor's determination of the true value of the property as of the date of delivery thereof shall be conclusive; to determine what portion of my estate is real property and what portion is personal property, and to change one into the other; and to have any and all other further and additional powers of management, control and disposition as are not plainly forbidden by law. No purchaser, lender or lessee, or any other person shall be required to see to the application of the purchase money or money loaned, or any other funds received by my Executor. Provided, however, if a corporation shall be sole executor, it shall have only such powers and duties as may be imposed by law. I am an equal partner with my husband, ROBERT H. KING, in the business known as ROBERT H. KING, Contractor. My Executor is authorized and empowered to continue the operation of said business jointly with my said husband as the surviving partner. At the time of the execution of this Will plans are under way to incorporate said business, and should said corporation not be formed at the time of my death, my Executor is authorized and empowered to continue with said plans, and to form such corporation, acting with my said husband as surviving partner.

Section 4.

Exercise of Powers. All such powers bestowed on my Executor may be exercised without first obtaining approval of any court in the premises. However, it is not intended for this section to deny the jurisdiction of any court in respect to any controversy involving my estate.

Section 5.

Payment of Specific Legacies. I direct my Executor to pay or distribute or otherwise satisfy the specific bequests made by this Will as soon as practicable after the administration of my estate is commenced, consistent with the rights of all other persons who may have an interest in my estate. My Executor shall not, however, be obligated to pay any legacy or bequest until final distribution of my estate is made, nor shall my Executor be obligated to pay any interest thereon in the meantime.

I give, devise and bequeath one-third (1/3) of the rest, residue and remainder of my estate, real, personal or mixed, of whatever kind and nature, and wherever situated, of which I am seized and possessed, and in which I have any interest at the time of my death, to my daughter, MARY LOUISE VANNICE.

ARTICLE III

Testamentary Trust

Section 1.

I give, devise and bequeath all the rest, residue, and remainder of my estate, real, personal or mixed, of whatever kind and nature and wherever situated, of which I am seized or possessed and in which I have any interest at the time of my death, to THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK, Danville, Indiana, as Trustee, subject to the terms, uses, benefits, and purposes, and with the powers, limitations, and conditions herein set forth.

Section 2.

Powers of Trustee. The Trustee shall have the sole and exclusive possession of said property, with full power and authority to manage and control said trust estate. Said Trustee may continue to hold said property, or may transfer or otherwise dispose of the same or any part thereof, and may invest or reinvest all or any part of the trust estate as such Trustee in its sound discretion may select or determine. Said Trustee may mortgage, pledge, sell, transfer, and convey any of the property or assets in this trust, or any property or assets which may hereafter become a part of this trust, at such price and upon such terms as the Trustee may deem for the best interests of this trust.

The powers given said Trustee by this instrument may be executed without the approval of the Probate Court or any other court. Nor shall it be necessary that any trust be opened in the Probate Court or anyother court for or in connection with the administration of this trust. Nor shall the Trustee be required to file any reports under the provisions of any law of the State of Indiana now in force, or which may hereafter be enacted.

The Trustee shall not be liable for loss because of any investments which may come into its hands as a part of this trust, or which it may make in the exercise of reasonable care under any power conferred upon such Trustee by this instrument. Said Trustee shall not be required to give bond of any kind.

I am an equal partner with my husband, ROBERT H. KING, in the business known as ROBERT H. KING, Contractor. My Trustee is authorized and empowered to continue the operation of said business jointly with my said husband as the surviving partner. At the time of the execution of this Will, plans are under way to incorporate said business and should said corporation not be formed at the time of my death, or during the administration of my estate, my Trustee is authorized and empowered to continue with said plans, and to form such corporation, acting with my said husband as surviving partner.

SECTION 3.

Debts and Expenses. All Costs, expenses, attorneys' fees, advancements and disbursements actually made or incurred by the Trustee in connection with the administration of this trust, including taxes and assessments properly levied or assessed by any governmental authority against the property held by said Trustee or against any income received by the Trustee under this trust, shall be paid from the gross income of said trust. Any indebtedness incurred by me during my lifetime and which is secured by or is a lien on any of the trust property may be paid from the gross income of said trust, or at the election of the Trustee, may be paid from the corpus of said trust. Said Trustee may procure insurance in connection with said trust against any hazards or loss whatsoever, and pay any and all premiums the reon as a part of the expenses of this trust.

Income and Power to Impair Principal. In the event it should occur that the property given to my said husband outright under this Will and any other property which he might have should be inadequate to provide for my said husband's comfort, support, maintenance, and welfare, then and in that event the Trustee shall pay the net income from this trust to my said husband, and, in the event that not be sufficient for my said husband's comfort, support, maintenance and welfare, the Trustee of this trust shall pay to him from time to time such amount from the principal as in the opinion of the Trustee may be needed for his comfort, support, maintenance and welfare. If upon the death of my said husband his separate estate be not sufficient therefor, the Trustee of this trust is authorized to pay the expenses of his last illness, funeral and burial, including the expense of a super-marker or grave marker, and charge such expense against the principal of this trust.

Subject to the needs of my husband above set forth, the Trustee may from time to time pay to or expend for the benefit of my grandchildren any part or all of the income of this trust in its discretion, and all such income not so expended, to be accumulated for the benefit of said grandchildren on distribution of this trust, as hereinafter provided.

Section 5.

Distribution of Trust Principal. The principal of said trust remaining after complying with the provisions of this Will shall be distributed as follows:

> "When my oldest grandchild reaches the age of twenty-five (25), the trust estate then remaining and not distributed or expended under the provisions of this Will shall be divided into equal separate shares, one separate share for each grandchild of mine then living, and one such separate share for the children collectively of any grandchild of mine who may be then deceased, leaving children surviving. Such division may be made by computation based upon appraisal, and need not be made by actual physical division or separation. At said time, said oldest grandchild having reached the age of twenty-five (25) years, shall have the right to withdraw either in one lump or from time to time in the aggregate of up to one-half of his or her share of said trust estate. Such withdrawal may be in the form of transferring and delivering of an undivided interest in said trust estate or any part thereof. When such child attains the age of thirty (30) years, he or she shall have the right to withdraw then or thereafter from time to time any part of his said separate share of such trust estate in the same way and manner as above set forth. The same rights of distribution and withdrawal so given to said oldest grandchild shall also be given to each of my grandchildren or to the children of my deceased grandchild."

Section 6.

Upon the death of my husband, then the income from said trust estate shall be distributed to my grandchildren in proportion to their interest in the remaining trust estate.

Section 7.

In the event of the death of a grandchild of mine prior to the complete distribution of the trust estate to such grandchild, any undistributed portion of the trust held for such deceased grandchild's use and benefit shall be distributed to the surviving descendants of such deceased grandchild, share and share alike. If such deceased grandchild leaves no surviving descendants, then the share of such deceased grandchild shall become a part of the trust estate, distributable as to income and principal to the other trust beneficiaries.

In the event any child of a grandchild of mine shall become entitled to a distributive share of the principal or corpus of this trust, the same shall be distributed to such great-grandchild when such great-grandchild arrives at the age of twenty-one (21) years.

Section 8.

Termination. This trust shall terminate when the entire principal of said trust shall have been distributed or withdrawn in accordance with the provisions of this Article.
