

Central Newspaper, Mail, Telegraph, AND BUSINESS INSTITUTE.

DANVILLE

John A. Phillips having completed in a satisfactory manner the Business Course prescribed in this Institution, and having given evidence of a good moral character merits this DIPLOMA as a token of the confidence and esteem of the Instructors, and of his faithfulness and success as a Student.

The following are the leading subjects studied by the graduate:

Single Entry Bookkeeping, Double Entry Bookkeeping, Partnership, Simple Commission, Compound Company Business, Banking, Commercial Correspondence, Business Forms, Commercial Law, English Grammar, Commercial Arithmetic, Penmanship, Drawing, Reading, Orthography.

Awarded and signed at Danville, Indiana, this 3rd day of July, 1879

Franklin P. Adams, Principal.

W. J. Eddingfield,
Book-keeping and Com. Arithmetic Teachers.

F. P. Adams, Gram.
M. S. Travers, Penman.
Per F. P. A.