On the 28" day of March, 1919, Ella Garner filed with me an affidavit, charging that she had just cause to fear, and does fear, that Raleigh Garner will injure by violence this affiant and their children, which affidavit is in the words and figures as follows, to-wit:

Whereupon, I issued a warrant for the arrest of the said named Raleigh Garner forthwith and delivered the same to John M. Towles, Constable. The said John M. Towles returned said warrant indorsed as follows: Come to-hand on the 28" day of March, 1919, and I executed the same by arresting the within named Raleigh Garner forthwith, whose body I now have before the court. Costs $2.55

Witness my hand this 28" day of March,1919.

John M. Towles, Constable.

Whereupon the defendant waived examination and trial, and the court being duly advised in the premises, finds that all the allegations of the affidavit are probably true, and that Ella Garner, the complaining witness, had, at the time said affidavit was filed, just cause to entertain the fears therein expressed.

It is therefore considered and adjudged by the court that the defendant be required to enter into a recognizance with freehold surety, payable to the State of Indiana, in the penal sum of Six Hundred ($600.00) Dollars, conditioned that he will appear before the Circuit court of Hendricks county on the first day of the next term thereof and abide by the order of said court, and to meanwhile keep the peace toward Ella Garner and all the inhabitants of the state.

And afterward on the same day, the defendant tendered his bond in the sum and with the requisite conditions, with Mary McDaniel and Wilda Johnson as surety, which bond was duly approved, filed, and endorsed by me, and said defendant was thereupon discharged.
