1. If the transfer be granted, tuition should be paid from the date of the application for transfer.
2. A separate transfer sheet must be made for each pupil who wishes transfer.
3. It is possible, under this law, to grant transfer to one or more members of a family of children and refuse transfer to others of the same family.
4. Transfers should be made between July 1st and September 1st of each year, but may be made at any time.
5. On July 1st of each year the debtor corporation must pay, out of its special school fund, the tuition of transferred pupils, which fund is placed to the credit of the tuition fund in the creditor corporation.
6. "A longer term, "a better school," etc., are not sufficient reasons for transfer. "Great distances to walk," "the crossing of rivers or railroads," "the gaining of high school privileges," are sufficient reasons.
7. The burden of securing the transfer rests upon the applicant.
8. The transfer sheet is the property of the applicant until application is granted. He must then file the sheet with the corporation to which the transfer is made.
9. The trustee receiving an application for the transfer of a child should keep a duplicate of the application and his action thereon.
10. All transfers end June 30th following the date of transfer.
11. The debtor trustee pays tuition for the number of months the child is enrolled in the creditor corporation.

1. If the transfer be granted, tuition should be paid from the date of the application for transfer.
2. A separate transfer sheet must be made for each pupil who wishes transfer.
3. It is possible, under this law, to grant transfer to one or more members of a family of children and refuse transfer to others of the same family.
4. Transfers should be made between July 1st and September 1st of each year, but may be made at any time.
5. On July 1st of each year the debtor corporation must pay, out of its special school fund, the tuition of transferred pupils, which fund is placed to the credit of the tuition fund in the creditor corporation.
6. "A longer term," "a better school," etc., are not sufficient reasons for transfer. "Great distances to walk," "the crossing of rivers or railroads," "the gaining of high school privileges," are sufficient reasons.
7. The burden of securing the transfer rests upon the applicant.
8. The transfer sheet is the property of the applicant until application is granted. He must then file the sheet with the corporation to which the transfer is made.
9. The trustee receiving an application for the transfer of a child should keep a duplicate of the application and his action thereon.
10. All transfers end June 30th following the date of transfer.

1. If the transfer be granted, tuition should be paid from the date of the application for transfer.
2. A separate transfer sheet must be made for each pupil who wishes transfer.
3. It is possible, under this law, to grant transfer to one or more members of a family of children and refuse transfer to others of the same family.
4. Transfers should be made between July 1st and September 1st of each year, but may be made at any time.
5. On July 1st of each year the debtor corporation must pay, out of its special school fund, the tuition of transferred pupils, which fund is placed to the credit of the tuition fund in the creditor corporation.
6. "A longer term," "a better school," etc., are not sufficient reasons for transfer. "Great distances to walk," "the crossing of rivers or railroads," "the gaining of high school privileges," are sufficient reasons.
7. The burden of securing the transfer rests upon the applicant.
8. The transfer sheet is the property of the applicant until application is granted. He must then file the sheet with the corporation to which the transfer is made.
9. The trustee receiving an application for the transfer of a child should keep a duplicate of the application and his action thereon.
10. All transfers end June 30th following the date of transfer.
11. The debtor trustee pays tuition for the number of months the child is enrolled in the creditor corporation.

NOTES.

1. If the transfer be granted, tuition should be paid from the date of the application for transfer.
2. A separate transfer sheet must be made for each pupil who wishes transfer.
3. It is possible, under this law, to grant transfer to one or more members of a family of children and refuse transfer to others of the same family.
4. Transfers should be made between July 1st and September 1st of each year, but may be made at any time.
5. On July 1st of each year the debtor corporation must pay, out of its special school fund, the tuition of transferred pupils, which fund is placed to the credit of the tuition fund in the creditor corporation.
6. "A longer term," "a better school," etc., are not sufficient reasons for transfer. "Great distances to walk," "the crossing of rivers or railroads," "the gaining of high school privileges," are sufficient reasons.
7. The burden of securing the transfer rests upon the applicant.
8. The transfer sheet is the property of the applicant until application is granted. He must then file the sheet with the corporation to which the transfer is made.
9. The trustee receiving an application for the transfer of a child should keep a duplicate of the application and his action thereon.
10. All transfers end June 30th following the date of transfer.
11. The debtor trustee pays tuition for the number of months the child is enrolled in the creditor corporation.

1. If the transfer be granted, tuition should be paid from the date of the application for transfer.
2. A separate transfer sheet must be made for each pupil who wishes transfer.
3. It is possible, under this law, to grant transfer to one or more members of a family of children and refuse transfer to others of the same family.
4. Transfers should be made between July 1st and September 1st of each year, but may be made at any time.
5. On July 1st of each year the debtor corporation must pay, out of its special school fund, the tuition of transferred pupils, which fund is placed to the credit of the tuition fund in the creditor corporation.
6. "A longer term," "a better school," etc., are not sufficient reasons for transfer. "Great distances to walk," "the crossing of rivers or railroads," "the gaining of high school privileges," are sufficient reasons.
7. The burden of securing the transfer rests upon the applicant.
8. The transfer sheet is the property of the applicant until application is granted. He must then file the sheet with the corporation to which the transfer is made.
9. The trustee receiving an application for the transfer of a child should keep a duplicate of the application and his action thereon.
10. All transfers end June 30th following the date of transfer.
11. The debtor trustee pays tuition for the number of months the child is enrolled in the creditor corporation.
